Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 4, to Saturday January 8, 1791.

AT the Court at St James's, the 5th of January, 1791,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue for a limited Time certain Provisions contained in an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution certain Orders of Council respecting the Importation and Exportation of Corn and Grain, and also certain Orders issued by the Governor-General of His Majesty's Colonies in America, and for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; and for making further Provisions relative thereto; relating to the Importation of Corn and Grain; and to authorize His Majesty to permit the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal or Flour, and to prohibit the Importation thereof on the low Duties," His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 13th of October last, among other Things, to direct, that if it should appear at any Time before the 28th Day of February, 1791, by the Average Price of British Rye, as the same should be published in the London Gazette by the Receiver of Corn Returns, from the Returns received by him, that the Average Price of such Rye should be under Thirty-two Shillings per Quarter, it should not be lawful to import into any Port of this Kingdom; at the End of Six Days after such Publication in the London Gazette, any Foreign Rye or Rye-Meal at the low Duties: And whereas by virtue of the said Order Rye is not now permitted to be imported into this Kingdom on the low Duties, as the Price thereof, on the Average of the Week ending November the 13th, 1790, had fallen under Thirty-two Shillings per Quarter: And whereas it appears that the Price of Rye has since considerably risen, in those Counties where this Sort of Corn is principally consumed by the Inhabitants thereof, and it is on that Account become expedient to allow the same to be imported on the low Duties; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by virtue of the Powers vested in Him by the before-mentioned Act, hereby revoke so much of the said Order of the 13th of October last as relates to the Importation of Foreign Rye or Rye-Meal at the low Duties: And His Majesty's doth hereby order, with the Advice aforesaid, that it shall be lawful to import into any Port of this Kingdom any Foreign Rye or Rye-Meal at the low Duties, any Thing in the said Order of the 13th of October last contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, January 8.

The King has been pleased to grant to Richard Burn, of Duke-Street, Westminster, Esq; the Office of Secretary to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

The King has also been pleased to grant to Richard Richards, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq; the Office of Collector or Receiver of the Perpetual Yearly Tenths of all Dignities, Offices, Benefices and Promotions Spiritual whatsoever, granted to the Corporation of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, in the Room of the late Robert Chester, Esq; deceased.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 8, 1791.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball, which is to be at St. James's on Tuesday the 18th Instant, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Saturday the 15th Instant, and to send for their Tickets the Monday following, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office, on the Day of the Ball, after Two o'Clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 8, 1791.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen, from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested, that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Whitehall, January 8.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Heritors, and Adventurers in the British Fisheries, residing in the Royal Borough of Rothefay, specially assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANIMATED by the most lively Sensations of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, we the Merchants, Heritors and Adventurers in the British Fisheries, residing in your Majesty's Royal Borough of Rothefay, humbly solicit Permission to approach your Majesty's Throne, offering our cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of the Differences, which lately subsisted between your Majesty and the Court of Spain, being adjusted; and that, while Negotiations were depending, the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, as well as the Interest of your People, were ably supported.

We justly attribute the Continuation of Peace to the wise and vigorous Measures adopted by your Majesty, which, aided by prudent and faithful Ministers, and supported by a free and independent

People, struck our Enemies with awful Astonishment, when, instantaneously, your Majesty was enabled to assert the Rights and Privileges of Britain by the Equipment of a most formidable Fleet, commanded by Officers of distinguished Courage and Abilities, and manned with British Volunteers.

Thus it is evident, by your Majesty's wise Administration, that while we enjoy the Blessings of Peace, with the Extension and Protection of our Commerce, Means are preparing for the Defence of your Majesty's Dominions, and a benevolent Regard shown for the Lives and Property of your Subjects, by the judicious Application of your Majesty's Royal Bounty, for promoting of the British Fisheries; a Source of Wealth and Strength to these Kingdoms, from whence, on all Emergencies, your Majesty's Navy can have a Supply of hardy Seamen.

That your Majesty may long live in uninterrupted Felicity to reign over a happy People, and that your Majesty's Arms may ever prove victorious, is our most ardent Wish.

Signed in Presence, by Appointment and in Name of the Merchants, Heritors and Adventurers in the British Fisheries in Rothefay, by

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,
 With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Year 1773, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due Christmas last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Luffington and Boldero, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill.

And also the Subscribers to the Life Annuities established in Ireland in the Year 1775, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due Christmas last, in the same Place, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 11th of January to the 14th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 18th of January to the 21st ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 25th of January, to the 28th ditto, both Days inclusive, and from the 1st of February to the 4th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday following, during the Sure Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of the Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland; to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reverfionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy-Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Luffington and Boldero.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

THE unsatisfied Creditors of the late Mr. Thomas Blockley, senior, Locksmith, of Bull-street, Birmingham, deceased, are particularly requested to attend at Mr. William Smith's, in Temple-street, Birmingham aforesaid, on Tuesday and Wednesday the 17th and 18th of January, 1791, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve in the Forenoon, and Three and Six in the Afternoon, in order that they may receive a due Proportion of such Monies as are, or may be then collected: And such Creditors as have not sent in their respective Claims are desired to send them to Mr. Smith aforesaid before the appointed Day, or they will be excluded such Payment.

N. B. Those who are indebted to the said Estate are desired to pay their respective Debts immediately into the Hands of the said Mr. Smith, or Mr. John Rowe, Dorset-street, Fleet-street, London, or they will be sued without further Notice.

London, December 31, 1791.
