

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 4, to Saturday October 8, 1791.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION:
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS certain evil-minded Persons did, on the Morning of the Twenty-eighth Day of July last, set Fire to the Out-Houses of Mr. James Wheat, of Norwood-Hall, in Our County of York; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution that the Authors, Abettors and Perpetrators of the said Offence be prosecuted as speedily as may be, according to the due Course of Law: And We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting, to the utmost of their Power, in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Offenders: And We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who were guilty of the said Offence, so as the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have as a Reward ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for each and every such Offender, and also Our gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same.

Given at Our Court at Weymouth, the Twenty-eighth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-one, in the Thirty-first Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Whitehall, October 8:

THE Letters from the East Indies, of which the following are Copy and Extract, were both received on the 5th Instant, the former by the Eliza, a Danish Ship, and the latter by the Warren Hastings, one of the Company's Ships.

To the Honorable the Secret Committee of the Court of Directors for Affairs of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies:

HONORABLE SIRS,

SINCE our Dispatches, which were forwarded on the Worcester Indiaman, under Date of the 23d of March, we have received Accounts of the further Operations of Lord Cornwallis's Army, and take the Opportunity of the Danish Ship Eliza, touching at this Port for a few Hours, and bound for Europe, to communicate to you the Particulars.

On the 5th Ultimo the Grand Army arrived at the strong Fort of Bangalore, without meeting any Opposition from the Enemy in ascending the Ghauts, or on their subsequent March to this Place. His Lordship immediately laid Siege to this important Fort, and on the 13th of March carried the Pettah by Storm. During the Attack Lieutenant-Colonel Moorhouse, of the Artillery on your Madras Establishment, and Captain Delaney, of His Majesty's 36th Regiment, were killed, with some few Private Europeans and Sepoys. The next Day Tippoo's Army appeared in Sight, and he made Two separate Attempts to drive the British Troops from this Station, and was repulsed in each with very great Slaughter. On the 22d the Breach, though scarcely practicable, Lord Cornwallis determined, without further Delay, to storm the Fort, as he was beginning to run short of Provisions. The Storming Party consisted of the 36th, 72d, 76th, King's Regiments, Two Battalions of Sepoys, together with the European Grenadiers and Light Infantry of the Army; and the Whole commanded by Major-General Meadows.

