Gottenburg, July 27: N the 20th of May laft, the Danish Army, confilting in about 16000 Men, of which 9000 were of the Milicia of Norway, and the reft ient from Denmark, under the Command of the Sieur Guldenileu, fet down before Babus, a place of great importance;

down before Babus, a place of great importance; two or three days after they railed their Batteries, and open d their Trenches, which having carried on to the Counterscarp, they began to Ming. The Siege lasted from the faid 2 oth of May, till the 24th instant, the Enemy having, during that time, Iprung , Mines, which did confiderable execution, and particularly the latter, which was fprung the 21 inflant, and made a very great breach in one of the chief Baltions, thot 3000 Bombes and Fireballs of 2, 2.4, and 500 weight, and above 30000 Cannon (hot, which had their effeet, having extremely battered the place, and quite beaten down the old Cafile ; the Enemy made likewife two Storms, but were both times repulsed: in this flate the Si ge was when Count Steenbocke, Ryck Admiral, having drawn an Army of 10 or 12000 Men together, advanced with them to relieve the place, and to that end having paffed the River Elbe at Sandgarden, the 24th instant he caused 150 Foot to advance, command d by Colonel Magnus Greypbenwaldt, who were engaged by r or 600 Danish Horse and Dragoons, under the command of Lieutenant Gene-ral Duncan, but being feconded by fome other Troops, after a brick Skirmifh, they repulsed the Danes, Lieutenant General Duncan having received feveral wounds, of which, we are told, he dyed fome hoursafter. In the mean time the main Body of our Army advancing, the Enemy quitted the Hyfinger Illand, and by that means left Babss open on that fide, and prefently after the whole Danifb Army marched off, and railed the Siege, burying feveral pieces of Cannon which they could not take with them, having loft, during the Siege, near 3000 Men; and of the Garison, who had been put to very hard Duty, 300 were killed.

Dantzick, Aug. 27. The Suedes Army in Livonia begins to move under the command of Count Horne, formerly Governor of Stade, they will march towards Pruffia, to give the Elector of Brandenburgh a diversion on that fige.

diversion on that fige. Vienna, Aug. 27. The States of Hungary are now allembled at Presbourg, to confult of feveral matters relating to the composing the Affairs of that King-.dom, and, among other things, to confider how far the Emperor may grant the General Pardon that is wiefired by the Malccontents. The Letters we have from these Parts fay, That General Lesle, after having obliged the Rebels to raife the Si ge of Esperies, and to pals the River, had followed them focholey, as to overtake their Rear, which he had attacked, and killed roos of them upon the place, befides those that were taken Prifoners. The Letters add, That the Imperial Troops had fowell befet the feveral Paffes, that it would be a very difficult thing for any more Troops to come from Poland to the diffifance of the Rebels. The Marriage b-tween the Prince of *Neu*burg, and the Archdutchels Anne, will be confum ated at Newfladt, and great preparations are making there fuitable to the occasion.

Ratisbonne, Aug. 29. The City of Straburgb has again, by their Deputies here, demanded the protection and affittance of the Empire in the prefent danger that threatens them, up.n which nothing has been yet finally refolved. The Electors of Bavaria, Saxony, and Palatine, con inue very much to prefs that fome refolution may be taken which may advance the work of the Peace and particularly that the Emperor be prayed, in the name of the Empire, to agree to the Ceffation of Arms, which, as we underltand, is propofed at Nimeguen.

Copenhagen, Sept. 3. The hrit infant our King returned hith r trom Schonen, a d this day the Garifon thar came from Chriftiansfadt was muffered in his Majefties prefence. From the Bajtick we have an account. That the Suede's Men of War, 11 in nymber, who have fo long lay'n in Calmar Road, had put to Sea the laft week, but that meet ng with some of our Ships, under the Command of Viceadmiral Spaen, they tacked from them, and returned to Calmar again. The Suedes Army is faid to be within an hours march of ours, which continues encamped near. Landleroon.

Hamburg, Sept. 3. The Lunenburg Troops in Pomeren have finally quitted their Quarters, and are marching, and we shall now quickly lee how they will be employed; it is not doubted but that the defign is upon Rugen.

Ditto, Sept. 6. The Letters from Denmark give us an account, That the two Armies were very near in Schonen, and that it was believ d there would very quickly happen fome Action, between them. The Brandenburg and Lunenburg Troops have not 3, 35, yet made any attempt upon Rugen Heydelberg, Sept. 1. The Imperial Army continues as yet on this fide the Rhine; th ir Foragers do very much vex the poor Countrey. People, whom they plunder of all they have, even under the walls of this City.

Strasburgh, Sept. 3. Our Magistrates have put out a Manifelt in answer to that published by the Marelchal de Crequi, in which they shew, how contrary to his word the faid Marciehal attackt the Fort of Kiel, and aft "rwards burnt the fame, together with the Village that is there, Se. without the leaft provocation given him by this City; and that being thus trated by the Erench, they found themselves necessitated to repel Force by Force, and to make use of such means as God hath given them, for their own defence, Ge. In the mean time we are every day more, and more freightned, and fince our fast, the Enemy have pol-fested themselves of a small file in the Rhine, by which means we are in a manner shut up on that fide. The Duke of Lorrain marches towards Philipsburg and the Marcfchal de Crequi is decamped from Werds, and marches towards Weiffembourg, Eton
