Navy-Office, November 15, 1790.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Thursday the 18th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with the Owners of such Ships in the Service of the East India Company, as are not likely to be taken up for the Two ensuing Seasons, or other Persons, for conveying 2000 Convicts, or any Part of that Number, to the Settlement at New South Wales, on the Conditions and under the Regulations to be seen at this Office.

The Court of Directors of the East India Company have consented that the Ships which may be engaged for this Purpose may proceed to Bombay and load Home with Cotton upon private Account, under the Inspection and Direction of the Company's Servants at that Settlement, provided such Cottons are sold at the Company's Sale, subject to the usual Expences (the Company's Duty only excepted) and provided the said Ships do not interfere with any other Part of the Company's exclusive Commerce.

No Tenders will be regarded, unless the Parties, or Agents for them, attend, nor will any be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty.

Custom-House, London, November 16, 1790.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that on the 28th of February last, James Radford was violently assaulted and ill-treated by the Populace at the Town of Lydd, within the Limits of the Port of Rye, upon a Supposition that he had given Information to some Officers of the Customs respecting the Concealment of a Quantity of uncustomed Goods, which were at that Time seized by them:

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs hereby give Notice to the said James Radford, that if he will attend the Surveyors General at their Office in the Custom-House, London, any Morning at Ten o'Clock, (Sundays and Holidays excepted) the Circumstances attending this Outrage will be enquired into, and such Recompence made to him as his Case shall appear to deserve.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Gale, Secretary.
