WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a forged Guinea Note, in Imitation of that of the Paisley Banking Company, dated the 3d of October, 1785, was offered for Payment at Ayr, on the 17th Instant; and that another forged Note of the same Kind has since been discovered at the same Place:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them) except the Person who actually made and uttered the said Notes) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Paisley Banking Company do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as above mentioned, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FORGED NOTES.

The Engraving in general is not so well executed, nor the Letters so clean and regular as in the genuine Note.

The Cups in the Shield at the Bottom of the Device are considerably smaller than in the real Note.

The Roman Letter at the N^o appears to be inserted with a Printing Type, and is large and coarse, nor has any Resemblance to the Letter in the real Note.

The Engraver's Name Kirkwood is printed Kirkwoob.

The Subscriptions are so badly imitated, that the Imposition is observable on a very slight Inspection. But besides other Differences, which are unnecessary to mention, the Forgery is on common Paper, so that by holding it up to the Light, it may at once be detected by its wanting the Water Mark of

Paisley
Banking Company.

Whitehall, October 26, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 17th Instant, about Midnight, the Dwelling-House of General Charles Vernon, situate at Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, was burglariously attempted to be broke into and entered, by some evil-disposed Persons unknown, armed with Pistols and Bludgeons, who actually stole a Quantity of Plate through a Casement, but were deterred from proceeding in the Robbery by the Noise they made alarming one of the Servants of the said General Vernon, who discharged a Blunderbuss in the Midst of the said Villains, by which one of them was very much wounded, as appeared by the Quantity of Blood discovered in the Track by which they made their Escape; that in their Flight they left behind them the Plate they had stolen, together with a Horse Pistol loaded with Slugs, mounted with Brass, and a Bludgeon stained with Blood; and further, that on Monday Evening the 19th Instant, soon after the Return of the said said General Vernon in his Carriage from Town, as one of the Footmen who attended him, (being the Servant who discharged the Blunderbuss at the Thieves as above mentioned) was passing from one of the back Offices towards the said Dwelling-House, he was fired at with a Pistol (as supposed by the Report) loaded with Ball, by some Person unknown, but fortunately escaped unhurt, and two of the Balls entered the Door of the said Dwelling-House.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the several felonious Offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired at the Footman as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said General Vernon doth hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted;) and the Trustees for Watching and Lighting the said Parish of Hampstead, do hereby in like Manner offer the additional-Reward of FIFTY POUNDS; the said several Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders: And in Case the Person who fired at the Servant as above mentioned should happen to be convicted, the said General Vernon doth hereby promise to augment the Reward above offered by him to the Sum of FORTY POUNDS.

Cha. Vernon.

N. B. All Informations on the above Subject are desired to be addressed, as speedily as possible, to the Permanent Committee appointed by the Vestry, at Hampstead, for the Purpose of protecting the Persons and Property of the Inhabitants of that Neighbourhood.
