Whitehall, January 29.

THE King has been pleased to grant to John Cockburn, of Rowchester in the County of Berwick, Esq; and to such of his Issue as may come into Possession of certain Estates in the County of Ros, devised by the last Will of his Wife's Uncle, William Ros, late of Shandwick in the County of Ros, Esq; deceased, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and assume the Surname and bear the Arms of the Family of Ros of Shandwick, in Addition to his own Surname and Arms, in pursuance of the said last Will; such Arms being first exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Dublin Castle, January 22, 1791.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincere Expression of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family and Government.

Feeling the strongest Interest in every Event which affects our Gracious Sovereign, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we sincerely participate with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects in the Regret occasioned by the Loss of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; a Prince whose Virtues had justly endeared Him to all your Majesty's Subjects.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majesty for the Communication made to us from the Throne, that the Differences which had arisen between your Majesty and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination; and we beg Leave to make our grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for having been pleased to order Copies of the Declarations exchanged between your Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before us.

We rejoice that the Honor of your Crown, and the Protection of the Rights and Interests of the Empire, have been secured by the Wisdom of your Councils, without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace. Had the Pursuit of those Objects involved your Majesty's Kingdoms in the Calamities of War, we are persuaded your Majesty would have received the most active and zealous Support from your loyal and faithful Kingdom of Ireland.

We will immediately consider, and will endeavour to form, during this present Session, such Regulations as may tend to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue; a Measure which will facilitate the Business of Commerce, and in which the Ease of the Merchants is consulted.

We shall not fail to observe your Majesty's gracious Intimation of the Care due to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures of the Kingdom, and particularly the Linen Manufacture; and your Majesty may be assured that the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes, shall receive our accustomed Attention.

We sincerely thank your Majesty for continuing the Earl of Westmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, and have the fullest Reliance that the Peace, Happiness and Prosperity of this Country will continue to be firmly maintained under his Excellency's
