Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 3, to Tuesday July 6, 1790.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of June, 1790,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamations of the 7th Day of May last, for granting Bounties for the Encouraging of Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War, and Rewards for discovering Seamen who may secrete themselves; will expire on the Thirtieth Day of this instant June: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties and Rewards should continue to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore; by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, That the Time limited by the aforementioned Proclamations for granting the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June to the Thirty-first Day of August next inclusive, and that the Bounties and Rewards thereby given and granted be continued to be paid until the said Thirty-first Day of August: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Farvener.

Admiralty-Office, May 31, 1790.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to give Notice, that Directions have been sent to the Lieutenants who are employed on, or about, the River Thames in procuring Men for His Majesty's Ships which are fitting out, not to impress the Masters of any small Boats, commonly called Peter Boats, employed on the said River in catching Fish for the Supply of the City of London, provided the said Persons are actually Masters of the said Boats, and not Seamen.

Pb. Stephens.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 10, 1790.

THE Commissioners and Governors of this Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 20th Day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms will be let on Leases, to commence upon the 12th Day of May, 1791, viz. Whitechapel, Lipwood, Lipwoodwell, Totts, West, Millhills, East Millhills, Haydon Town, Plenderheath, Altonside, Westbrokenheugh, Eastbrokenheugh, Allerwash West, Allerwash Town, and Allerwash East Farms; East Land Ends, Ephill, Lightbirks and Langley Castle Farms, in the Parish of Warden and Barony of Langley, and Elrington Hall and Elrington East Farms in the said Parish and Barony of Wark, and Broad Pool Common Allotment, in the Parish of Simonburn and said Barony of Wark, all in the County of Northumberland.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take any of the said Farms are requested to give in or send their Proposals in Writing to John Ibbetson, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, London, at any Time before the 20th Day of October next, or, on that Day, between the Hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Salters Hall, in London; after which last mentioned Time no Proposals will be received: And, for Particulars of the said Farms, to apply to Messrs. Walton and Turner, Receivers for the said Hospital, or to the Bailiffs in their respective Districts.

The whole of the above Farms will be let for Twenty-one Years, except the Elrington Hall and East Farms, which will be let for Sixteen Years; and all Grounds now inclosed or marked off for the Growth of Wood or Underwood, will be excepted and reserved of the said Commissioners and Governors.

General Post-Office, June 23, 1790.

THERE being the greatest Reason to suspect that one William Lownds or Lowins, otherwise called William Hope, is the Person who robbed the Mail between Penrith and Keswick, on the 25th Day of February last (which Robbery was advertised in the London Gazette of Saturday the 6th Day of March last) he having negotiated at a Banker's in Newcastle upon Tyne, on the 31 Instant, in the Name of William Hope, a Bill of Exchange, for 541 l. 8 s. which was taken out of that Mail, with a forged Endorsement thereon.

The said William Lownds or Lowins, otherwise called Hope, is about Thirty-five Years of Age, Five Feet Eight or Nine Inches high, stout made, dark Complexion, has remarkably good black Hair, which he wears tied behind; he has the Appearance of a Seafaring Man, and is supposed to have been born at Congleton in Cheshire, has been in Ireland lately, and has a little of that Dialect: He has lived at Sunderland, and was married there about Ten Years ago, but has not lived with his Wife for some Years.

He was again married at Alfreton in Derbyshire, in 1785, to Amy Clark, by whom he has two Children, and has resided at Hexham in Northumberland since the 8th of March last. He left that Place the 4th Instant with his Wife and Family, whom he left at Darlington, and after transacting some Business at the Two Banks there, he came to London in the Mail Coach, and arrived on Monday Morning the 7th Instant, and immediately went to Messrs. Smith, Wright and Gray, Bankers, where he negotiated a Bill of Exchange, and wrote the Name "W. Lownds" thereon.

He is supposed to have in his Possession a Promissory Note of one of the Banks at Newcastle, dated 3d June, 1790, for One Hundred Pounds, payable on Demand to Mr. William Hope, or Order.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the said William Lownds or Lowins, otherwise called Hope, of the said Robbery of the Mail, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby the said William Lownds or Lowins, otherwise called Hope, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, June 17, 1790.

AS the Three-pence per Mile, hitherto allowed for the Conveyance of Expresses, is not sufficient to enable the Postmasters to find good and able Horses for the Performance of this Service, with proper Expedition;

Notice is hereby given, That the Three Halfpence per Mile, in Addition to the Three-pence now allowed for the Ride, is to be paid over and above the Three Halfpence per Mile for the Post Horse Duty, making in the Whole Six-pence per Mile; and also One Shilling for each Stage, instead of Six-pence to the Rider, as an Encouragement for him to perform his Duty with greater Readiness and Dispatch; to commence on Monday the 21st Instant.

The Fees for dispatching and delivering Expresses remain as at present.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Anthony Todd, Sec.

South Sea House, July 6, 1790.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House, on Thursday the 22d Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of declaring a Dividend on their Capital Stock for the Half-Year ending the 5th of this Month.
