

on which the Duke of Lorraine ordered the Regiment of Oettingen, and afterwards eight Battalions more, to pass the Rhine, and to reinforce those Troops commanded by Caprara. The Marschal de Crequi has agreed in sent to offer a Neutrality to the City of Strasbourg, and to let them know, that he had revoked the Edict he had published against them; but that City has so far engaged it self with the Imperialists, that they must now keep close to them.

Brussels, Sept. 16. The Earl of Feverham, Lieutenant General of the Forces of His Majesty of Great Britain, is gone to the Army, from whence we have an account, that the Duke of Luxemburg, who remains encamp'd with the Army under his command near Fontaine l'Evesque, had sent to complain to the Duke de Villa Hermosa, that a Party of the Garison of Namur had fallen upon his Foragers, within the French Territories, and had wounded and killed some of them. And that another Party of the Munster Troops had taken Prisoner the Sieur d'Estrades, Son to the Marschal d'Estrades, one of the Most Christian Kings Ambassadors at Nimeguen, as he was going from France to Nimeguen, notwithstanding he had the said Dukes Pass; at which his Excellency was much offended, and promised all possible satisfaction. But the Munster Troops grow every day more and more disorderly; and they are now going to raise 40000 Crowns, which they pretend are due to them from the Crown of Spain, upon the Spanish Guelderland, having already gone so far, as to tax the respective Villages, and to threaten to execute them, if they do not pay the same within the time set them. The Dutch Troops march off daily from the Army to several quarters; those that were at Mons, besides the Regiments that were disbanded, are drawn from thence, and ordered to march to Breda, Bolduc, &c. Five other Regiments are appointed to march towards the Meuse, to take possession of Maastricht, which will be restored to the States, so soon as they have ratified their Treaty with France, which ought to be done before Wednesday next. The Duke of Aerschot has formed two new Regiments at Mons of the Dutch Soldiers that were disbanded, and have entered themselves into the Spanish Service.

Ditto, Sept. 20. The generality of the People here are well pleased at the news which was brought hither yesterday by an Express from Nimeguen, which was, That on Saturday last the Treaty of Peace between this Crown and France, was Signed by the French and Spanish Ambassadors; and this day the Prince of Vaudemont treats the Duke of Luxemburg, and other General Officers of the French Army, at dinner, at the Castle of Marimont, which is about 8 Leagues from hence. To morrow our Army decamps from Genap, having eaten up all the Forage 7 Leagues round, and marches to Gemblours, where they will encamp, and the next day march towards Bonesse Abbey; the Duke de Villa Hermosa, it's thought, will be here in a day or two, but the Army will keep the Field, till the Peace is ratified, and the places that are to be restored by it evacuated. Yesterday passed through this place three Dutch Regiments, on their march to the Army, where they were to be broken. The two Munster Troops which were in our Army, with the Troops of the Circle of Westphalia, are marched towards the Meuse, to join their Body, which is near Ruremond, under the command of Major General Montagne; those Troops continue to commit a thousand violences. We have not any thing of moment from Germany.

Amsterdam, Aug. 20. Our desires for a Peace at &c at last completed, for the Treaty between France and Spain was Signed at Nimeguen on Saturday last, and that being done, this State will doubtless no longer defer to ratifie their Treaty with France.

Hague, Sept. 20. Yesterday arrived here an Express from Nimeguen, with Letters to the States from their Ambassadors there, giving them an account, how that the Treaty between France and Spain had been finally perfected, and Signed by the Ambassadors of those two Crowns on Saturday last; and that it was hoped the Proposals that had been made for a general Cessation of Arms, would likewise take effect. It is now expected that the States will proceed to the exchanging the Ratifications of their Treaty with France. The Letters we have from the Northern quarters, bring us not anything of news, the great expectation in those Parts was, to see what the success of the design upon Rugon would be; in all probability it would succeed, for that Count Cuningsmarke is not lookt upon to be strong enough to secure the Island, when attacked on both sides by the Danes and Brandenburgs. Monsieur d'Arvanx, the French Ambassador, having assisted at the Signing of the Peace with Spain, is come back hither.

Advertisements.

Forasmuch as all Natural Knowledge

was Originally produced (and still eminently depends) upon Experiments, and all or most Experiments are couched among the Handy-crafts; and also that Handy-works themselves may be improved: There was begun (by Joseph Moxon, Hydrographer to the Kings Most Excellent Majesty) Jan. 1. 1677. Monthly Exercises, upon the Mechanicks, and hath been since continued in Six Monthly Exercises, till July 1. 1678. The first three, viz. Numb. I, II, III. Teaching the Art of Smithing, wherein is handled the Use of the Smiths Tools, the Setting up a Smiths Forge, the manner of Forging, Filing, making of Screws and Worms, Braising and Soldering, Case-hardning of Iron, Softning, Hardning and Tempering of Steel, &c. In the three other Monthly Exercises, viz. Numb. IV, V, VI. is handled the Art of Joynery; its Tools, and the manner of working with them, as in Planing, Glewing, Shooting of Joints, Framing, Mortising, and Tennanting, Mbliding, &c. These Arts are described in Workmens Phrases, and their several Terms explained. And these Exercises are intended to be Monthly continued upon all other Trades. The price of each Exercise Six-pence. Sold by Joseph Moxon on Ludgate-hill, at the Sign of the Aslas.

Strayed or stolen about the 25th of August last, out of the Grounds of Mrs. Offis, called Possingworth, in the Parish of Waldern in Stafford, a Nag about 13 hands, of a mouse colored dun, a small star in his forehead, mealy about the eyes and nose, saddle spots on the back, a tlog on his near foot before, trots all. Whoever gives notice of the said Nag to the aforesaid Mrs. Offis, or to Mr. Tho. Barrell under St. Dunstons Church in Fleet street, London, shall have 20s. Reward.

Lost about Abingdon and Oxford, the 5th instant, A brown skew bald faced Mare, with two white feet behind, 14 hands, 5 years old. A foal Gelding Colt with a Star in the forehead, a sprig tail 3 years old. A white roan Mare Colt about 3 years and an half old, a sprig tail, marked with a Forest Bill on the near buttock, ring'd, and shod before. A bay ston'd Colt with a shorn mane and tail, a year old. And an iron grey Gelding Colt, a lame stump foot before, and two white feet behind, 2 years old and better. A dark grey Mare Colt, a shorn mane and tail'd, 14 hands, ring'd, a little white on the near leg behind. A grey Mare about 13 hands and an half, charn'd upon the 4 fetter-lock joints. A bay Mare near 15 hands, a blaze down the forehead, 3 white feet. between 3 and 4 years old. A chestnut Gelding, somewhat dappled, about 3 years old, with a cartail grown out, about 14 hands. Whoever give notice of the said Horses to Richard Green at the Lamb in Abingdon, at the Rid Lyon in Oxford, or to Mr. Jms. Crossbow-maker to the King, at Charing-cross, shall have 5 l. Reward.

Strayed or stolen out of the Griffin Pasture in Ipswich, a gray Nag about 14 hands, a scar upon one knee, his hinder feet white, one higher than the other, all his paces. Whoever gives notice of the said Nag to Mr. Samuel Lowndes Book-seller at the Savoy-gate, London, or to Mr. Richd & Beaumont of Ipswich, shall have a Guiney reward,