Whitehall, May 14.

The Letters from the East Indies, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, were received Yesterday by the Princess Royal, one of the Company's Ships.

Camp near Cannanore, January 9, 1791.

To Stephen Lushington, Esq; Chairman of the Honorable the Court of Directors for transacting all Affairs of the United English East-India Company.

S I R,

THE Princess Royal, which arrived at Tellicherry the 7th Instant in her Way to England, having left Bombay previous to the Arrival of the Drake Snow, which carried the Account of the Capture of Cannanore, I now do myself the Pleasure to send you, for the Information of the Honorable the Select Committee, a Detail of every material Circumstance which has taken Place from my first Determination of coming to Tellicherry to the present Time, which I flatter myself will meet the Approbation of the Honorable Company.

The essential Assistance given the Travancore Raja, by a Detachment under Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, has long since been known in England. It was my Intention, as soon as the Season would admit, to assemble the Force of this Presidency, to emancipate the Malabar Princes with whom Aliances had been concluded, and afterwards to co-operate with General Medows. His successful Advance through the Coimbatore, and the sanguine Expectations univerally held of a speedy Termination of the War, induced his Lordship to consider any Assistance as unnecessary, to place the Troops with Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, and on the Malabar Coast, under General Medows's Orders; and to confine my Attention to granting the Marattas whatever Force they might require. A Detachment of Artillery and Two Battalions of Native Troops were sent them before the Rains. This Corps has since been augmented with a Battalion of European Infantry, and another of Sepoys, under Colonel Frederick's Command. By the latest Accounts from Bombay the Reinforcement was expected to join the Maratta Army employed at the Siege of Darwar.

Agreeably to the System adopted by his Lordship and General Medows, Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, as soon as the Season admitted, marched to Palicaudcherry, and opened the Communication from this Coast with the Madras Army, at that Time stationed in the Coimbatore. Supplies of Military Stores were sent them from Bombay, but the Inconvenience of transporting them by Land pointed out the Necessity of opening the Panani River. In the mean Time the Enemy's Advance into Coimbatore, and the Retreat of Lieutenant-Colonel Floyd from Sallimungulum prevented General Medows from ascending the Ghauts, and obliged him to detain Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, with his Detachment, at Palicaudcherry, to form Magazine of Grain.

From this Change in the Movements originally intended, his Lordship was convinced that a Diversion on the Malabar Coast might be attended with beneficial Consequences. As soon as I was acquainted with his Wishes, that I would in Person proceed hither, I resolved with the little Force that could be spared from Bombay to embark for Tellicherry, and on the Spot determine if an Attempt could be made with Propriety to clear the Country of a Force stationed by Tippoo, to awe the Garrison of Tellicherry, and curb the Nairs, who were univerally disposed to join us.

On my Arrival the 5th of December, I was informed that the Force to the Southward of Tellicherry had assembled, and had marched towards Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, at that Time ordered to Paniani, to keep the Communication open. Much as I wished to assist him in a Measure so important in its Consequences, I found it impracticable to take a Corps sufficient for the Purpose, unless Cannanore was first reduced. The Government of that District had, during the Rains, made a Treaty with the Chief of Tellicherry; had evaded a Compliance with the Articles; had invited a Force stationed by Tippoo in the Cherical Country, and which had retired at the Opening of the Campaign, to return to their Defence; and had at length openly avowed their hostile Intentions.

On the 10th the Force that could be spared for the Purpose encamped on the Heights of Egar.

It.

It consisted of His Majesty's 77th Regiment, Seven Companies of the 1st Bombay Regiment, the 2d the 3d, the 10th and 12th Battalions of Native Infantry; the Flank Companies of the 6th and Two Companies of Artillery, amounting to upwards of 3000 disciplined Men. On the 12th and 13th the neighbouring Rajas joined with about 2000 irregular Nairs.

