Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 3, to Tuesday March 6, 1792.

THOMAS Everett, Esquire, and Thomas Batt, Gentleman, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Ludgershall in the County of Wilts, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That, on the Fifteenth Day of April, 1791, a Select Committee of this House, appointed to try the Merits of the Petition of John Drummond and Robert Drummond, Esquires, and also the Petition of the several Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, being legal Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Ludgershall in the County of Wilts, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough of Ludgershall, reported to this House, the Right of voting for Members of Parliament for the Borough of Ludgershall to be "in such Persons who have any Estate of Inheritance, or Freehold or Leasehold determinable upon Life or Lives, within the Borough, not confined to entire ancient Houses, or the entire Scites of ancient Houses, within the Borough." That the Right Honourable Viscount Midleton, the Honourable William Brodrick, and Charles Townshend, Esquire, on the Thirteenth Day of February last, presented their Petition to this House, stating the said Right of Election as reported by the said Select Committee, and that the Petitioners were not satisfied with the said Resolution, and that they were desirous to be admitted Parties to oppose the said Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided. That the Petitioners humbly insist, that the Right of Election, as declared by the said Select Committee, is the true and lawful Right of Election for the said Borough of Ludgershall, and therefore pray this House, that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election, so reported to this House as aforesaid, and that they have such further and other Relief, as to the Wisdom of this House shall seem meet. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Wednesday the Fourth Day of April next, to take the said Petition into Consideration; at the same Time that the Petition of the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Midleton, the Honourable William Brodrick, and Charles Townshend, Esquire, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Ludgershall in the County of Wilts, is ordered to be taken into Consideration. Given under my Hand, the Fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.
