Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Readiness with which you have granted the necessary Supplies, and the fresh Proof which you have given of your constant Affection for My Person and Family in enabling Me to provide for the Establishment of My Son, the Duke of York, call for My warmest Acknowledgements: I have also observed, with the utmost Satisfaction, the Measures which you have adopted for the Diminution of the Public Burthens, while you have, at the same Time, made additional Provision for the Reduction of the present National Debt, and established a permanent System for preventing the dangerous Accumulation of Debt in future.

The recent Expressions of your uniform and zealous Attachment to the established Government and Constitution, leave Me no Room to doubt that you will, in your several Counties, be active and vigilant to maintain those Sentiments in the Minds of My faithful People; and I have the Happiness of receiving continued and additional Proofs of their just Sense of the numerous and increasing Advantages which they now enjoy under the Protection and distinguished Favour of Providence.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Vice-Chancellor and Delegates from the Convocation, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, impressed with a just Sense of your paternal Care and Solitude for the Security, Welfare and Happiness of your People; beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts firmly and unalterably attached to your Sacred Person and Government, most gratefully to acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness in issuing your Royal Proclamation, to check and suppress those wicked and seditious Publications, which are disgraceful to every moral and civilized State, and which tend not only to the Destruction of Decency and good Order, but totally to subvert that necessary Subordination, which alone can give Strength and Efficacy to legal Authority.

Placed in a Seminary instituted for the Education and Instruction of Youth in the pure and unfulfilled Principles of the Civil and Religious Establishments of our Country, we feel ourselves in a peculiar Manner called upon to express our utter Abhorrence of all such bold and inflammatory Writings as are calculated to interrupt the present Peace and Harmony of the Wise and Virtuous, and which, by dissolving every sacred Tie, must eventually contribute to poison the Minds and corrupt the Hearts of the rising Generation.

Happy in the substantial Enjoyment of a Constitution (humanly speaking) the most pure and perfect, we view with Concern and Indignation the intemperate Zeal of wild Theorists, and will strenuously exert our utmost Efforts, directed and encouraged as we are by your Majesty's great Example, to transmit the same untainted and unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

Given at our House of Convocation, this 9th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to the King by Richard Gamon, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, ever desirous to manifest our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our grateful Thanks, for having issued your Royal Proclamation to suppress certain seditious and dangerous Publications, tending to calumniate and subvert the happy Constitution secured to us by the glorious Revolution, and to lessen and depreciate the Blessings we enjoy under so rational and well poised a System of Government.

Grateful ourselves to that Providence which gave us Birth, in a Country where our Lives are protected, our Liberties defended, and our Property secured by Laws equally administered, under a mild and gracious Sovereign, we trust our Fellow Subjects, not less sensible of these Blessings, will never be induced by Pretences however specious, or Theories however plausible, to concur in any Measures to subvert that Constitution, from which we derive such inestimable Benefits; the Possession of which has, for more than a Century, rendered the Subjects of these your Majesty's Dominions the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this 9th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, has been presented to the King by Sir John Ingilby, Bart. One of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by Mr. Parker, Alderman of that Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your august Presence with Declarations of Attachment and Fidelity, more strongly cemented, if possible, by the gracious Regard evinced in your Royal Proclamation for the Continuance of these Blessings which have been the boasted Birthright of every honest Briton. We cannot express our Feelings on this momentous Occasion without reiterating those Sentiments of Loyalty so amply displayed in the Address of the Two Houses of Parliament: With them, with every good Subject, we will ever concur in maintaining Order and Decorum, so confessedly essential to the true Principles of our invaluable Constitution.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport in the County of Cheshire, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable the Master the Rolls and Sir George Warren, Knight of the Bath, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport in the County of Cheshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, beg Leave to express express our warmest Acknowledgements for the recent Instance your Majesty has given us of your constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, by the issuing of your Royal Proclamation.

That admiring and venerating, as we do, the happy Constitution of Government established in this Kingdom, we observe, with the deepest Concern and Resentment, the seditious Writings that have of late been published, tending not only to excite Discontent in the Minds of the People; but aiming ultimately, as we conceive, at the total Subversion of a Constitution, which has for Ages been the great Boast of Britons, and the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations.

