Westminster, Thursday, November 25, 1790.

HIS Majesty, being seated on the Throne, adorned with His Crown and Regal Ornaments, and attended by His Officers of State, (the Lords being in their Robes) commanded the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod to let the Commons know, It is His Majesty's Pleasure that they attend Him immediately in this House: Who being come,

The Lord Chancellor, having received Directions, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has been pleased to command me to acquaint you, that He will defer declaring the Causes of calling this Parliament till there shall be a Speaker of the House of Commons. And therefore it is His Majesty's Pleasure that you, Gentlemen of the House of Commons, do immediately repair to the Place where the Commons usually sit, and there chuse a fit Person to be your Speaker; and that you present such Person who shall be so chosen, to His Majesty here, for His Royal Approbation, Tomorrow, at Two o'Clock.

Then His Majesty was pleased to retire, and the Commons withdrew.

Westminster, Friday, November 26, 1790.

THIS Day the Two Houses of Parliament having again met, His Majesty went in State to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, presented to His Majesty the Right Honourable Henry Addington, whom they had chosen to be their Speaker. And the Lord Chancellor having, by the King's Command, signified His Majesty's Approbation of their Choice, His Majesty was then pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is a great Satisfaction to Me to inform you that the Differences which had arisen between Me and the Court of Spain, have happily been brought to an amicable Termination.

I have ordered Copies of the Declarations exchanged between My Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before you.

The Objects which I have proposed to Myself in the Whole of this Transaction, have been to obtain a suitable Reparation for the Act of Violence committed at Nootka, and to remove the Grounds of similar Disputes in future; as well as to secure to My Subjects the Exercise of their Navigation, Commerce, and Fisheries in those Parts of the World which were the Subject of Discussion.

The Zeal and Public Spirit manifested by all Ranks of My Subjects, and the Disposition and Conduct of My Allies, had left Me no room to doubt of the most vigorous and effectual Support; but no Event could have afforded Me so much Satisfaction, as the Attainment of the Objects which I had in View, without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace.

Since the last Session of Parliament, a Foundation has been laid for a Pacification between Austria and the Porte; and I am now employing My Mediation, in Conjunction with My Allies, for the Purpose of negotiating a Definitive Treaty between those Powers, and of endeavouring to put an End to the Dissensions in the Netherlands, in whose Situation I am necessarily concerned, from Considerations of National Interest, as well as from the Engagements of Treaties.

A separate Peace has taken Place between Russia and Sweden; but the War between the former of those Powers and the Porte still continues. The Principles on which I have hitherto acted, will make Me always desirous of employing the Weight and Influence of this Country in contributing to the Restoration of General Tranquillity.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Accounts of the Expences of the late Armaments, and the Estimates for the ensuing Year, to be laid before you.

Painful as it is to Me at all Times to see any Increase of the Public Burthens, I am persuaded you will agree with me in thinking that the Extent of Our Preparations was dictated by a due Regard to the existing Circumstances, and that you will reflect with Pleasure on so striking a Proof of the Advantages

Advantages derived from the liberal Supplies granted since the last Peace for the Naval Service. I rely on your Zeal and Public Spirit to make due Provision for defraying the Charges incurred by this Armament, and for supporting the several Branches of the Public Service on such a Footing as the general Situation of Affairs may appear to require. You will at the same Time, I am persuaded, shew your Determination invariably to persevere in that System which has so effectually confirmed and maintained the Public Credit of the Nation.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

You will have observed with Concern the Interruption which has taken Place in the Tranquillity of Our Indian Possessions, in consequence of the unprovoked Attack on an Ally of the British Nation. The respectable State, however, of the Forces under the Direction of the Government there, and the Confidence in the British Name, which the System prescribed by Parliament has established among the Native Powers in India, afford the most favourable Prospect of bringing the Contest to a speedy and successful Conclusion.

I think it necessary particularly to call your Attention to the State of the Province of Quebec, and to recommend it to you to consider of such Regulations for its Government as the present Circumstances and Condition of the Province may appear to require.

I am satisfied that I shall, on every Occasion, receive the fullest Proofs of your zealous and affectionate Attachment, which cannot but afford Me peculiar Satisfaction after so recent an Opportunity of collecting the immediate Sense of My People.

You may be assured that I desire nothing so much on My Part as to cultivate an entire Harmony and Confidence between Me and My Parliament, for the Purpose of preserving and transmitting to Posterity the invaluable Blessings of our free and excellent Constitution, and of concurring with you in every Measure which can maintain the Advantages of Our present Situation, and promote and augment the Prosperity and Happiness of My faithful Subjects.

St. James's, November 24.

This Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by John William Rose, Esq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Gratitude upon the agreeable Prospect of a Continuance of established Peace by the Convention with Spain.

Deeply affected with the Injuries sustained by our Fellow Subjects from that Nation, we concurred in the general Sentiments of the whole Kingdom, expressed by the Two Houses of Parliament, on receiving your Majesty's most gracious Message in the last Session, and we beheld with Confidence the vigorous Measures which were adopted to gain full Satisfaction for the Injuries done, and to maintain the Honor and Dignity of the British Empire; to which Measures, and to your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Interests of your People, next to the Divine Providence, we thankfully ascribe the happy Issue of the late Disagreements.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens of London are too well convinced of the salutary Consequences of continued Peace, to delay their Congratulations upon the Reconciliation with Spain; for, notwithstanding they have ever manifested their Readiness to bear a Proportion of Burthens created by the Prosecution of a just War, they cannot but most ardently rejoice at a Termination of pending Hostilities, at a Time when the Reduction of the National Debt is an Object of Importance to Your People.

Deign, Sire, to accept our most cordial Wishes that Your Majesty's Reign may long continue in Peace and Prosperity over a grateful and affectionate People.

Signed, by Order of the Court,

William Rix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I Receive, with great Pleasure, the dutiful and loyal Address of the City of London. The Protection of the Navigation and Commerce of My Subjects is a principal Object of My Attention: And I am confident that I may always expect their unanimous Support in such Measures as may be necessary for that Purpose. It affords Me the highest Satisfaction to reflect, that on the present Occasion this Object has been attained without disturbing that Public Tranquillity, which is productive of such great and increasing Advantages to My People.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which, His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on John William Rose, Esq; the Recorder, and Richard Carr Glyn, Esq; one of the Sheriffs.
