To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the Wisdom and Benevolence evinced by your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

Your faithful Citizens venerate the Constitution of this Kingdom, as established by the glorious Revolution, and improved on subsequent Occasions, because it connects the Honor of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject; and their Attachment is increased from the Consideration, that it contains the natural and regular Means of advancing those Objects with the Change of Times and Improvement of Circumstances.

[Price Eight-pence.]

We trust that the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoying with us the most abundant National Happiness and Prosperity under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, will also with us duly estimate the Value of those Blessings, and unite in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue them, by preserving our excellent Constitution from the Dangers of speculative and impracticable Theory.

Signed by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Receive with the greatest Satisfaction this Mark of your Attachment to Me, and to the Government and Constitution of the Kingdom as by Law established; and My loyal City of London may always be assured of receiving from Me every Mark of Attention and Regard.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.
