Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 7, to Tuesday August 10, 1790.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of August, 1790.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 7th Day of May last; was graciously pleased to promise and declare, that all Able-bodied Seamen, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for His Majesty's Service, who should, on or before the 30th Day of June then next, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, should receive, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Three Pounds each Man; and that all such Ordinary Seamen, as should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Two Pounds each Man; and that all such Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, as should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings; such several Sums to be paid to them by the Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports or Places where the Ships, into which such Seamen or Landmen so entering, should be, according to the Certificates therein mentioned: And whereas by another Proclamation bearing Date the said 7th Day of May, His Majesty was further pleased to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secrete him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of the Sea Officers employed for raising Men on or before the said 30th Day of June then next; such Rewards to be paid for any Seaman or Seamen so discovered and taken by the Persons mentioned in the said Proclamation, and according to the Certificate thereby required: And whereas His Majesty, by Order in Council, bearing Date the 23d of June last, was further pleased to direct, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation for granting the said Bounties and Rewards should be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of June to the 31st of this present Month of August, inclusive: And whereas Provision hath been made in the Kingdom of Ireland for the Extraordinary Expence of Government, which may be necessary in putting and maintaining that Kingdom in a State of Defence, and towards raising Men for His Majesty's Fleet:

His Majesty having this Day taken the said Proclamations and Order in Council into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare, that the said several Bounties and Rewards, thereby promised and declared to be payable during the Times therein respectively mentioned; shall henceforth cease and determine, and be no longer paid and payable in this Kingdom, to such Able or Ordinary Seamen, or to such Able-bodied Landmen as shall henceforth enter themselves in the Kingdom of Ireland to serve in His Majesty's Navy, or to such Persons who may discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall secrete him or themselves in that Kingdom, from and after the Date hereof, any Thing in the aforesaid Proclamations or Order in Council to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Steph. Cottrell.

Admiralty-Office, August 10, 1790.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant Edward Riou, commanding His Majesty's Ship Guardian, to Mr. Stephens, dated Table Bay, March 15, 1790.

BE pleased to inform their Lordships, that I am now preparing to get the Ship into Saldanha Bay, by endeavouring, as much as possible, to stop the Leak within Board; and that I purpose mooring her there close to the Beach at Low Water in a Cove, where no Wind or Sea can affect her; the which, if I am so fortunate as to accomplish, I mean then to return here myself, in order to preserve, as much as possible, such Provisions and Stores as have been landed.

I have enclosed an Account of the Officers, Crew, &c. that were saved in His Majesty's Ship.

A List of such Persons who arrived with His Majesty's Ship Guardian in Table Bay, and are now on Board.

Notice is hereby given, that the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household has granted Licence for the Performance of Italian Operas at the Pantheon to Robert Bray O'Reilly, Esq; Zant, May 24.

Intelligence has been received here, that the Senate of Venice has lately issued a Decree, suppressing the extraordinary Duty on Ships (called Novissimo) for the Term of Five Years, and allowing Ships of any Nation to load Currants at this and the neighbouring Islands, paying only the ordinary Duties; without requiring the Ships, in the first Instance, to bring their Cargoes to Venice, which they were obliged to do by the former Regulations.

TONTINE, 1789.

Exchequer-Office, Palace-Yard,
May 29, 1790.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Books for the Nomination of Lives in the Tontine 1789 are now preparing at this Office, and all Persons who mean to nominate Lives in the said Tontine are requested to give Notice thereof, in Writing, to Mr. Paxton, at the Exchequer, where Attendance will be given each Day, (Sundays and Holidays excepted) between the Hours of Ten and One, or to Mr. Abraham Newland, at the Bank, naming and describing the Person for whose Life he, she or they shall desire to have an Annuity, with the Benefit of Survivorship, by and under such Terms and Descriptions as will best ascertain the Person and true Age of such Nominee, for the more speedy Completion of the Exchequer Orders which are to be given to each Person who shall so nominate.

