

gence we have received, was at Mountoorpet, near Trinomalay.

Upon the Approach of our Army towards Madras, the Beginning of last Month, the Enemy broke up his Encampment near Tiagar, and appeared suddenly before Permacoil, which being a small Post, with a few Sepoys, was surrendered on Capitulation. Tripitore, a small Fort in the Barranaul, has been also retaken from us; but these trifling Losses are of no Consequence whatever. The rapid Movement of our Army towards the Mysore Country, and the known Ability of it's Leader, will not only, we hope, speedily restore to us the Blessings of Peace, but effectually curb in future the ambitious Spirit of the Enemy.

Copy of a Letter from the Governor and Council of Madras, in their Political Department, to the Court of Directors, dated Feb. 17, 1791.

Honourable-Sirs,

SINCE closing our Dispatch of Yesterday we have received Advices from Earl Cornwallis, dated Vellore, the 13th Instant, stating that, after completing his Battering Train, his Lordship proposed to move the next Day by Chittoor and Moglee, and expected to ascend the Pass, which is distant about Fifty Miles, on the 20th or 21st Instant; that the Head of the Pass is about One Hundred and Ten Miles from Bangalore, to which Place it was his Intention immediately to direct his March, and that he hoped to invest it on the 5th. or 6th of next Month.

We have the Honour to be,
with the greatest Respect,
Honourable Sirs,
Your faithful humble Servants,
Chas. Oakley,
J. Huddesdon.
