Jouis, 3^o Die Martii, 1791.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of John Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, Esquires, and also of the Petition of the several Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed being Freemen and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, and having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said City of Carlisle, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merit of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of Election; and that thereupon the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Rights of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Petitioners John Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, Esquires, and also for the Petitioners the Freemen and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Petitioners state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle duly admitted and sworn Freemen of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom, by being Sons of Freemen or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman, resident during such Apprentic Ship within the said City, or by Election of the Mayor and Common Council of the said City, with the Consent and Approbation of certain Persons, called the Fours, or likewise the Fours of the Election of each of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City, as Representatives of the whole Commonalty of the said City." They also state that no Person is entitled to be admitted a Freeman of the said City who has not been previously admitted a Brother of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City. That the Counsel for the Sixty Members James Clarke Satterthwaite and Edward Knubley Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: The Counsel for the Sixty Members state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle, who acquire a Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by serving an Apprenticeship during Seven Years to a Freeman, or by Election of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Citizens of the said City. They also state, that it is not necessary, in order to become a Freeman of the said City, to have been previously admitted a Brother of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners, the said Select Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sixty Members, the said Select Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them, touching the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle, have determined, "That the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, is in the Freemen of the said City, duly admitted and sworn Freemen of the said City, having been previously admitted Brethren of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman resident during such Apprenticeship within the said City, and in no others." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of Controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament."
