St. Peterburgh, May 4.

Intelligence has just been received here, that the Swedes having entered into the Russian Territories, and possessed themselves of a very strong Post, called Karnankosky, on the Borders of the Lake Saima, an Attempt to dislodge them was made by the Russians. For this Purpose Ten Thousand Men; under the Command of General Igelfront and the Prince of Anhalt, were drawn together, and an Attack was made, at Break of Day, upon the Swedish Intrenchments, which were defended by about Three Thousand Men. The Swedes withstood this Assault, which was made in Three Columns, with the greatest Intrepidity, and repulsed the Russians, who are said to have left near Two Thousand Men on the Field. This Misfortune is greatly aggravated by the Loss of the Prince of Anhalt, who was shot in the Thigh, and died soon after, and by that of Major General Keiboff, who commanded the Detachment of Guards sent on this Expedition. Many other Officers are also said to have shared the same Fate, of whom, however, no particular Account has yet been received.