The 14th the Line moved towards the Enemy, They were strongly posted on Heights, to the Southward and Eastward of Cannanore, defended by a Chain of Stone Redoubts, with Cannon in them. On viewing their Position, I determined to gain Possession of Avery Redoubt, in the Center of their Posts, which would enable me to attack either of their Wings, with the greatest Part of my Force. Notwithstanding much Resistance during the Day, I took Post sufficiently near to erect a Battery, which early in the Morning of the 15th demolished the Defences, and obliged them to evacuate the Place. At the same Time the Left Brigade advanced in Line, and attacked the Heights of Carley. The Resistance was trifling, considering the Strength of the Ground occupied by a Brigade of the Enemy's Troops. They retreated under the Guns of Carley Redoubt, and through the Town of Cannanore. In the Night of the 15th a Battery was raised against Carley, which surrendered at Day-break next Morning.

By these Operations I was in Possession of the Heights and Works to the Southward, and by a small Movement to my Right, could completely prevent the Enemy's Retreat. Convinced of the Danger of their Situation they offered to capitulate: The Articles were agreed on in the Evening, and Hostages came into my Camp.

On the Morning of the 17th, the Cannanore Troops, amounting to 800 Men, retired within the Town, and Tippoo's Forces paraded in Front of their Encampment, and, agreeably to the Terms that had been granted, surrendered their Arms and all Circar Property, and engaged not to serve during the War. They consisted of 200 Horse, a Corps of Grenadiers, Two Brigades of Regular Infantry, and Rocket Boys, Irregulars, &c. amounting to upwards of 5000 Men. The Fort of Cannanore was summoned immediately afterwards, and surrendered without Conditions.

The Fort of Biliapatam, the Capital of the Cheukal Raja, situated on the South Bank of the River, and Nurcarow on the North, also surrendered in the Evening, and the Garrison received the same Terms with the Rest of Tippoo's Troops. They have since been all sent, under an Escort, to the Canara Country.

By these Successes we have taken Thirty-four Stand of Colours, 68 Pieces of Cannon, a Quantity of Ammunition, Military Stores and Grain, and near 5000 Stand of Arms. I have the Honor to enclose a Return of them, and of the killed and wounded of the Detachment, which I am happy to observe is much more trifling than could have been expected. I have also great Pleasure in assuring you, I have every Reason to be perfectly satisfied with the Gallantry and Discipline of the Troops, whose Behaviour equalled my most sanguine Expectations.

I was now at Liberty to have assisted Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley; but his little Detachment had completely defeated and dispersed the Corps opposed to them, and were in Possession of Turuckabad, the Capital of this Coast. It consisted of His Majesty's 75th Regiment, the Grenadier Native Battalion, and Seven Companies of the 7th Battalion, amounting to about 1600 Men, with 10 Pieces of Cannon, 500 Travancore Horse, a Battalion of Travancore Sepoys, and a Body of irregular Nairs. The Enemy's Force was about 10,000 Men, posted at Ventzety Cottah, whither Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley marched on the 6th of December. They retreated on his Approach the 7th, and the Fort surrendered on the 8th in the Morning. They were found posted in a Wood in the Front of the Village of Tervanamgurry. The Detachment forced them from thence, and attacked the Village, as well as the Grounds on both Sides of it, which were woody, and interfectured with Hedges and Mud Banks. The Enemy retreated, after disputing the Ground; and formed in Front, and on the Flanks of the Fort of Tricalore, the Esplanade of which extends to the Village; but our Troops advanced with Vivacity and Spirit, pursued them into the Covert-way, where many of them were killed, obliged the Fort to surrender, and totally dispersed them. Upwards of 800 were taken in the Fort, and Numbers were killed in the different Attacks.

Mootaub Khan, who commanded them, retreated to Turuckabad, and the next Day he left it, with about 2000 Men, and a considerable Sum in Specie, and fled to the Ghauts. Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley advanced to that Place on the 10th, when 1500 Men, the Remains of their Army, laid down their Arms. A considerable Quantity of Military and other Stores were captured and in particular the Guns taken from the Travancore Lines.

