ter's, after which we shall be better able to judge how things will turn. The Merchants, upon the great appearance there was of a fuld n Peace, had already begunto frout their thips, bur at prefent they facken their hand, till they fee the iffue of things. iWe do not yet certainly know when the Prince of Orange will return to the Army, which, it's faid, the Duke de Villa Hermola, Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, defires his Highnes would do very speedily, in order to the putting a Royal Convoy into Mons, which, after all, we are told isnot in so great want of Provisions as hath been faid.

Braffeto, I July S. The Dutch Anny, consilling in about's d Battalions, and good Horft and Dragoons, commanded by the Count de Maffaw, are encamped near Filootd; the Ofnabrug Troops, who were marching towards the Maufe, are comerback, and are encamped near Mulines. The Duke of Luxemburg continuco fa this old Camp near this City, whither the 5000 Horle that werd find towards the Menfe, are rosurhedjand the Cannon is likewife brough, back from Act, and belides we have an Account from Lille, that the Marcichal # Humieres is drawing out feveral Gatilons to ruinforce the Duke of Lukemburgs Army, which, it's faid, the faid Marcishal will come mand, and that the Dike will return to Pary, On Sunday last in the evening hapned here a Tumult among the ordinary fort of people, who meeting at one of the Gates with three or four Wagons laden with Win s and Provisions, going to one of the French quatters, with a Passport from his Excellency, they brought them back to the Market-place, where they flaved the Casks, and burns the Wagons , and not fatisfied with this, they went to the Houle of Viscoutt Berlin, Governor of this City, with inten-tion to have plundered it, but were pretentened by a Guard of Soldiers he had got there. Yefter, day Sir Alexander Collyer, Adjuant Const. C. S. Dutch Army; can hither, being fent by the Prince of Orange to the Duke de Villa Hermofa, and after have ving been feveral hours in Conference with his Excellency, returned again. The laft night a French Party paffed the River, and came very near the Fort Monterey, and took a very first view of it Ður Letters from Aix la Chapelle tell us, that Maroschal Schemberg continues encamped at Gulpen, near Aix la Chapelle, where he layes up great Magazines. Our last Advice from Strasburg is of the first instant, which fayes, that'the Duke of Lorrain was marching with all the diligence possible to relieve Rhinfeldt, which the Mareschal de Crequi had sent a detachment of 8 or Joodd men to befiege.

Antibert, Fully 9. Hitherto we remain in an uncertainty what to expect, Peace or War, all the appear rances are for the latter 3. for we are affured, that at Nimeguen things continue in the fame flate they were S or rodayes fince, only the Brench Ambafiadors have not y t finally, as we hear, declared themfelves, expecting the Orders of their King, in return to the Account they have given him of the Refolutions ta-R n by the States. In the mean time the Duke of Luxemburg, who remains near Bruffels, feems to prepare himfelf for Action, by reinforcing, his Army, fending for his Cannon back from Aeth, Sc. At Bruffels the ordinary fort of People have been very apt of late to fall into mutinics, two or three dayes fince they feized fome Wagons with Provisions, which his Exclinency the Duke de Villa Hermola, in civility to fome of the French Commanders, had permitted to be fent to the French Camp; and the diforder would have gone farther, had it not been prevented by the care of the Governor, the Vifcount Berlin, who had very feafonably polled two Spanish Companies in and near his house, which fecured it:

Paris, July 13. We have an Actount from Germany, that the Duke of Lorrain, upon the Advice he had that the Mareschal de Crequi had sent a Body of Men, under the Command of the Marquis de Choifeul, to befiege Kbinfeldt, detached the Count de Statemberg with 6000 Horfe, to cover the place, with whom our Troops have had an Engagement, and are faid to have quite routed them, killing 7 or 800 upon the place, among whom are counted leveral Perfons of Quality, as the Prince of Baden, Prince Por-14, &c. a great many were made Prifoners, and 3 or 400 drowned, a Bridge breaking under two Regiments of Cuiraffiers, as they were paffing it, and it is faid that Count Staremberg is among the drown-¢d. We are expecting to hear that the Duke of Luxemburg has entred upon some Action in Flanders, in order to which our Letters from thence tell us, that he had cauled his great Cannon, which he had fent to Actb, to be brought back to his Camp, and had given Orgers for the drawing out feveral Garifons to rein+ force his Army. Mons, we are told, is at prefent in that condition, that it cannot hold out long, and therefore if the War continues, that place must of neceffity fall into our hands very quickly. On the fide of Catalonia, the Kings Thoops are all in quarters of softe Autont in Lampour dan, where they will continue till the great Heats are over. Marefchal Schomberg continues encamped near six to Chapelle, and gathers great Contributions.
