The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by Order in Council of the 25th of June, 1788, the Importation of Wheat of the Growth of any of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, was prohibited, until His Majesty's Pleasure should be further signified: And whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that it appears, by Accounts received from His Majesty's Consul General at New York, and by the Information of several Merchants of the City of London, and others, trading to America, that the Hessian Fly, by which the Wheat of the Growth of the Territories of the said United States of America was infected in former Years, had this Season wholly disappeared: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, That the said Prohibition, laid by Order in Council of the 25th of June, 1788, be, and the same is hereby, taken off.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of December, 1789,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that, by reason of the defective Execution of the Law respecting the Exportation and Importation of Corn and Grain, the Prices thereof cannot be properly ascertained for regulating and governing the Exportation and Importation thereof, in many Parts of Great Britain. And whereas it is expedient that a sufficient Supply of Wheat, Rye, Barley and Oats, and Flour or Meal made thereof, should be secured and retained within this Kingdom: And whereas there is reason to believe that, from the Deficiencies of the Crops in several Foreign Parts, very extensive Commissions have been received, and may hereafter be received, for purchasing in Great Britain Wheat, Rye, Barley and Oats, or Flour or Meal made thereof, for the Supply of such Foreign Parts. And whereas the Parliament standing prorogued to the 21st Day of January, 1790, His Majesty has not an Opportunity of speedily taking the Advice of His Parliament: In order therefore to fulfill the Intention of the Legislature, by curing to His faithful Subjects a sufficient Supply of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beans and Oats, and Flour and Meal made thereof, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Person or Persons whatever shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, until further Order, directly or indirectly export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on board, of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Wheat, Wheat-Flour, Rye, Rye-Meal, Barley, Barley-Meal, Malt, Bread, Biscuit, Oats, Oat-Meal and Beans: His Majesty hath, nevertheless, thought fit to order,