That, as good Citizens, highly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, we deem it peculiarly necessary at this Time to express our entire Disapprobation of the Publications above mentioned, and of the Means that have been adopted for promulgating their pernicious and dangerous Doctrines. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that convinced as we are, that our Prosperity and Happiness greatly depend on a due Submission to the Laws, and a firm and steady Attachment to our mixed Form of Government, we will, in our respective Capacities, use our best Endeavours to discountenance and counteract the evil Effects of all such Writings, and of all such other Attempts as shall appear to us to be calculated, either to subvert or injure our excellent Constitution, or to disturb the public Order and Tranquillity of the Kingdom.

Stockport, June 4, 1792.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Charles Townshend and Henry Beaufoy, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to return our most grateful Thanks for the wise and seasonable Proclamation, which your Majesty has thought fit to issue, for the Purpose of defeating the Attempts that are daily making to recommend new speculative Systems, in Preference to that most admirable Form of Government established at the Revolution, and sanctioned by the Experience of a Century. These Attempts, we trust, will prove as fruitless as they are wicked. We know that we live under just and equal Laws. We know that your Majesty's Subjects of every Degree are alike protected in their Persons and their Properties. We know that we are a happy and a flourishing Nation. We attribute that Prosperity and that Happiness to the most perfect Model of practical Government, our present Constitution; and we are therefore firmly of Opinion, that to preserve, not to alter, that Constitution, is one of the principal Duties which we owe to ourselves and to our Posterity.

Animated by these Sentiments, we are anxious to be amongst the foremost in respectfully assuring your Majesty, that we shall use our utmost Endeavours within our Jurisdiction to prevent the Circulation of seditious Papers; that we shall diligently watch over every Attempt that may be made to lessen the Attachment of your People to any Part of that System of well-regulated Government, which the Example of our Ancestors, and our own Experience, have taught us to love and to revere; and that we shall constantly and actively promote, as far as in us lies, the salutary Purposes of your Majesty's Proclamation.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 7th Day of June, 1792.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Lord North, Representative in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Town of Banbury, in the County of Oxford, have the highest Satisfaction in offering our grateful Thanks to your Majesty for having issued your Royal Proclamation: And we cannot but congratulate your Majesty and ourselves, that, in Addition to your Majesty's Care for the Welfare of your People, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, in whose Integrity and Wisdom we have a just Confidence, have spoken the general Sentiments of the Nation, and have likewise pledged themselves to support your Majesty in your Determination for the Preservation of the Peace and Happiness of your faithful and loving Subjects. With such an Example before us, we should do Injustice to our own Feelings not to assure your Majesty, that as it is our Duty, so it will be our Pleasure, to co-operate with your Majesty in obtaining the Object of the Proclamation; and that we will at all Times use our utmost Endeavours to support the happy but envied Constitution of this Kingdom against every Attempt to subvert it. Done at a Common Hall, the 6th Day of June, 1792.

Whitehall, June 16.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bath and its Neighbourhood, humbly beg Leave to thank your Majesty for the Proclamation lately issued against the Authors, Printers and Dispersers of sundry wicked and seditious Writings, which have of late industriously been circulated through this Kingdom, tending to unsettle the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and to weaken their well-grounded Confidence in the Constitution of Country as by Law established.

We rejoice to find that your Majesty's most gracious Care for the Peace and Welfare of your People has been so well seconded by the general and decided Opinion of both Houses of Parliament; and we are truly happy in this Opportunity of marking out (by this our humble Address of Thanks to the Throne) our Abhorrence of all these seditious Publications, which have deservedly occasioned your Majesty's present Interference, in Support of that proper Submission to the Laws; in Maintenance of that just Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament; and in Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution of this Kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects.

Considering the Freedom of the Press as the unalienable Right of free Men, and as the principal Support of our Liberties and happy Constitution, we are filled with Indignation at the late audacious and repeated Abuses of that inestimable Privilege.

