SEVERAL Persons, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others, being legal Electors of Members to ferve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark, in the County of Nottingham, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That, upon the zzd Day of March, 1791, the Select Committee, who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of William Paxton, Esquire, and also the Petition of several other Persons, Electors of Members to ferve in Parliament for the faid Borough, reported to the House, that they had determined, "That the Right of voting for Members " to ferve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark, " in the County of Nottingham, is in the Mayor, "Aldermen, and all the Inhabitants paying Scot and Lot within the faid Borough:" That the Petitioners are advised, that the said Right of Voting, so determined by the faid Select Committee, is not the Right of Election for the faid Borough; and therefore, to prevent the faid Judgment of the faid Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, pray that they may be admitted as Parties, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case lately made and provided, to oppose the said Right of Election, in Favour of which the faid Select Committee have reported as aforefaid, and that they may have fuch other Relief in the Premises as to the House shall seem meet, and the Nature of the Case may require. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Friday the Thirtieth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the faid Petition Given under my Hand, the into Confideration. Thirteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

HE Right Honourable Lord Viscount Midleton, the Honourable William Brodrick and Charles Townshend, Esquires, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Ludgorshall in the County of Wilts, having this Day pre-fented their Petition to the House of Commons, fetting forth, That, by a late Resolution of a Select Committee of this House, appointed to try the Merits of a Petition of John Drummond and Robert Drummond, Esquires, and also a Petition of the several Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, being Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Ludgarshall in the County of Wilts, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the faid Borough, and which, on the 15th Day of April last, was by them reported to the House, the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the faid Borough was declared to be " in such Persons who have any Estate of In-" heritance, or Freehold or Leaschold determinable " upon Life or Lives, within the faid Borough, not " confined to entire ancient Houses, or the entire " Scites of ancient Houses, within the said Borough." That the Petitioners are not satisfied with the said Resolution, and are desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, and to have the Benesit of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided. The Petitioners therefore humbly pray the House to take the Premises into Consideration, and grant such Relief as the House shall think proper. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Wednesday the Fourth Day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the faid Petition into Confideration. Given under my Hand, the Thirteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

Henry Addington, Speaker.

*HOMAS Wilfon Morley, James Paine, Ro-bert Murray, Edward Wastell, John Richardfon, Robert Yarker, Thomas Wyley, John White, Richard Rowland, Joseph Yeoward, Ralph Elliot, and Joseph Brownrigg, Citizens of the City of Carlifle, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That, by a late Resolution of a Select Committee of the House, appointed to try the Merits of the Petition of John Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, Esquires, complaining of an undue Election and Return of the City of Carlille, in the County of Cumberland, and which, on the Third Day of March, 1791, was by them reported to the House, That the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, is declared to be in the Freemen of the faid City, duly admitted and fworn Freemen of the faid City, having been previously admitted Brethren of One of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the faid City, and deriving their Title to fuch Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman resident, during such Apprenticeship, within the said City, and in no others. That the Petitioners are not satisfied with the faid Refolution, and are defirous of being admitted Parties to oppose such Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Case made and provided. The Petitioners humbly pray the House to take the Premises into Consideration, and to grant the Petitioners such Relief therein as the House shall think sit. I do hereby give Notice, that rhe House has appointed Monday the Second Day of April next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the faid Petition into Confi-Given under my Hand, the Thirteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, February 11, 1792.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday. Evening last, between the Hours of Nine and Ten, some evil-disposed Person or Persons, unknown, did wilfully set Fire to some Faggots and Bavings, the Property of the Reverend Thomas Mantell, of Frensham in the County of Surry; which Faggots and Bavings were stacked in a Piece of Ground belonging to Mr. Hewitt, in the Parish of Elsted, in the same County, whereby the same were almost entirely consumed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Faggots and Bavings as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

Tho. Mantell.

Whitehall, February 11, 1792.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, between Nine and Ten o'Clock of the Night of Tuesday the 24th of January last, Mr. Archibald Young, Surgeon, of the City of Glasgow, was accosted by Two Men, unknown, near the Head of Hutcheson's Street, in the said City, who asked him if he was Mr. Young, the Surgeon, and that, on being answered in the Assimative, they immediately seized him by the Arms, and telling him, they would do for him, one of them wounded him with a sharp Instrument, which penetrated through several Folds of a Letter in the Breast-Pocket of his Coat, and entered his Side under the lowest Rib; after which they made their Escape.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in assaulting and wounding the said Mr. Archibald Young as abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious. Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wounded the said Mr. Archibald Young as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the following Rewards are offered to any Person making such Discovery as assoresaid (except as is before excepted) viz.

From the Provost and Magistrates of the City of. Glasgow, FIFTY GUINEAS.

The Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Ditto, FIFTY GUINEAS.

The faid Mr. Archibald Young, ONE HUNDRED GUINE AS;

To be paid upon Conviction of the Said Offender or Of-
