Navy-Office, May 6, 1790.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That such Persons as are willing to serve in His Majesty's Ships as Surgeons Mates, shall, upon their Application at this Office, have Letters for their being examined at Surgeons Hall, and, if found qualified, be immediately employed according to such Qualifications as shall be given from thence.

They shall receive Two Months Advance Pay in the Ships where they shall be appointed before they proceed to Sea.

Navy-Office, May 6, 1790.

WHEREAS several Masters and Surgeons belonging to His Majesty's Navy have omitted to leave at this Office an Account of their Places of Abode, or have removed since having left such an Account; it is the Direction of the Commissioners of the Navy, that all Masters and Surgeons, not at this Time employed in the Service, do forthwith give Notice here of their Places of Abode, and do continue to do the same as often as they shall remove to any other Place.

And such as have had Leave to go Abroad in the Merchants Service or otherwise, are to send an Account where they now are, and when the Voyage they are on will probably be terminated, observing, upon their Arrival in any Port in Great Britain or Ireland, the Leave by which they are absent is to cease and determine, and they are forthwith to send Notice of such Arrival to the said Commissioners.

Navy-Office, May 22, 1790.

WHEREAS several Masters and Surgeons in His Majesty's Navy have neglected to send to this Office their Address, notwithstanding the Directions contained in the Advertisement of the 5th Instant;

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that unless they immediately send an Account where they are, so that they may be called upon when wanted, they will be under the Necessity of striking those who neglect it off the List, and making others in their Room.

Admiralty-Office, May 15, 1790.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply, by Letter, to Mr. Thomas Kite, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, as well as to the Widows of those Officers who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; This is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
