DESCRIPTION of the FORGED NOTES.

The Engraving in general is not so well executed, nor the Letters so clean and regular as in the genuine Note.

The Cups in the Shield at the Bottom of the Device are considerably smaller than in the real Note.

The

The Roman Letter at the N^o appears to be inserted with a Printing Type, and is large and coarse, nor has any Resemblance to the Letter in the real Note.

The Engraver's Name Kirkwood is printed Kirkwoob.

The Subscriptions are so badly imitated, that the Imposition is observable on a very slight Inspection. But besides other Differences, which are unnecessary to mention, the Forgery is on common Paper, so that by holding it up to the Light, it may at once be detected by its wanting the Water Mark of

To the Manufacturers of British Piece Goods.

Gentlemen,

THE Act of Parliament which passed last Session, exempting from the Auction Duty "all Goods whatsoever woven or fabricated in the Loom in this Kingdom, which shall be sold by Auction entire in the Piece or Quantity in which the same were taken from the Loom, and in Lots of not less than Twenty Pounds Value, and for Account of the Manufacturers or first Purchasers thereof," having taken Place; we take the Liberty to acquaint you, that in order to remedy, in some Degree, the Inconveniences to which that Act subjects both you and us, (by requiring the Goods to be openly shewn and exposed at the Time and Place of Sale) we have engaged the extensive Premises in Fenchurch-street, late Mess. Akerman and Shaw's, for the express Purpose of vending the Manufactures of Great Britain conformable to the said Act. These Warehouses are universally allowed to be the best adapted of any in London, and, by Way of Distinction, we shall call them the Emporium for British Manufactured Piece Goods. Our long Establishment and Conduct in the Commission Line, and our extensive Connections with the Merchants, Drapers, Warehousemen and others, together with our general Knowledge of Piece Goods, will, we flatter ourselves, warrant us in soliciting the Favor of your Encouragement and Preference, under an Assurance of exerting our utmost Abilities in your Service.

In Conformity to the Wishes of several Manufacturers, we intend having a Public Sale every Two Months, and our next will be early in January. Such Manufacturers, therefore, as wish to favor us with their Consignments, we entreat them to be forwarded as soon as convenient. After the Goods are delivered free in our Warehouses, our Charge will be Three per Cent. on the Amount of Sales, which includes Commission, Insurance from Fire, and from outstanding Debts.

We are, Gentlemen,

Your most faithful and obedient Servants,
WHEELHOUSE and WHITFIELD.