Whitehall, July 30, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night between the 29th and 30th Days of March last, several Stacks of Corn, in the Barn Yard of Glencarse, in the Parish of Kinfauns and County of Perth, were burned to the Ground; and that, from several Circumstances it appears evident, that this Fire did not happen from Accident, but that the said Stacks were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Stacks of Corn as above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as further Encouragement, the County of Perth do hereby offer a Reward of FORTY POUNDS Sterling to any Person or Persons (except as is above excepted) who may give such Information as may lead to the Discovery and Conviction of the Person or Persons guilty of this atrocious Crime.

And the Gentlemen of the Parish of Gowrie, in which District the Fire happened, do also offer a like Reward of FORTY POUNDS Sterling; both Sums to be paid upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by James Ross, Procurator Fiscal of the said County.

Whitehall, August 5, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous threatening Letter was, in the Month of June last, left in the Door Way of the Dwelling-house of the Worshipful the Mayor of Banbury; and that another anonymous threatening Letter was, about the same Time, left in the Door-Way of the Dwelling-house of Mr. Samuel Claroon, jun. a Member of the Corporation of Banbury; of which Letters the following are Copies.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letters abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letters) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by John Pain, Esq; Mayor of the said Borough of Banbury (to be paid by Mr. William Walford, of Banbury) to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

John Pain.

General Post-Office, July 6, 1790.

THERE are the strongest Reasons to believe, that one William Lewins, the Person advertised in the London Gazette of the 26th of June last, and in all the London Papers about that Time, by the Names of William Lownds or Lowins, otherwise William Hope, on Suspicion of having robbed the Mail between Penrith and Kewick on the 25th of February, 1790, is the Person who also robbed the Mail between Warrington and Northwich, on the 11th of March, 1788, and likewise robbed the Mail between Chester and Frodsham on the 29th of June, 1789.

The said William Lewins was born in the Parish of Astbury, near Congleton, in Cheshire, and was married at Alfreton in Derbyshire the 11th of July, 1785, to Amie Clarke.

He lived at Chesterfield in Derbyshire for about Two Years previous to the first Robbery of the Mail, and followed the Business of a Weaver.

He negotiated a Bill of Exchange for 20l. which was taken out of the said Mail at Chesterfield a few Days after that Robbery.

On the 22d of March, 1788, he negotiated to Messrs. Roper and Rayner, of Leeds, another Bill of Exchange, taken out of the same Mail, for 69l. 5s. 6d. which he endorsed in the Name of "Wm. Brown."

On the 18th of April, 1788, he negotiated to Messrs. Wilberforce, Smiths and Co. of Hull, a Bill of Exchange for 111l. likewise taken out of that Mail, and endorsed the same Name, "Wm. Brown," thereon.

He absconded from Chesterfield in the same Month, and was advertised in the London Gazette of the 26th of May, 1788.

On the 11th of April, 1789, about Eleven Weeks previous to the 26th of June, 1789, the Day on which the Mail between Chester and Frodsham was robbed, he went with his Wife and Child to live at Beaumaris in North Wales, assuming the Name of William Hutchinson, and lodged with one Mrs. Corry: In a few Days after this Robbery, he absconded from Beaumaris, and early in August following he negotiated at Oxford a Bill of Exchange for 14l. 18s. which was taken out of this Mail, and endorsed it in the Name of "Wm. Mall."

The said William Lewins is about Thirty-five or Thirty-six Years of Age, Five Feet Eight or Nine Inches high, stout made, of a dark Complexion, has remarkable good black Hair, which he lately wore tied behind, has a florid Complexion, large Lips, is rather heavy limbed, and thick about the Anles, and has a Wife whose Christian Name is, and whom he generally called Amy: It is supposed that he went with his Wife and a little Child between Two or Three Years old, named Polly, to Ireland, in the Autumn of 1788, and returned to Beaumaris in the Spring of 1789.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the said William Lewins, of any of the said Robberies of the Mail, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in any of the said Robberies, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby the said William Lewins may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 10, 1790.

THE Commissioners and Governors of this Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 20th Day of October next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms will be let on Leases, to commence upon the 12th Day of May, 1791, viz.
