Whitehall, February 11, 1792.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, between Nine and Ten o'Clock of the Night of Tuesday the 24th of January last, Mr. Archibald Young, Surgeon, of the City of Glasgow, was accosted by Two Men, unknown, near the Head of Hutcheson's Street, in the said City, who asked him if he was Mr. Young, the Surgeon, and that, on being answered in the Affirmative, they immediately seized him by the Arms, and telling him, they would do for him, one of them wounded him with a sharp Instrument, which penetrated through several Folds of a Letter in the Breast-Pocket of his Coat, and entered his Side under the lowest Rib; after which they made their Escape.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in assaulting and wounding the said Mr. Archibald Young as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wounded the said Mr. Archibald Young as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the following Rewards are offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) viz.

From the Provost and Magistrates of the City of Glasgow, FIFTY GUINEAS.

The Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Ditto, FIFTY GUINEAS.

The said Mr. Archibald Young, ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS;

To be paid upon Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders.