Convinced as we are of the Value of this Branch of our Freedom, we are the more anxious to preserve it, and to transmit it entire to Posterity; which, we apprehend, can by no Means be so effectually done, as by censuring that Licentiousness, which affords the only plausible Pretence to designing Persons to object against the Privilege itself.

We are confident that upon this Occasion your Majesty will receive not only the Thanks, but the earnest Co-operation of all your loyal Subjects in carrying into Execution every legal Measure tending to secure to us the Possession of that Happiness, which, by the Blessing of God, we now enjoy under your Majesty's Government; and still farther to promote your Majesty's gracious and parental Wishes for the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

Bath, June 5, 1792.

[ Transmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Colville. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and hearty Thanks to your Majesty for your Fatherly Care and Anxiety for the Welfare and true Happiness of this Kingdom, manifested in your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation.

Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under the present happy Form of Government, and firmly attached to the Laws and Constitution of our Country as established at the Glorious Revolution, we view, with Concern and Indignation, the Attempts made to instil a Spirit of Discontent and Jealousy into the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and to disseminate Doctrines subversive of the Peace and good Order of all Civil Society; and we desire to assure your Majesty, that, as far as in us lies, we shall think it our Duty, as good Citizens, to discountenance and bring to Justice all such as, in our Jurisdiction, may be found promulgating unlawful and seditious Writings, or in any Way disturbing that enviable State of Happiness and Tranquillity we now possess under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey in the said City, the 7th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, 1792.

Gloucester, June 7, 1792.

[ Delivered by the Hon. George Berkeley, Representative in Parliament for the County of Gloucester. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Worcester, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled, humbly Address your Majesty on your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation.

In the fullest Conviction that our present excellent Constitution in Church and State is the best that can be framed for the Happiness and Prosperity of the People; that under it we enjoy the Blessings of Liberty, whilst it's Restraints are well calculated to suppress Tumult and Licentiousness, we look with Indignation on those who would introduce Jealousies and Distrust, however, speciously their Attempts may be disguised, or under whatever Pretext they may be brought forward.

We beg Leave to express to your Majesty the sincere and warm Attachment and Gratitude we bear to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and to assure your Majesty that our most strenuous Exertions shall never be wanting to preserve Peace, Order and Regularity, and to maintain a due Obedience to the Laws. Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said City, this 11th Day of June, 1792.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of your City of New Sarum, humbly beg Leave to acknowledge your Majesty's parental Goodness and Vigilance for the Public Peace, in the Measure you have lately taken for the Suppression of such wicked and inflammatory Writings as are calculated to raise and encourage Discontent.

We have the Happiness of seeing the Kingdom in the present Moment at an unexampled Height of Prosperity; and as we have, within a few Years, had Occasion to lament a very different State of Things, (as all human Affairs are subject to the Tide of Fortune) we must, under Providence, ascribe so sudden and so comfortable a Change to the natural Energy of the British Constitution.

We derive no small Degree of Satisfaction from believing that the Enemies of our Public Establishments are very few, and cannot help thinking this is a necessary Consequence of the Extent through which the public Blessings are diffused and felt.

We receive with perfect Confidence and grateful Respect your Majesty's Assurance of using your utmost Endeavours to maintain among your People a just Sense of the Advantages of our Constitution, the Source of legal and well regulated Freedom; and we have no Doubt that these Endeavours will continue to be seconded by your Two Houses of Parliament, as they are by the Zeal and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Dated under our Common Seal, this 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens and Inhabitants of your antient City of York, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's Attention to the Peace, Welfare and Happiness of your People, as expressed in your late Royal Proclamation.

Impressed as we are with a due Sense of the Blessings we enjoy from the Protection and due Execution of the Laws, and from the undisturbed Possession of those Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, which the happy Constitution of our established Government affords us, we deem it our indispensable Duty to assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times use our best Endeavours to discourage and suppress all such wicked and seditious Writings as tend to excite Tumult and Disorder, or to vilify the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

That we hold in the utmost Abhorrence all Attempts which aim at the Subversion of regular Government within this Kingdom, or are inconsistent with the Peace and Order of Society; and that, as far as our Influence can extend, we will, by every Exertion in our Power, second your Majesty in defending, supporting and maintaining the excellent Constitution of our Government, both Civil and Religious, as by Law established.