The Ports of Barragurry and Cootahpore, in the Cartanad Country, still remained in Possession of Tippoo's Troops. A Detachment from hence marched against them the 27th of December, and returned on the 5th Instant with 400 Prisoners, which they had taken without any Loss. The Posts surrendered, after a little Opposition, on nearly the same Terms as Cannanore.

The Object that induced me to visit the Coast being completed, and the ancient Nair Princes in Possession of their Districts, from Billipatam River to Cape Comorin, nothing remains to be done with the little Force under my Command. Having Reason, however, to imagine his Lordship wishes to unite the Detachment, and being persuaded they may be of essential Consequence to his future Operations, I have determined to remain and wait his Orders.

I am pleased at an Opportunity of assuring you, that Captain Byron, of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, has been of essential Service, not only by a well directed Fire from his Ship; but in his Exertions in forwarding the Public Stores, and in landing, with Two Eighteen Pounders, his Marines and a Part of his Crew, to assist us in the Reduction of Carley and Barragurry.

By a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel Hartley, received since writing the above, dated Turuckabad, the 6th Instant. He advises me, that he had received Orders from General Medows to deliver over Charge of Palicaudcherry to Major Cuppage, who was coming from Coimbatore with two Regiments for that Purpose, and that he and his Detachment were then to consider themselves as under my Orders.

Enclosed you will please to receive a general Return of the Troops encamped at this Place; and I have the Honor to remain,

S I R,

Your very obedient humble Servant,

Signed, Robert Abercromby.

Extract of a Letter from the Government of Fort St. George to the Government of Bombay, entered on their Consultations December 14, 1790.

WE have the Honour to announce to you that the Centre Army under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell formed a Junction with the Grand Army on the 17th Instant, near Covenpatnam, and that Tippoo retired up the Ghauts.

Fort St. George, Nov. 24, 1790.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Medows to the Government of Fort St. George, entered in the above-mentioned Consultations.

HAVING marched Seven Days successively after having crossed the Cavery, I take the first Opportunity of a Halt to acquaint you with our Situation. We are now within Fifteen Miles of Colonel Maxwell, to whom this Morning I have sent Five Squadrons of Dragoons, and Orders to join us here, which I conclude he will do To-day or To-morrow. The Enemy looked at him a few Days ago, but not liking, I believe, his judicious Position, nor our being so near, declined an Engagement. We saw the Enemy ourselves the Day before Yesterday, about Twenty Miles off, on his Return from Colonel Maxwell, pitching his Tents, just as we were come to our Ground, after a long fatiguing March through the Pass of Tippoo; but no sooner had we fired Three Guns as a Signal to Colonel Maxwell than he immediately struck his Tents again, and proceeded up the Ghauts, by the Oodcadurgum Pass:

His Excellency was then pleased to make the following Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty having directed an Augmentation to be made of His Naval Forces, in order to add Weight to His Representations for the Re-establishment of Peace between Russia and the Porte, has commanded me to communicate this Circumstance to His Parliament of Ireland; on whose zealous and affectionate Attachment to the Interests of His Majesty's Crown His Majesty places the firmest Reliance.

The unremitting Application you have given to your Parliamentary Duties enables me now to close the Session, and to relieve you from any further Attendance; and I have the King's Directions to express His perfect Satisfaction in the Zeal and Dispatch with which you have brought the Public Business to a Conclusion.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty directs me to thank you for the Supplies which you have granted for the Maintenance of the Establishment and the honorable Support of His Government: They shall be faithfully applied to the Purposes for which they are granted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have observed with peculiar Satisfaction the Attention you have shewn to the Interests of your Country, by facilitating the Business of the Merchants in the Payment of Duties, by providing Accommodations for the Shipping and Trade of this Metropolis, and by extending the Operation of National Credit. The salutary Provisions you have made to check the immoderate Use of Spirituous Liquors afford the strongest Proof of your Regard for the Public Welfare. Success in this desirable Measure can alone be expected from your continued and well directed Efforts; I therefore trust that in your respective Counties you will particularly apply yourselves to give Efficacy to the Regulations you have adopted upon this important Subject. On my Part no Endeavours shall be wanted to enforce the Execution of Laws so judiciously calculated to preserve the Health and amend the Morals of the People, and to advance the Industry and Prosperity of Ireland. To these Objects my Exertions are directed by His Majesty's Commands, and by every Impulse of Inclination and Duty.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 5th Day of July next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 5th Day of July next.

