Victualling-Office, September 20, 1791.

THE Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Tuesday the 11th of October next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing, (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as will undertake to supply Sea Provisions and Rum to His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Appledore Poole, in the Port of Barnstaple; and also the like Articles to those at Dartmouth in the County of Devon, on separate Contracts, to continue in Force for Twelve Months certain, and further until Six Months Warning shall be given on either Side for the Determination thereof.

The Conditions of the several Contracts may be seen at the Secretary's Office at this Office, or by applying to the Collector, or Chief Officers of His Majesty's Customs at Appledore Poole and Dartmouth respectively: And all Persons who may think proper to make Tenders on the said Occasion are desired to take Notice, That no Regard will be had to any Tender, in which the Prices shall not be inserted both in Words at Length and in Figures, that shall not be delivered to the Board before One o'Clock on the said 11th of October next; nor unless the Person who makes the Tender, or some Person on his Behalf, attends to answer for him when called for: And that such Tenders as contain extravagant Prices upon some Articles, and Prices much inferior to the real Value upon others, will not be considered as proper to be admitted.

General Post-Office, Monday, September 19, 1791.
MAIL ROBBERY and MURDER.

ON Thursday the 15th Instant, about Five o'Clock in the Morning, James Hogworth, the Post-Boy, carrying the Mail from Warrington to Manchester, was murdered about a Mile from Warrington: The Mail was found open, and the Letters in the following Bags were taken out and carried away, viz. the Bags from Chester for Manchester and Rochdale, which contained the Letters of the 10th from Ireland for those Towns and Places beyond, and the Bags from Liverpool and Warrington for Rochdale.

Two Men (supposed from their Accent to be Irishmen) were seen near the Place where the Robbery and Murder was committed immediately afterwards, and were, about Six o'Clock the same Morning, seen a Mile and a Half from Warrington on the Road to Liverpool. They were about Five Feet Five Inches high; one dressed in a strait-bodied ash-coloured Coat, the other in a striped Great Coat, with a large Cape, and each carried a small Bundle.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person or Persons who committed this Robbery and Murder, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the Robbery and Murder, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the Murder) shall make Discovery, whereby the Person or Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Sec.
