From Saturday September 3; to Tuesday September 6, 1791.

Weymouth, September 3.

THEIR Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta, and Princess Elizabeth, arrived here in perfect Health at a little after Six o'Clock in the Afternoon.

Whitehall, September 6.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Thomas Smith, Esq; to be Conjoint-Clerk to the Bills, in the Office of His Majesty's Register of Rolls in Scotland, vacant by the Death of Robert Waddell, Esq;

Whitehall, September 6.

The Letters from the East Indies, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, were received on Sunday last by the Hawke, one of the Company's Ships.

Extract of a Letter from the President and Council at Fort St. George, in their Political Department, to the Court of Directors, dated April 14, 1791.

OUR last Communication respecting the Grand Army advised your Honourable Court, that Lord Cornwallis had advanced as far as Vellore; and that he hoped to reach Bangalore on the 5th or 6th of March.

In pursuance of this Intention the Army moved, with all possible Expedition, towards the Moglee Pass, and encamped on the Table Land of Mysore on the 21st of February, without any material Difficulty, or the least Interference on the Part of the Enemy.

Tippoo, in the mean Time, remained near Gingee, apparently waiting the Motions of Lord Cornwallis; but he no sooner discovered their Object, than he relinquished all Hope of carrying on the War in the Carnatic, and hastened through the Changamah Pass, for the Preservation of his own Dominions.

After halting Two Days, for the Purpose of mustering the Bullocks, &c. Lord Cornwallis marched forward in the Direction of Bangalore. The Forts of Molwaggle, Colar, and Ouscottah, successively fell on the Approach of our Army.

Forage and Water were found in Abundance on the Line of March; and such was the Confidence of the Inhabitants, that they voluntarily supplied the Camp with every Article of Provision.

In the Morning of the 5th of March the Enemy appeared, for the first Time; in Force; a few Miles on the Left Flank of the Army. Parties of Horse approached very near the Line, and some Guns were opened upon its Rear, but at so considerable a Distance that they neither retarded the Progress nor did any material Injury to the Troops.

Lord Cornwallis encamped within Sight of Bangalore in the Evening of the 5th, and on the 7th in the Morning the Pettah was carried by Assault. It was a fortunate Circumstance that a considerable Quantity of dry Forage was found in it, as Tippoo had destroyed all the Villages around the Fort, and the barren Face of the Country afforded an alarming Prospect for the Support of our Cattle.

The successful Attack which had been made on the Pettah, and the happy Consequences attending it, gave us the greatest Satisfaction; but, at the same Time, we sincerely lamented the Loss sustained on that Occasion, by the Death of Lieutenant-Colonel Moorhouse, whose Military Character was so much distinguished, and whose long, active and zealous Services to the Company deserved the highest Applause.

In order to testify our Sense of such conspicuous Merits, we came to the following Resolutions, viz. Government having received Advice of the Death of Lieutenant-Colonel Moorhouse, who was killed in the Assault of the Pettah of Bangalore, the 7th Instant:—Resolved, as a Testimony of Respect to the Memory of an Officer who served the Company many Years with distinguished Zeal, Spirit and Ability, that his Remains be, with the Permission of the Ministers and Church-Wardens, publicly interred in the Church of Fort St. George, at the Company's Expence, and a Marble Tablet fixed over his Grave, with a suitable Inscription, in Commemoration of his Merits:—Resolved, likewise, That a Letter be written to Earl Cornwallis to inform him of this Intention, and to request his Lordship will be pleased

[Price Eight-pence.]

“ pleased to direct, that the Body of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Moorhouse be removed to the Presidency, so soon as the Situation of Affairs will permit.”

We are assured your Honorable Court will be well pleased to find that proper Respect has been paid to the Memory of one of the best Officers that ever served the Company; and we are confident this public Testimony will be gratefully received by the whole Army.

Since the Assault of the Petah no official Advices of the Siege have reached us from Lord Cornwallis. But by Means of the Public Tappas, dispatched from Camp as Opportunities offered, many private Letters of undoubted Authority have been received; and from these we learn, that the first Batteries were opened against the Fort on the 12th, and that the Approaches were carried on with unremitting Assiduity, and in the Face of Tippoo's whole Army: That on the 21st at Night, about Eleven o'Clock, the Storm began, and was crowned with the most complete and brilliant Success. The Garrison gave Way on all Sides; and though the Loss of the Enemy on this Occasion was considerable, we have the Satisfaction to observe, that our's is stated at a very small Number. The Misarrange of Lord Cornwallis's official Advice of the Capture of Bangalore, will justify our transmitting a private Copy of the General Orders issued to the Army a Day after his Success; and we beg Leave to conclude this Account by tendering our sincerest Congratulations to your Honorable Court on an Event so glorious to your Arms, and so important to your Interests in this Country.

We have been honoured with Two Letters from Lord Cornwallis since the Fall of Bangalore, which we send as Numbers in the Packet, One dated the 27th of March, advising us, that as he had received Information of the actual March of Rajah Tanje Want (the Nizam's General) with a considerable Body of Cavalry, towards him, and being sensible of the great Importance of securing the Junction of this Fort, and the Probability that Tippoo would use every Means in his Power to harass and obstruct their March, he had determined to move to the Northward, in the Direction in which the Rajah was expected; and that he was farther induced to adopt this Measure from the Assurances which he had received that the friendly Poligars, in that Part of the Country, had collected a large Quantity of Grain, and a great Number of Cattle, for the Use of the Army, within Fifty Miles of Bangalore.

His Lordship added, that he could not then form a precise Judgment whether he should be able to attempt the Reduction of Seringapatam before the Rains, or whether he must limit his Views to Ousfore, and an Establishment in that Part of the Myfore Country; but that he could assure us that nothing but absolute Necessity should make him abandon his former Plan: That, with a View to expedite the Re-equipment of the heavy Artillery, he had appointed Colonel Duff to command in Bangalore, into which Place he had put the 76th Regiment and Three Native Battalions: That the Quantity of Military Stores of all Sorts found in it was astonishing; and that there was, in particular, more Gunpowder than we could possibly have Occasion for during the present War.

The second Letter from Lord Cornwallis is dated the 2d Instant, and advised us that he left his Camp, to the Southward of Bangalore, on the 28th Ult. and on that Day fell in with the Rear of the Enemy's Line of March at Eleancum: That, although our Infantry could not come up in Time to gain any materi- l Advantage, his Lordship pursued him closely for several Miles, and obliged him to relinquish the Object, which he appeared to have in View, of getting between our Army and the Corps of the Nizam's Cavalry: That Tippoo retired to Pellibalaboram, leaving behind him One Brass Nine Pounder; and that he had since moved towards Shevenganga.

Lord Cornwallis, in his Letter, complains of the Inactivity of Rajah Turge Want, to whom he had written, that if he heard of any more Delays and Excuses, he should proceed with his own Troops to the Execution of his future Plan of Operations.

The latter Part of the Letter is of so pleasing a Nature that we shall give it in his Lordship's own Words: “ We have been most plentifully supplied with Forage since we left Bangalore, notwithstanding the Attempts of the Enemy to burn it, and this Day some Banjarres of this Country brought to Camp above Four Thousand Bullocks, Half of them loaded with Rice, and the other Half with Grain, Doll, Ghee, and other Buzar Articles.”

Lord Cornwallis having received a Letter from Tippoo the 27th of March, making an Overture for a separate Accommodation with us, replied, “ That he could encourage no Proposition that did not include our Allies.” Copies of the Letter and the Answer having been transmitted to us, we forward them as Numbers in the Packet.

A large Force having been left to the Southward at the Time General Meadows moved from Trichinopoly, Lord Cornwallis expressed to us his Desire that it might be ordered to Amboor. Instructions were in consequence given to that Effect, and we have the Pleasure to add, that the Detachment reached its Place of Destination on the 22d Ultimo. By a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Oidham, who commands it, dated the 6th Instant, we are advised, that in consequence of Orders from Earl Cornwallis, he was to move from Amboor the next Day, and to advance to the Head of the Ghauts, where he was to take Post until he heard further from his Lordship. This Detachment, with the Reinforcements sent from hence, consists of about 700 Europeans, 4,200 Natives, and 450 Cavalry.

General Abercromby, with the Bombay Army, took Possession of the Coorg Pass on the 27th of February. The Advance, under Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, was strongly posted on the Top, and the General was busily employed in sending up Supplies; since that Time (as we are informed by private Advices) the Second Division of the 73d Regiment, sent from hence on your Ship the Queen, and the 14th Carnatic Battalion of Native Infantry, have joined, and rendered General Abercromby's Force very respectable. The Coorg Pass is about Fifty Miles from Seringapatam.

G. A. O.

Lord Cornwallis feels the most sensible Gratification in congratulating the Officers and Soldiers of the Army on the honorable Issue of the Fatigues and Dangers which they underwent during the late arduous Siege.

Their Alacrity and Firmness in the Execution of their various Duties has perhaps never been exceeded; and he shall not only think it incumbent upon him to represent their meritorious Conduct in the strongest Colours, but he shall ever remember it with the sincerest Sentiments of Esteem and Admiration.

The

The judicious Arrangements which were made by Colonel Duff in the Artillery Department, and his Exertions, and those of the other Officers and the Soldiers of that Corps in general, in the Service of the Batteries, are intitled to his Lordship's highest Approbation; to which he desires to add, that he thinks himself much obliged to Lieutenant-Colonel Geils for the able Manner in which he directed the Fire during the Day of the 21st.

Lord Cornwallis is so well acquainted with the Ardour that pervades the whole Army, that he would have been happy if it had been practicable to have allowed every Corps to have participated in the Glory of the Enterprize of last Night; but it must be obvious to all, that, in forming a Disposition for the Assault, a certain Portion of the Troops could only be employed.

The Conduct of all the Regiments which happened in their Tour to be upon Duty that Evening, did Credit, in every Respect, to their Spirit and Discipline; but his Lordship desires to offer the Tribute of his particular and warmest Praise to the European Grenadiers and Light Infantry of the Army, and to the 36th, 72d, and 76th Regiments, who led the Attack, and carried the Fortress, and who, by their Behaviour on that Occasion, furnished a conspicuous Proof, that disciplined Valor in Soldiers, when directed by Zeal and Capacity in Officers, is irresistible.

The Activity and good Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell, in the Command of the Pettah for several Days previous to the Assault of the Fort, was, in every Respect, highly commendable; but his Lordship desires that he will accept of his particular Thanks for the judicious Arrangements which he made for the Assault which was committed to his Direction, and for the Gallantry which he displayed in the Execution of them.

He likewise returns his warmest Acknowledgements to Major Kelly, who undertook the Command of the Corps that commenced the Attack of the Breach, and who, by animating them by his own Example, contributed essentially to our important Success.

Lieutenant-Colonel Stuart may be assured that Lord Cornwallis will ever retain the most grateful Remembrance of the valuable and steady Support which that Officer affords him, by his Military Experience and constant Exertions to promote the Public Service; and although his Lordship is unwilling to offend General Medow's Delicacy, by attempting to express his full Sense of the able and friendly Assistance which he uniformly experiences from him, he cannot avoid declaring, that it has made an Impression on his Mind that can never be effaced.

SECRET DEPARTMENT.

Sir CHARLES OAKLEY, Bart. Senior Member, and Council of Fort St. George.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING received Information from Lieutenant Stuart of the actual March of Rajah Feijewunt, and being sensible of the great Importance of securing the Junction of so considerable a Body of Cavalry, and of the Probability that Tippoo would use every Means in his Power to harass and obstruct their March, I have determined to move to the Northward, in the Direction in which they may be expected, and I am further induced to adopt this Measure, from the Assurances which I have received that the friendly Poligars in that Part of the Country have collected a large Quantity of Grain, and a great Number of Cattle, for the Use of the Army, within Fifty Miles of this Place.

After the Acquisition of Rajah Feigewunt's Cavalry, I shall hope to cover so large a Tract of Country, as to prevent the distressing Effects at least of a partial Fire brand, and to ensure the March of Lieutenant-Colonel Oldham's Detachment from Amboor, without being obliged to go to the Head of the Passes to meet him.

Whether I shall be able to attempt the Reduction of Seringapatam before the Rains, or whether I must limit my Views to Onjore, and an Establishment in this Country, will depend on Circumstances of which it is impossible for me at present to form a precise Judgment; I can, however, most truly assure you, that nothing but absolute Necessity shall make me abandon my former Plan.

I have, with a View to expedite the Re-equipment of the heavy Artillery, appointed Colonel Duff to command in Bangalore, into which Place I have put the 76th Regiment and Three Native Battalions.

The Quantity of Military Stores of all Sorts that we have found in it is astonishing, and there is in particular more Gunpowder than we can possibly have Occasion for during the present War.

I have the Honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

Sir CHARLES OAKLEY, Bart. Senior Member, and Council.

