From Saturday February 25, to Tuesday February 28, 1792.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of February, 1792,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Names of many of the Officers serving in the respective Regiments and Battalions of Militia within the several Counties in England and Wales have been frequently returned by the Judges in the List of Persons proper to be appointed Sheriffs, notwithstanding such Officers are by Law exempted from serving the Office of Sheriff during the Time of their Service in the Militia: And whereas the Impropriety of such Returns may have proceeded from the Want of Information being given to the Judges of the Names of the several Officers so serving in the Militia, from whence many Inconveniencies have arisen; His Majesty, in order to prevent the like happening for the future, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to require and command that the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties in England and Wales, where the Militia has been raised and embodied, do cause Lists to be made every Year of the Names and Places of Residence of the Officers serving in the Militia within their respective Counties, and cause the said Lists to be delivered into the Hands of the Clerk of the Assize, in order to be laid before the Judges at the Time of holding the Summer Assize; that Care may be taken, for the Time to come, that the Names of any such Officers be not inserted on the Roll of Persons to be proposed to His Majesty as proper to serve the Office of Sheriff:

W. Fawcener.

JOHNS Smyth and William Sotheron, Esquires, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That upon the Ninth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, the Select Committee, who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of Charles Mellish and John Anstruther, Esquires, and also the Petition of several other Persons; Freeholders of Burgage Tenure within the Borough of Pontefract, and, as such, claiming to be Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, reported to this House, that it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petitions did wholly depend upon the Right of Election, and that therefore the said Committee had required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said Charles Mellish and John Anstruther, and the said other Persons, delivered in a Statement respecting the Right of Election for the said Borough: as follows:

[Price Eight-pence.]

follows: "That the Right of Election for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York is in Persons having within the said Borough Freehold of Burgage Tenure, paying a Burgage Rent." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the said John Smyth and William Soheron, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state the Right of Election for the Borough of Pontefract to be in the Inhabitants Householders Resiants." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee reported, that they had determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members, the said Select Committee reported, that they had determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough of Pontefract." That John Walsh, Esquire, pretending to be an Elector of Representatives to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Pontefract, having, on the First Day of this instant February, presented his Petition to this House, to prevent the Judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, praying that he might be admitted as a Party, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided, to oppose that Right of Election, in Favor of which the said Select Committee had reported as above set forth, and that he might have such further and other Relief in the Premises as to the House should seem meet, and the Nature of his Case might require: And the Petitioners humbly insisting, that the Right of Election, which hath been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, is the ancient and true Right of Election for the said Borough of Pontefract; the Petitioners, therefore, pray that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election, so reported to this House as aforesaid, according to the Form of the said Statute, and that they may have such further and other Relief as to the House shall seem meet, and as the Nature of their Case may require. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Monday the Nineteenth Day of March next, to take the said Petition into Consideration, at the same Time that the Petition of John Walsh, Esquire, who claims to be an Elector of Representatives to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York, is ordered to be taken into Consideration. Given under my Hand, the Twenty-seventh Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

THE several Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, paying Scot and Lot within the said Borough, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, being Electors of Members to represent the said Borough in Parliament, on Behalf of themselves and other Electors of the said Borough, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That upon the Twenty-second Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, the Select Committee, who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a certain Petition of William Paxton, Esquire, and also a Petition of several other Persons, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, reported to the House, that they had determined, "That the Right of voting for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark in the County of Nottingham, is in the Mayor, Aldermen, and all the Inhabitants paying Scot and Lot within the said Borough:" That certain Persons, pretending to be Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Newark, having, on the Thirteenth Day of February instant, presented a Petition to this House, praying that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, in Favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid: And the Petitioners insisting, that the said Right of Election, in Favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid, is the true Right of Election for the said Borough of Newark; the Petitioners, therefore, pray this House, that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election, so reported to the House as aforesaid, and that they may have such further and other Relief as to the House shall seem meet. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Friday the Thirtieth Day of March next, to take the said Petition into Consideration, at the same Time that the Petition of the several Persons, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others, being legal Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Newark in the County of Nottingham, is ordered to be taken into Consideration. Given under my Hand, the Twenty-seventh Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, February 18, 1792.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Morning of the 31st Day of January last, the Corn Mill belonging to Mr. Joseph Baxter, of Whiston, in the Parish of Penkridge, in the County of Stafford, was discovered to be on Fire, by which all the Inside Works of the said Mill, together with upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Sacks of Flour, Grain and other Stock and Materials therein, to a very considerable Amount, were entirely consumed; and that there is great Reason to believe that the said Fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Mill aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her
Accomplice

Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Joseph Baxter doth hereby offer a Reward of TEN GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

Edw. Littleton.

Whitehall, February 11, 1792.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday Evening last, between the Hours of Nine and Ten, some evil-disposed Person or Persons, unknown, did wilfully set Fire to some Faggots and Bawings, the Property of the Reverend Thomas Mantell, of Frensham in the County of Surry; which Faggots and Bawings were stacked in a Piece of Ground belonging to Mr. Hewitt, in the Parish of Elsted, in the same County, whereby the same were almost entirely consumed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Faggots and Bawings as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

Tho. Mantell.
