Alarming Symptoms of the Plague have for the last Eight Days appeared in different Parts of this Refidence, as also in the Villages situated on the Canal; and Letters from Smyrna of the 15th Instant advise, that Three Accidents of the Plague had happened there since the 8th Instant, supposed to have been brought by a Boat from the Island of Ipará.

Nominee, for the more speedy Completion of the Exchequer Orders which are to be given to each Person who shall so nominate.

Whitehall, July 24, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter, was received by the General Post on the 22d Day of this instant July, by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of London, of which the following is a Copy:

“ Sir,

“ I give myself the Trouble of writing this “ to such a Petty Rascall as you to inform you that “ I and three other Friends of that very worthy and “ constitutional Gentleman Alderman Newnham “ have entered into a Resolution that we will murder
“ you and that vain fellow your Brother Idiot Curtis “ that he Mr. Newnham may regain his Seat, and “ that such an insignificant Fellow as you may “ never have it in your Power to trouble a worthy “ Gentleman again.
“ If you pretend to search the Author of this “ you may depend upon it you shall not survive it “ three Hours as there is one of our Number “ who can have access to poison or destroy you “ otherwise as to us may seem most proper, offering “ a Reward will be in vain as we are bound to “ others by the most solemn Ties of Consanguinity “ and Secrecy you may prepare yourself for the “ Blow. & rest assured that Curtis, Horne Tooke & “ you ere the Meeting of the Parliament will be in “ utter Oblivion.”

“ Yours, &c.”

“ Wednesday.”

Supercribed,

“ William Pickett, Esq;”
“ Mansion-House.”

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise
