Honors of Clare and Mandeville, in Suffolk, Essex, Hertford and Middlesex.

ALL Persons holding Lands of these Honors by the Payment of any Ingress Fines or Quit Rents, are hereby informed, that with a View to remove every Obstacle to their discharging their Estates from those Burthens, the Grantee hath been prevailed upon to make such a conditional Surrender to the Crown, of his existing Lease as to enable the Duchy Court of Lancaster to give immediate Effect to such Discharges as shall be agreed for in the Terms of the late Act of Parliament, and that the specific Terms whereon all Persons indiscriminately may obtain such Discharges are now fixed and printed, and will be delivered gratis, or transmitted by Letter, to Mr. Harpur at this Office, Post-paid, to all Persons applying for the same; and there being some Reasons to fear, from Enquiries recently made at this Office, that some of the Tenants of the Honors have trusted to other Persons to treat and pay for their Discharges, who have neglected so to do, Notice is hereby given, that at this Office alone is any Person authorized to treat for or receive the Money to be paid to the Crown on the Account of such Discharges; but the Fines and Quit-Rents already due, and also such as shall accrue from Persons who shall not come in, are to continue to be paid to the Grantee.
