From Saturday July 30, to Tuesday August 2, 1791.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that on the Eleventh Day of this instant July, a certain scandalous and seditious Paper was printed and published in the Town of Birmingham, and published in the Parts thereunto adjacent, in Our Counties of Warwick and Worcester, of the following Tenor:—“ My Countrymen! The Second Year of Gallic Liberty is nearly expired. At the Commencement of the Third on the Fourteenth of this Month, it is devoutly to be wished, that every Enemy to Civil and Religious Despotism would give his Sanction to the Majestic Common Cause, by a Public Celebration of the Anniversary. Remember that on the Fourteenth of July the Bastille, that high Altar and Castle of Despotism, fell. Remember the Enthusiasm, peculiar to the Cause of Liberty, with which it was attacked. Remember that generous Humanity that taught the oppressed, groaning under the Weight of insulted Rights, to save the Lives of Oppressors! Extinguish the mean Prejudices of Nations; and let your Numbers be collected, and sent as a Free-will Offering to the National Assembly. But is it possible to forget that your own Parliament is venal! Your Ministers hypocritical! Your Clergy legal Oppressors! The Reigning Family extravagant! The Crown of a certain Great Personage becoming every Day too weighty for the Head that wears it! too weighty for the People who gave it! Your Taxes partial and excessive—Your Representation a cruel Insult upon the sacred Rights of Property, Religion, and Freedom.— But on the Fourteenth of this Month, prove to the political Sycophants of the Day that you reverence the Olive Branch, that you will sacrifice to Public Tranquillity, till the Majority shall exclaim, The Peace of Slavery is worse than the War of Freedom.— Of that Moment let Tyrants beware!”—We, therefore, in order to bring to a speedy condign Punishment the Publishers of the Paper aforesaid, and that Practices so highly dangerous to the Public Tranquillity and Welfare may hereafter be prevented, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and enjoining all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the Publishers of the Paper aforesaid: And, for the better Detection of the said Publishers, We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons concerned in publishing the printed Paper aforesaid, by distributing the same, or otherwise, so as the Person or Persons

[Price Eight-pence.]

Persons discovered may be brought to Justice for the same, such Discoverers shall have and receive as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for each and every such Offender, and also Our gracious Pardon, in case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same, except the Person or Persons so discovering be the Author or Authors of the Paper aforesaid: And the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment accordingly of the said Rewards: Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twenty-seventh Day of July, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one, in the Thirty-first Year of Our Reign.

G O D Save the KING.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that a great Number of disorderly Persons, in and about the Town of Birmingham in Our County of Warwick, did, on the Fourteenth Day of July instant, assemble themselves in a tumultuous Manner, and for several Days thereafter, and during the Time aforesaid, did set Fire to, burn, or otherwise destroy, sundry Dwelling-Houses, Mills, and other Buildings, with the Furniture and other Effects found in the same, to divers of Our Subjects belonging, in the said Town of Birmingham, and in other Places thereunto adjacent, in Our Counties of Warwick and Worcester; and also Two Meeting-Houses, belonging to Protestant Dissenters, in the Town of Birmingham aforesaid; and did also by Force or Terror illegally take Money from divers of Our Subjects: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution, That the Authors, Abettors and Perpetrators of the said Offences be prosecuted as expeditiously as may be, according to the due Course of Law: And We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting, to the utmost of their Power, in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Offenders: And We are graciously pleased to promise, That if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons, who are guilty of any of the said Offences, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for each and every such Offender, and also Our gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same; except the Person who first began to set Fire to, burn or destroy the said Dwelling-Houses, Mills, and other Buildings: And the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment accordingly of the said Rewards: Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twenty-seventh Day of July, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one, in the Thirty-first Year of Our Reign.

G O D Save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of July, 1791,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Twenty-fifth Day of March last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That a Bounty of Three Pounds should be paid to every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds to every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for His Majesty's Service, who should, on or before the Thirty-first Day of May then next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, in Manner therein mentioned; which Bounties have been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant July; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties should continue to be paid to such Able and Ordinary Seamen for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby ordered, That the Time limited for Payment of such Bounties be prolonged and extended, and that the same do continue to be paid to every Able and Ordinary Seaman fit for His Majesty's Service, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall, on or before the Thirty-first Day of August next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Regulating Captains, or the Lieutenants employed under them, in London, or with the Captains or Lieutenants of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.