GENTLEMEN,

I Left my Camp, to the Southward of Bangalore, on the 28th Ult. and that Day fell in with the Rear of the Enemy's Line of March at Elevancum; and although our Infantry could not come up in Time to gain any material Advantage, we pursued them closely for several Miles, and obliged them to relinquish the Object, which they appeared to have in View, of getting between our Army and the Corps of the Nizam's Cavalry, which was expected to join us from Gunjecottah. Tippoo retired to Pedibalararam, leaving behind him One Brass Nine Pounder, which broke down, and he has since moved towards Shevagunga. In pursuance of the Plan, which I mentioned in my Letter of the 27th Ultimo, I came on, by the Way of Dionelly, to this Place, where I shall probably remain a few Days, as our Situation here is well calculated for preventing the Enemy from disturbing the March of our Allies. I am sorry, however, to add, that Rajah Turje Want, on the Pretence of the most absurd and ill-founded Reports, has halted at Wimpilly, which is only Eighteen Co's on this Side of Gunjecottah, and has declared that he will not proceed (unless he should receive positive Orders for that Purpose from his Master) until I inform him that I will send a Detachment to meet him at Chitomurrypait. The Fall of Bangalore, and the March of our Army to the Northward, with the Assurances I have given him that I will most attentively observe the Movements of the Enemy, will probably relieve him from his Fears, and induce him to come forward, if he seriously intends to join us; but I have acquainted him, him, that, if I hear of any more Delays and Excuses; I shall proceed with our own Troops to the Execution of my future Plan of Operations: We have been most plentifully supplied with Forage since we left Bangalore, notwithstanding the Attempts of the Enemy to burn it; and this Day some Banjarres of this Country brought to Camp above 4000 Bullocks, Half of them loaded with Rice, and the other Half with Grain, Doll, Ghee, and other Buzar Articles.

I have the Honor to be,
Gentlemen,

Your very obedient humble Servant,

S I R,

I Am directed by Lord Cornwallis to transmit to you Copies of a Letter received from Tippoo Sultaun, and of his Lordship's Answer to it.

His Lordship desires that Copies of them in English and Persian (for which Purpose a Persian Copy is also enclosed) be forwarded to the Residents at Poonah and at Hydrabad.

From TIPPOO SULTAUN.

Received March 27, 1791.

SOME Time ago your Lordship desired that several Matters should be replied to in Writing, and sent to you. I embrace this Opportunity of writing, that in Matters of great Importance the Secrets of the Heart cannot be known but by the verbal Communication of a Person of Confidence, nor can Affairs be adjusted. Therefore, if your Lordship pleases, I will nominate a Person of Confidence, and, vesting him with full Authority, will send him to your Presence, in order that by personal Conversations our ancient Friendship may gain daily Strength. Your Lordship must consider me desirous of your Friendship, and must act in a Manner that Peace may take Place between us, the Disagreements existing be removed, and the Happiness and Quiet of Mankind be established.

Dated 22d Rubany Saul Suty 1218 Mahomed, or the 20th Rejeb 1205 Hejery, 27th March, 1791.

To TIPPOO SULTAUN.

Written March 27, 1791.

I HAVE received and have understood the Contents of your Letter (recapitulate that received the 27th of March, 1791.)

The Moderation which always marks the Character of the British Government, and my own Personal Disposition and Feelings, unite in making me wish most earnestly for the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace, as soon as a just Reparation can be obtained for the Injuries and Losses that the Company and it's Allies have suffered.

If the Two Circars alone were engaged in the present War, I should not object to receive the Person of Confidence whom you desire to send to me, and I should listen as favourably to your Propositions as the Duty of my Station would admit; but so direct and expeditious a Mode of Negotiation is not now in my Power, for when I found that by your Disregard to all my conciliatory Offers, I must necessarily be forced to engage in a War, I entered into the most solemn Treaties with Nizam Ally Khan and with the Peshwa, declaring that we would assist each other, and that no one of the Powers would listen separately to any Advances from the Enemy without submitting the Terms proposed to the general Consideration and Approbation of the different Parties of the Confederacy.

I cannot, therefore, consistent with Honour and good Faith, receive, in the first Instance, a Person of Confidence from you, for the Purpose of adjusting the separate Terms of Peace between you and the Company; but if you should think proper to transmit to me, in Writing, the Propositions that you are willing to make, as a Foundation upon which Negotiations may be opened, for the Restoration of Peace and Friendship between the Company, the Nizam, and the Peshwa, on one Side, and your Circar on the other, I shall, on my Part, give them the most serious Consideration, and, after Communication with the other Members of the Confederacy, I shall convey to you our joint Sentiments upon them.
