PRINCE of WALES's COUNCIL,

November 12, 1791.

THE Names of those who were nominated for Sheriffs by the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at His Royal Highness's Council Chamber and Duchy Office, Somerset Place, on Saturday the Twelfth Day of November, in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord, 1791.

County of Cornwall, } Wray Jaans, of Whitstone, Esq;
 } John Trevenen, of Hellstone, Esq;
 } Thomas Edwards, of Rame, Esq;

Whitehall, November 11, 1791.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, upon the 20th of October last, as His Majesty's Excise Cutter the Badger was cruising between Black Coombe and the Isle of Man, she fell in with a large Smuggling Lugger, when a warm Engagement ensued between the Badger and the said Lugger, wherein Mr. Daniel Stewart, the Master Surveyor, was shot through the Shoulder, Richard Martley, the Cook, through both Legs, and others of the Crew slightly wounded; and after the said Lugger, from her superior Force, had driven the Badger's People from their Guns and Decks, and had prevented their Escape by keeping up a constant Fire upon her, and disabled her Mast and Rigging, she hailed the Badger, and ordered her to send the Boat on Board the Lugger, or that they would sink the Cutter; and the Boat being accordingly sent, she soon returned to the Badger with Six or Eight of the Lugger's People in her, who sent Mr. Inglis, Mate of the Badger, and Three of her Men, on Board the Lugger, and then cut away the Badger's Masts, and cut her Sails from the Yards, threw her Great Guns and Small Arms over-board, and plundered the Badger of her Stores, and the Master Surveyor and Mate of their Clothes, Watches, Money, and other their private Property, with all which they returned to the said Lugger, and then gave the Mate and People of the Badger (whom they had before sent on Board her) their Choice of being thrown over-board, or going again in the small Boat to the Badger, which, from a heavy Gale of Wind that had then come on, there was little Probability of their reaching, but they providentially effected it, and the Badger is since returned a perfect Wreck to the Isle of Man:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring Acts of Violence and Piracy, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to such of them as may give Information against one or more of their Accomplices, except the Master and Mate of the said Lugger, and excepting all those Persons who actually went in the Lugger's Boat on Board the Badger and plundered her as aforesaid, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

G R E N V I L L E.

And the Commissioners of Excise, in lieu of the Reward offered by them in the London Gazette of the 12th Instant, (which Offer they hereby revoke) do now offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover or apprehend the Master.
