Whitehall, March 22, 1792.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on or about the 7th Day of February last, an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was received from the Post-Office in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, by Messrs. Robert and John Grimshaw, Merchants, of Manchester aforesaid:

“ Sirs,

“ We have sworn together to destroy your Factory if we dye for it and to have your Lives for ruining our Trade and if you go on you know the Certainty which comes unknown to my Companions.”

That on the Night of Thursday last, the 15th Day of March instant, the Weaving Factory of the said Messrs. Robert and John Grimshaw, situated at Knot Mill, in Manchester aforesaid, was destroyed by Fire, and that there is Reason to suspect that the said Premises were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter above-mentioned, and in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in both or either of the Offences within mentioned (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter, or set Fire to the said Premises) so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders by Rob. Grimshaw.

J. Grimshaw.