Signed on the Behalf of the said Citizens and Inhabitants, at their unanimous Request.

Ra. Dodsworth, Mayor, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with all Fidelity and Zeal, to testify our unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to the Constitution of our Country. It has been, with an Indignation becoming the Friends of Civil and Religious Freedom, that we have seen Writings, of a Tendency the most dangerous to the Public Tranquillity, industriously dispersed, with the nefarious Purpose of exciting Tumult and Sedition in the Realm, and this at a Period distinguished in the Annals of Liberty by the fullest Enjoyment of our most valuable Rights and Privileges, and when a flourishing Commerce, an established Credit, an upright Administration of Justice, and an Executive Government possessing the just Confidence of the Nation, conspire to render us the Envy and Admiration of the World.

To the Revolution we look back with Reverence, us to the glorious Æra of Security to our Religion and Laws. Whatever Doctrines or Principles may have been employed to vilify that happy Settlement of our Constitution, and the consequent Succession of the House of Hanover, we pledge ourselves to discourage and repel, in our respective Stations and Capacities, to the utmost of our Power; and as we cannot but deem the Authors, the Publishers, and Abettors of those seditious Libels to be Disturbers and Enemies of the Community, we are bound to acknowledge, with all Thankfulness to your Majesty, your gracious and well-timed Endeavour, by your Royal Proclamation, to restrain their pernicious Effects, as a fresh Instance of your paternal Care for your People.

That the Blessings we enjoy may long be preserved to us under your Majesty's Reign, and transmitted to our Posterity, from one Generation to another, under Princes of your illustrious House, is our fervent, dutiful, and affectionate Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provoost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Royal Borough of Rutherglen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects, the Provoost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Borough of Rutherglen, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, for the Suppression of seditious and wicked Writings, tending to disturb the great Tranquillity and Prosperity at present existing in this Kingdom.

It is with Regret we learn, that such Attempts have been made by some deluded Persons; and we being truly sensible of the happy Constitution of Government established in this Country, whereby the Rights and Liberties, both Civil and Religious, of your Majesty's Subjects are effectually preserved and secured to them, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, repress and discourage the Dangerous and seditious Practices mentioned in said Proclamation; and that, we will readily concur, with our loyal Fellow Subjects, in every measure necessary for maintaining and defending the present established Constitution and Government of this Kingdom, which, we pray may be handed down without Violation to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Name, by Appointment, and in Presence of the said Magistrates and Councillors, by John Spens, present Provoost of the Borough of Rutherglen, this 8th Day of June, 1792 Years.

J. Spens.

[ Transmitted by Thomas Falconer, Town Clerk of that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, being truly sensible of the Happiness we possess under our most invaluable Constitution, established at the Glorious Revolution, from a steady Attachment to which this Country has derived unparalleled Advantages with respect to the Civil and Religious Liberties we enjoy, beg Leave to testify to your Majesty our grateful Sense of your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People. The abundant Wealth and Prosperity which the Divine Providence has been pleased to bestow on this Kingdom are, we presume, strong Proofs that the Laws have been wisely and justly administered, and as wisely submitted to. Amidst these Blessings, which never never prevailed in so eminent a Degree as under your Majesty's auspicious Government, it is much to be lamented that there are at this Time, in different Parts of the Kingdom, many factious and disorderly Persons, who, by their seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, are endeavouring to subvert the Constitution of this Country, and to promote thereby Anarchy and Confusion. We consider all Associations that are held for the Purpose of introducing wild Theories and Speculations, and of interfering with the Constitutional Rights of Parliament, to have a dangerous Tendency, and, as such, that they ought to be suppressed by all your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects.

