By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen and Landmen who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able Seamen, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore, for Raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Three Pounds each Man; and all such Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Two Pounds each Man: And all such Able-Bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man, as Our Royal Bounty. Such respective Sums to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque, residing at the Ports or Places where the Ships, into which they shall be entered, shall be, immediately after the Third Muster of such Seamen and Landmen. And We do declare, that the Qualifications of the Seamen and Landmen, so entering themselves as aforesaid, shall be certified by the Captain, Master, and Boatswain of the Ship or Vessel where they shall enter. And, for Prevention of any Abuses; by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on Board any other Our Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty-Money, We do hereby declare and command, that such Seamen and Landmen, belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on Board any other of Our said Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave; but also be severely punished according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety, and in the Thirtieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Recalling and Prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States; and for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We are informed, That great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom; We have therefore thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby strictly charge and command all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever and wheresoever, (being Our natural-born Subjects) who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or do serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, that forthwith they, and every of them, do (according to their known and bounden Duty and Allegiance) withdraw themselves, depart from, and quit such Foreign Services, and return Home to their Native Countries. And farther, We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever, (being Our natural-born Subjects) from entering, and do charge and

and command them, and every of them, from henceforth, to forbear to enter themselves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or to serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel whatsoever, without Our Special Licence first had and obtained in that Behalf; to all which We expect due Obedience and exact Conformity. And We do hereby publish and declare, that the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur Our just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for their Contempt according to the utmost Severities of the Law. And We do hereby declare, that if any such Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, or other Seafaring Men, (being Our Subjects) shall be taken in any Foreign Service by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, they shall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain. And we hereby further promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman shall be paid any Person who shall discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secrete him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next; the said Rewards to be paid for any Seaman or Seamen so discovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy; and at the Out-Ports by the Naval Officers (where there are any;) and (where there are no Naval Officers) by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately, upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names and Number of Seamen procured in consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety, and in the Thirtieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the King.

Petersburgh, April 23.

Yesterday Count Cobenzl was admitted to an Audience of her Imperial Majesty, and had the Honor of delivering his Credentials, as Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from his Royal and Apostolic Majesty the King of Hungary and Bohemia. And on Sunday last the Baron de la Turbie had the like Honor, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sardinia.

Whitehall, May 10, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that several tumultuous Assemblies of Persons have lately met in the Town and Neighbourhood of Petworth, in the County of Sussex, declaring their Intention and Resolution to lower the Price of Provisions, and whereas the following Paper was put up against the Church Door, the Whipping Post, and other Places in the said Town of Petworth.

"An Address from the Poor to the Wheat Hoarders, Farmers, Butchers, Brewers, Bakers, &c. on the present High Price of Provisions

"We hope, that the Bread in the price will abate
 "And Bakers remember to sell us full Weight,
 "To stop our Proceedings in M—bs for the Wheat
 "Likewise that the Butcher do give some Relief
 "In the present high Price of Mutton and Beef
 "One Penny less in a Gallon of small Beer,
 "Fall Butter and Cheese for this Shamefully dear
 "We hope these few Lines will afford us some ease
 "Or we will rise a M—b & do as We please
 "We had better be launchd into Eternity at Once
 "than submit to your Diabolical Imposition and starve by Inches.

N.B. Any Person who shall take down this Paper may depend on being particularly Noticed, when We are assembled."

May 8th. 1790.

His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in Writing and Fixing up the said Paper, doth hereby promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote or put up the said Paper) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Magistrates sitting for the Lower Division of Arundel Rape, do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, April 26, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that between Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening of the 1st of April last, Mr. Richard Ashworth (Son of Mr. Ashworth, of El-land Bank, near Halifax, in the County of York, Corn-Factor) being on his Return Home on Horseback, a Pistol was discharged at him in a Place called Bradley-lane, near his Father's House, by some evil-disposed Person unknown, the Ball of which passed very near his Head, but fortunately did not wound him.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Firing at Mr. Richard Ashworth as abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually fired at the said Mr. Richard Ashworth as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders, by me

James Ashworth, for my Father
 John Ashworth.

Navy-Office, May 6, 1790.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That such Persons as are willing to serve in His Majesty's Ships as Surgeons Mates, shall, upon their Application at this Office, have Letters for their being examined at Surgeons Hall, and, if found qualified, be immediately employed according to such Qualifications as shall be given from thence.

They shall receive Two Months Advance Pay in the Ships where they shall be appointed before they proceed to Sea.

Navy-Office, May 6, 1790.

WHEREAS several Masters and Surgeons belonging to His Majesty's Navy have omitted to leave at this Office an Account of their Places of Abode, or have removed since having left such an Account; it is the Direction of the Commissioners of the Navy, that all Masters and Surgeons, not at this Time employed in the Service, do forthwith give Notice here of their Places of Abode, and do continue to do the same as often as they shall remove to any other Place.

And such as have had Leave to go Abroad in the Merchants Service or otherwise, are to send an Account where they now are, and when the Voyage they are on will probably be terminated, observing, upon their Arrival in any Port in Great Britain or Ireland, the Leave by which they are absent is to cease and determine, and they are forthwith to send Notice of such Arrival to the said Commissioners.

Admiralty-Office, May 15, 1790.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply, by Letter, to Mr. Thomas Kite, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, as well as to the Widows of those Officers who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; This is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
