AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of February, 1792,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Names of many of the Officers serving in the respective Regiments and Battalions of Militia within the several Counties in England and Wales have been frequently returned by the Judges in the List of Persons proper to be appointed Sheriffs, notwithstanding such Officers are by Law exempted from serving the Office of Sheriff during the Time of their Service in the Militia: And whereas the Impropriety of such Returns may have proceeded from the Want of Information being given to the Judges of the Names of the several Officers so serving in the Militia, from whence many Inconveniencies have arisen; His Majesty, in order to prevent the like happening for the future, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to require and command that the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties in England and Wales, where the Militia has been raised and embodied, do cause Lists to be made every Year of the Names and Places of Residence of the Officers serving in the Militia within their respective Counties, and cause the said Lists to be delivered into the Hands of the Clerk of the Assize, in order to be laid before the Judges at the Time of holding the Summer Assize; that Care may be taken, for the Time to come, that the Names of any such Officers be not inserted on the Roll of Persons to be proposed to His Majesty as proper to serve the Office of Sheriff.

W. Fawkener.

The Queen's Palace, February 25.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Earl of Morton to be Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

The Queen has also been pleased to appoint the Earl of Ailesbury to be Treasurer of Her Majesty's Household.