We therefore most heartily beg Leave to thank your Majesty for the Proclamation you have been pleased to issue: It is evident to all Mankind that it is your Majesty's Wish to promote the Peace, Wealth and Happiness of your Subjects; and it is our most fervent Desire that all those to whom your Majesty's Proclamation is addressed will most zealously attend to your Majesty's Commands, that thereby Peace and Tranquillity may be preserved.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy every Felicity which can be derived from the Love and Confidence of your People, is the most hearty Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[ *Delivered by Thomas Manners Sutton, Esq;
Recorder of that Borough.* ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, return our grateful and sincere Thanks for your Majesty's tender Sollicitude and Affection in issuing your most Royal and gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications and criminal Correspondence within this Kingdom: Measures designed, as artfully as wickedly, to mislead the Understandings of some unsuspecting and well meaning of your Majesty's Subjects to a Disaffection towards our excellent Constitution, under speculative and visionary Pretences; and to excite Commotion in others of desperate, restless, and vicious Dispositions, ever ripe and ready to oppose the wise and salutary Regulations of every Government under which they may live.

Sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care, and regarding our present Establishment in Church and State as the most envied and enviable in the World, we shall, as good Citizens and Subjects, sedulously endeavour to promote the Objects of your Majesty's constitutional and reasonable Mandate, as the firmest Proof of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty and our happy and invaluable System.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey in the said Borough, the 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Fowke, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling, assembled at an annual General Meeting, deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care, with which you watch over every Part of our happy Constitution, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincerest and most hearty Thanks for your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Writings, attempted to be circulated and spread Abroad by designing and wicked Men, at once Enemies to our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, which are happily the Objects of your Majesty's Vigilance and Attention.

Perfectly sensible of the Advantages we enjoy under your auspicious Government, and firmly attached to the Constitution as established at the Revolution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will in every Capacity, public or private, use our utmost Endeavours to render efficacious your Majesty's gracious Intentions, signified in this your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majesty may, by the Blessing of God, long reign over this Nation free and happy, as we now are, and transmit the Constitution inviolate to your latest Posterity, is our most ardent Wish and Prayer.

Signed by our Præses in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Stirling, this 5th Day of June, Seventeen Hundred and Ninety-two Years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others, Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, convened by public Advertisement, and held the 4th Day of June, 1792, at the Exchange in Manchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others, Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, impressed with the most lively Sense of your Majesty's paternal Goodness and constant Regard for the true Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects, more particularly instanced by your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, manifestly tending to promote and maintain the general Order, Happiness and Prosperity of this great and flourishing Country, and also to prevent the evil Effects of Faction and Sedition, which a few misguided Individuals are so industriously spreading abroad, beg Leave most humbly to approach the Throne, to return your Majesty our warmest and most grateful Thanks for this recent Mark of your Majesty's Attention to the general Good of your People; and to assure your Majesty that we will, on this and on every other Occasion, by every lawful Means in our Power, most cheerfully unite our Endeavours to promote so desirable an End as the general Tranquillity of this Kingdom, and the Support of our most glorious Constitution.

With Sentiments strongly and gratefully impressed for the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the auspicious Government of the best of Kings, secured to us us by that happy Constitution, which has ever been the Glory of Englishmen, and the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and earnestly pray that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder,
Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the Guildhall thereof assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of the grateful Emotions with which we have received a fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in the late Proclamation against the wicked and seditious Publications, which have lately been so indulously dispersed throughout this Kingdom.

