Witney, March 28, 1791.

WHEREAS the Business of a Common Carrier from and to the White Hart Inn, at Witney in the County of Oxford, and the Red Lion Inn, in Aldersgate-street, London, hath been carried on from the Year 1788 to the 13th Day of March, 1791, under the Name of John Dix, of Witney: Now I the said John Dix do hereby give Notice that on the said 13th Day of March, 1791, I totally declined carrying on the said Business, and that I have not since carried on, nor shall again carry on the said Business: Witness my Hand, John Dix.

ALL Persons who stood indebted to Mr. John Elkins: late of South-street, in the Parish of St. George, Hanover-square, Bricklayer, at the Time of his Decease, are desired to pay their respective Debts to Mr. Thomas Ward, No. 11, Upper Seymour-street, Portman-square, or Mr. William Barlow, No. 27, Duke-street, Grosvenor-square, or Mr. James Buck, No. 4, Edgeware-road, near Oxford-street, the Three Executors named in his Will, or to such Person only as they shall authorize to collect and receive the same. And all Persons to whom the said John Elkins stood indebted, or who have any Claim or Demand upon his Estate, are desired to send the Particulars and Amount of such their Debts or Claims to the said Executors.

ALL Persons who have any Claims on the Firm of Robert Cowdall, Son, and William Coleman, of Mumford's-court, Milk-street, London, Hosiers, or the Firm of Joseph Cowdall and William Coleman, of the same Place, Hosiers, are desired to send the Particulars of the same to Mr. Richard Brewer, of Cow-lane, Snow-hill, London, on or before the 10th Day of May next. And all Persons who have any Demands on the Estate of Mr. Joseph Cowdall, late of Mumford'scourt, Milk-street, London, Hosier, deceased, who have not already sent in their Demands, are desired to send in the same, on or before the said 10th Day of May next, to the said Mr. Richard Brewer, otherwise they will be excluded any Benefit arising from his Estate.

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands, and who proved their Debts under the separate Estate of Francis Hutchins, formerly of Little Tower-street, London, Woollen-draper, a Bankrupt, deceased, are desired to send in an Account thereof, with the Particulars, to Mess. Wood and Smith, of Barbers Hall, London, Solicitors to the Executors of the surviving Assignee, preparatory to advertising a Final Dividend under that Commission; the Proceedings, which were in the Hands of a former Solicitor who took out the Commission, being lost or mislaid.

Doncaster, March 25, 1791.

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the Estate or Effects of James Farrer, late of Barnborough Grange, in the County of York, Esq; deceased, are desired to send an Account thereof, and of their respective Securities, to Mr. Danfer, Attorney at Law, in Doncaster.

Notice is hereby given to the Creditors of James Currie, formerly of Gough-square, London, Merchant, who have executed a Deed of Trust, bearing Date the 7th Day of April, 1787, that the Trustees under it will make a Dividend of his Estate and Effects come to their Hands on Saturday the 21st Day of May next; on which Day, between the Hours of Eleven and One, or on any subsequent Saturday, between the same Hours, the said Creditors may respectively receive the same, by applying at the Office of Mess. Crowder and Lavie, Solicitors, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.

WHEREAS John Angell, late of Stockwell, in the County of Surry, Esq; died in or about the Year 1784, as it is alleged, without any Heir at Law or Kin, in which Case the Estates of the said John Angell will become of Right an Escheat to the Crown: Any Person therefore claiming to be Heir at Law and next of Kin of the said John Angell, is desired to make out his Title or Claim as such Heir or next of Kin, and forthwith to transmit the same to Richard Cracraft, No. 12, Nag's-Head-court, Gracechurch-street, London, Attorney at Law.

WHEREAS an Advertisement was inserted in the London Gazette of the 22d Day of March last, and since that has appeared in several other Papers, stating that John Angell, late of Stockwell in the County of Surry, Esq; died in or about the Year 1784, as it was alleged, without Heir at Law or Kin, whereby the Estates of the said John Angell became of Right an Escheat to the Crown, and that Persons claiming to be Heir at Law or next of Kin were to make out their Claims in such Manner as in the said Advertisement is mentioned: And whereas under Colour of the said Advertisement, and of some pretended Authority from the Crown, Attempts have been made to obtain the Possession of the said Estates, or some Parts thereof, these are to signify, that no Person has any Authority from the Crown for so doing: That Information having been given of the Nature stated in the above Advertisement, the Crown has, as is usual in such Cases, caused the said Advertisement to be inserted, to judge whether it may be necessary to institute any further Enquiry, but while the same is in the Course of Investigation the Rights of the present Possessors are in no wise affected thereby; and all such Attempts to molest or disturb them are illegal and without Authority; and the respective Tenants of the Estates are required not to attorn or give up the Possession thereof, but forthwith to give Information to Mr. Prickett, Attorney at Law, Warwick Court, Holborn, in order that Prosecutions may be commenced against the Persons who shall offend in Manner abovementioned.

WHEREAS by Two Verdicts, bearing Date the 13th of August 1789 and 4th of March 1791, given against Andrew Mitchell, James Chapman and John Philips, the Court of Magistrates at Ostend orders a Convocation of the Creditors of William Robertson, late of London, Bankrupt, and the Appointment of one or more Assignees in the Town of Ostend, for the Purpose of managing and settling all Effects and Affairs of said Bankruptcy in Austrian Flanders; therefore the Creditors at Ostend have appointed Mr. Thomas Blake, jun. as Assignee, who by these Presents gives Notice to all whom it may concern, that on Monday the 16th of May next will be held a General Meeting of the Creditors of the aforesaid William Robertson, at the Hotel de Commerce, in order to consider of and take such further Resolutions as may be thought expedient and Necessary for the Concern at large.

T. BLAKE, jun.

Ostend, April 9, 1791.
