Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 23; to Tuesday October 26, 1790.

St. James's, October 26.

YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of the King's Accession to the Throne, when His Majesty entered into the Thirty-first Year of His Reign, the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there were Illuminations, and other Public Demonstrations of Joy, in London and Westminster.

Dublin, October 20, 1790.

The Rev. Robert Cochran, Vicar of Tallaght, in the County of Dublin, hath been appointed one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for said County.

ERRATUM in the last Gazette, in the Promotion of Lieutenant George Kay to be Captain Lieutenant, vice Edward Scott, who retires, for 3d Regiment of Foot Guards, read 3d Regiment of Foot.

Navy-Office, October 21, 1790.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Thursday the 28th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to receive Proposals from the Owners of Ships in the Service of the East India Company, as are not likely to be taken up for the Two ensuing Seasons, or other Persons, for conveying 2000 Convicts, or any Part of that Number, to the Settlement in New South Wales, on the Condition and under the Regulations to be seen at this Office.

The Court of Directors of the East India Company have consented that the Ships which may be engaged for this Purpose may proceed to Bombay and load Home with Cotton on private Account under the Inspection and Direction of the Company's Servants at that Settlement; provided such Cottons are sold at the Company's Sale, subject to the usual Expences (the Company's Duty excepted) and provided the said Ships do not interfere with any other Part of the Company's exclusive Commerce.

No Tenders will be noticed, unless the Parties, or Agents for them, attend, nor will any be received after Twelve o'Clock.

London, October 22, 1790.

THE undersigned Wharfingers, in Regard for the Public Security, hereby give Notice, that they will not be accountable for the Value of any Goods which may be accidentally destroyed by Fire in or upon their respective Wharfs and Warehouses.