Amidst the Storms in which surrounding Nations are involved, we are highly sensible of the peculiar Blessings vouchsafed to us by Divine Providence, in the Enjoyment of a Constitution which so amply secures to us our Lives, our Properties, and our Civil and Religious Liberties; a Constitution unparalleled in the History of Mankind, and which the wisest Legislators of other Nations have wished to imitate. Of such an happy Lot we should hold ourselves unworthy the Possession, did we not, with one Mind, resolve to do our Parts to carry your Majesty's Proclamation into Effect; And we assure your Majesty of our firm Reliance on a Continuation of that watchful Sollicitude for our Happiness, and that unremitting Observance of the Laws, so well calculated to insure it, which have seated your Majesty in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, and which will transmit your Name, with Honor, to the latest Posterity, as the Father of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of your County of Linlithgow, deeply impressed with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care of the Peace and Happiness of all your Subjects, and the Laws and Constitution of your Realms, and called upon by your Royal Proclamation, at this Time, when a dangerous Spirit of Innovation is gone abroad, and seditious Writings of evil Tendency are dispersed over the Kingdom, approach your Throne to assure your Majesty of our most cordial Support and hearty Co-operation in the Maintenance of good Order, in preserving the Peace of Society, and in guarding against all Infringement of our glorious Constitution and Establishments Civil and Religious, as ascertained and confirmed to us at the Revolution in 1688, by the Blessing of God, under whose good Providence we by these Means enjoy unexampled Prosperity, Peace and Happiness till then unknown in this Kingdom.

We offer your Majesty our voluntary Tribute of Thanks, we rejoice to see the general Concurrence of all Parties of your Subjects, and we pray that your Majesty may long live to reign happily and gloriously over prosperous, peaceable and happy Nations, and may late transmit the Crown of these Realms to a long Line of Successors, worthy of such Ancestors and such a Crown.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, the 8th Day of June, 1792.

Johnstone Hopetoun, Praeses.

[ Transmitted by Lord Hopetoun. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

S I R E,

YOUR Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Southampton, would think themselves unworthy to partake of the Happiness your Realms enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and under a Constitution which is the Envy of surrounding Nations, if they did not hasten to lay at the Foot of your Throne their humble Thanks for your gracious Proclamation for preventing the Publication of Papers calculated to destroy that Happiness, and to subvert that envied Constitution.

We reverence your Majesty's Wisdom in adding to such a Proof of Watchfulness over the Welfare of your People an Exhortation to a due Exertion of the Laws made for suppressing and punishing all illegal and seditious Practices.

We are happy in saying, that no inflammatory Papers respecting the National Government have yet been circulated here, nor pernicious Doctrines disseminated among us; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Parts which may serve to strengthen the Hands of Government, or tend to defeat the Machinations of Men, who, forgetful of their Religious and Civil Obligations, shall dare to molest the Public Tranquillity, and sow the Seeds of Discord and Disaffection in the Minds of those who are incapable of foreseeing what mischievous Consequences may arise from artful Misrepresentations and fallacious Pretences.

We cannot conclude without lamenting, that, while other Lands are in a State of actual War, or languishing under the dreadful Effects of it, the peculiar Prosperity of these your Majesty's Dominions should be disturbed by the base Artifices and lawless Combinations of Men unworthy to be named among the Millions of loyal Subjects ready to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person, Crown and Dignity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Hartford, in the County of Hartford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of your antient Borough of Hartford, humbly beg Leave to return our most sincere and unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of wicked and seditious Publications, circulating vain and impracticable Theories, which aim at the Subversion of all good Government, verament, and the Destruction of the happy Constitution of this Country, as confirmed to us at the Time of the Glorious Revolution: And we beg Leave to declare our utter Abhorrence of such dangerous Practices; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, as Magistrates and private Men, exert ourselves to preserve good Order, and to enforce due Obedience to the Laws.

And we also beg Leave, upon this Occasion, to testify our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, under which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoy so many and important Blessings; and we humbly pray, that under the Dispensation of Divine Providence, you may long continue to reign over a loyal, free and prosperous People.

By Order of Court,
James Atkinson, Town Clerk.

We observe, with the utmost Concern, that Attempts have been made, by seditious Writings and wild and delusive Theories, tending to weaken in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects their Sentiments of Obedience to the Laws, and Veneration for our happy Constitution, both Civil and Religious, as established at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are truly sensible of the invaluable Blessings we of this Nation enjoy, and that the Continuance of the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of our Country does, under Divine Providence, depend upon a due Submission to the Laws.

With these Sentiments, we think it our Duty to declare, that, sensible of your Majesty's never-ceasing Endeavours to promote and continue the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, you shall ever find us zealous in the Support of the Constitution of these Realms, so deservedly the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations.