Stockholm, April 29.

Yesterday the King of Sweden celebrated, with the usual Pomp and Ceremonies, the Anniversary of the Institution of the Order of the Seraphim. On this Occasion Four newly created Knights were installed, viz. Baron Armfelt; Lieutenant-General Platen, Count Oxenstierna, and Count Munk; and His Swedish Majesty notified the Nomination to that Order of General Baron Igelfroem, the Russian Plenipotentiary at the late Peace of Verelé.

Whitehall, May 5, 1791.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Barn, situated at Swatling, in the Parish of North Stoneham, in the County of Southampton, the Property of John Fleming, Esq; and in the Occupation of William Chamberlayne, Esq; was, on Tuesday the 19th Day of April last in the Evening, wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, by some Person or Persons unknown, and, together with a large Quantity of Hay therein, entirely consumed, whereby the Mansion-House there, and also several Dwelling-Houses, Buildings, and Stacks of Hay and Corn near the same, were in the greatest Danger of being destroyed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in wilfully and maliciously setting Fire to the Barn abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Fleming, to be paid to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted;) the said Reward to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

For the said John Fleming,
Wm. Chamberlayne.

And, as a further Encouragement the Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is offered as above by the said William Chamberlayne.

Wm. Chamberlayne.

They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

For COMPAINTS in the STOMACH and BOWELS. ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL.

By the KING'S PATENT.

THE most learned Medical Authorities affirm, that Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels are the Source of almost every Malady incident to the Human Body. To restore and keep the Stomach and Bowels in their just Equilibrium, this salubrious Cordial is most admirably adapted from a verified Experience of many Years, confirmed by the unalterable and unequivocal Testimonies of the Nobility, Gentry, &c. from every Part of Great Britain, wherever it has been administered.

Its peculiar Efficacy is to correct and assist a bad Digestion, to recruit the Animal Spirits, cherish and invigorate the System. It is also excellent, and almost instantaneous, in easing Pain, often occasioned from Over-Repletion of Fruits, Vegetables, or any improper Sustainance.

In Bilious Disorders, attended with violent Pain or Spasms, Sickness, Vomiting, Flatulence, Hysteric Affections, Lowness of Spirits, Gouty and Rheumatic Attacks, it is deserving implicit Confidence, by giving speedy Relief, and, by a regular Perseverance in its Use, ultimately to effect a Cure. It is elegant in Appearance, and highly grateful in Flavour.

It is sold Wholesale and Retail by the Patentee, B. Cornwell, No. 13, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, London, in Bottles of 5s. and 10s. 6d. each, including the Stamp, or the Quantity of Six Five Shilling Bottles in one for 11. 3s. 6d. to which are added proper Directions, and many well-authenticated Cases of Cure, where the utmost Efforts of General Practice have proved ineffectual.

It is also sold (Retail) by M. Randall, Royal Exchange Gate, and at least one Person in every Town in England and Scotland, with a Treatise on its Virtues, Price One Shilling.

1s. The large Bottles are sold in Conduit-street only, and will be forwarded from thence, securely packed, to any Part of the World.

WHEREAS by a Decreeal Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Garforth and others against Robinson and others, it is referred to William Graves, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court; to enquire whether William Hinde, late of Ripon in the County of York, Yeoman, in the Pleadings mentioned, is living or dead, and if dead whether he died without leaving Issue: Therefore the said William Hinde, if living, is hereby required, or if dead his Issue, if any) are hereby required to come in and make out his or their Claims before the said William Graves, Esq; at his Chambers in Symond's inn, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 24th Day of June next, or in Default thereof he or they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decreeal Order.

N. B. The said William Hinde was at Ripon about Twenty Years ago in the Dress of a common Sailor, and said that he was used to the Sea, and that it was his Intention to go to Sea again.
