Whitehall, March 19, 1791.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 20th of February last, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, a Gun, loaded with Two Bullets, was discharged at the Bedchamber Window of Mrs. Jones, Wife of Thomas Jones, of Fritton Hall, in the Parish of Fritton, in the County of Suffolk, Esq; by some evil-disposed Person unknown; fortunately, however, one of the Bullets lodged in the Window Shutter, and the other, although it passed through the Shutter, was stopped by the Window Curtain, and fell upon the Ground; and that it appears, from several Circumstances, that the said Gun was discharged at the said Window, with the felonious Intent of murdering the said Mrs. Jones, who was, at that Time, in Bed in the said Chamber, in the Absence of her Husband.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in firing the Gun as abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually fired the said Gun as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

who

GRENVILLE.

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders, by me,

G. Browne,

Of the Westminster Fire-Office, Bedford-street, Covent-garden, by Order of Thomas Jones, Esq;

Whitehall, March 15, 1791.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night of Tuesday the 4th of January last, the Ship Invreage, Francis Pawson, Master, in the Service of the Office of Ordnance, was driven by a Storm into St. Bride's Bay, in the County of Pembroke, and was stranded on Druidston Sands, within the said Bay; and that a great Number of Persons riotously assembled on Board the said Ship, and feloniously plundered her of various Ordnance Stores and other Things, amongst whom was John Walters, of the Parish of Walton West, in the said County, Milser, who was particularly active on this Occasion.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said John Walters, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in plundering the said Ship, not in a usual Custody, who shall discover the said John Walters, so that he may be apprehended and convicted.

GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who will discover the said John Walters, so that he may be apprehended and convicted, to be paid by the Treasurer of the said Office.

Navy-Office, March 18, 1791.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 23d Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to receive Proposals from the Owners of such Ships in the Service of the East India Company, as are not likely to be taken up for the two ensuing Seasons, or other Persons, for conveying Four Hundred Convicts to the Settlement at New South Wales, on the Conditions, and under the Regulations to be seen at this Office.

The Court of Directors of the East India Company have consented that the Ships which may be engaged for this Purpose may proceed to Bombay, and load Home with Cotton upon private Account, under the Inspection and Direction of the Company's Servants at that Settlement; provided such Cottons are sold at the Company's Sale, subject to the usual Expences (the Company's Duty only excepted) and provided the said Ships do not interfere with any other Part of the Company's exclusive Commerce.

The Ship are to be ready to sail in the Course of the Month of May next.

No Tenders will be noticed, unless the Parties, or Agents for them, attend, nor will any be received after Twelve o'Clock.

IN pursuance of the Directions contained in an Act of Parliament made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to incorporate certain Persons therein named, and their Successors, by Name and Stile of the Northumberland Fishery Society, and to enable them, when incorporated, to subscribe a Capital Joint Stock, for more effectually supporting, conducting and increasing such Fishery." Notice is hereby given, that all Persons who have any Demands or Claims upon the said Society (if any such should happen to be) are required to deliver in any Account of the same, previous to the 12th Day of April next, in order that such Demands and Claims may be forthwith discharged and satisfied. John Wood, Gov.

South Sea House, March 15, 1791.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House, on Thursday the 24th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Half-Yearly General Courts appointed by the Charter.

Merchants Seamens Office, Royal Exchange, March 17, 1791.

A General Court of the President and Governors for Relief and Support of sick, maimed and disabled Seamen, and of the Widows and Children of such as shall be killed, slain or drowned in the Merchants Service, will be held at this Office on Wednesday the 30th Instant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.

By Order of the President and Committee,
William Oddy, Secretary.

River Dee Office, London, March 16, 1791.

A General Court of the Company of Proprietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preserving the Navigation of the River Dee, will be held at their Office over the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday the 6th of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, being the Annual General Court, pursuant to Act of Parliament; when a State of the Accounts, and Situation of the Company's Stock and Affairs will be laid before them.

Thomas Lane, Sec.

CORNWALL.

A General Meeting of the Deputy Lieutenants of this County will be held at the Queen's Head Inn, St. Austle, in the said County, on Thursday the 31st Day of March instant, in order to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament lately made "for amending and rendering into One Act of Parliament all the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England."

By Order of the Lord Lieutenant,
Dated March 9, Cha. Rashleigh,
1791. Clerk of the General Militia Meetings.

Hartfordshire Militia.

NOTICE is hereby given, That a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the County of Hartford will be held at the Half Moon Inn, at Hartford, on Monday the 4th Day of April next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, for ordering the Militia of the said County to be trained and exercised as the Law directs.

Benj. Rooke, Clerk of the General Meetings.

MR. HUNTER, Merchant, in King's Arms Yard, Coleman-street, will be much obliged to any Person who can inform him who are the Executors or Heirs at Law of Ms. Fenwick Lyddal, late of Threadneedle-street, deceased.
