Whitehall, December 3.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Westmorland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin; in Common Council assembled:

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord-Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the ancient City of Dublin, approach your Majesty's Throne with the most affectionate Loyalty to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family and Government.

Deeply participating in whatever can convey Satisfaction to your Royal Mind, we humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of York with the Princess Royal of Prussia; an Event which, as it promises to encrease your Majesty's domestic Felicity, and to add new Strength and Stability to the Illustrious House of Brunswick, highly interests the Feelings of your Majesty's loyal Citizens of Dublin.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed the 18th Day of November, 1791.
