

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16, to Tuesday June 19, 1792.

Whitehall, June 19.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's constant, affectionate and vigilant Care of the happy Constitution of this Kingdom, expressed in your Royal Proclamation.

We are thoroughly sensible of the inestimable Blessings of the British Constitution, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, the Value of which our Ancestors and Ourselves have experienced, and we gratefully acknowledge.

We cannot sufficiently express our dislike of those, who, with malicious Intention, circulate wicked and seditious Libels against the Government of this Country and it's happy Constitution, the great Source of our Felicity.

We humbly trust in your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice for taking the most effectual Means to frustrate the Machinations of such ill-disposed Persons, whether they operate by Cabal at home, or by mischievous Correspondence abroad.

And we assure your Majesty, that, deeply penetrated with the most grateful Sense of the Advantages enjoyed by all your Majesty's Subjects, through all Ranks and Conditions, under our most happy Constitution and your Majesty's truly mild and paternal Government, we will support that Constitution and Government against all rash Attempts which may be made to shake, or any insidious Designs which may be carried on to undermine, those Foundations of the general Safety, Welfare and Happiness of all your People.

And it is with infinite Satisfaction we can assure your Majesty, that we have the fullest Grounds for believing, that your faithful Citizens of Bristol, of all Ranks and Descriptions, cordially unite in these Sentiments, and in a Resolution to support good Order, and the Peace of Society.

[Delivered by the Members of the City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, present our grateful Sense of your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Security of the British Constitution, from the insidious Attempts of seditious Delusion.

Conscious of the distinguished Blessings which flow from a System of Government unrivalled in it's Excellence, we cease not to applaud the Wisdom of those recent Measures, which protect the Public Tranquillity, and avert the Evils of destructive Faction.

In Assurance of our most vigorous Exertions to vindicate the present happy Establishment, vouchsafe to admit the Sincerity of our Wishes, that your Majesty may long abide the zealous Guardian of our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, ever meeting the Affections of a loyal People, in the Republic of Peace and the Strength of Union.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, together with the Inhabitants of your antient and loyal City of Chester, fully sensible of the Excellency of our present Constitution, Civil and Religious, and of the Blessings thence derived to us, and to the whole Kingdom, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, beg Leave to testify our Abhorrence of all those wild and seditious Doctrines, tending to the Subversion of our happy Constitution, of all regular Submission to established Laws, and to the Destruction of the Peace and Happiness of Society, which have occasioned your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation :

We are thankful to your Majesty for this Instance of your Care and Attention to the Public Peace and Tranquillity, and with Sentiments of unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, we beg Leave to offer our best Assistance, and with all Humility to assure your Majesty that it is our ardent Wish to co-operate with you, in a Measure so evidently calculated to ensure the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield, conscious of the various Blessings we derive from the excellent Form of Government under which we live, and of your Majesty's paternal Attention to whatever may promote the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our warm Attachment to your Person and Family, and of our Gratitude for the wise Measures pointed out, in your late Royal Proclamation, to discover those insidious Violators of the Laws, who, under Pretence of being the Friends of Liberty, have run into the Extreme of Licentiousness, by disseminating Opinions, calculated to excite them to subvert a Constitution, which has long and deservedly been the Pride of this Kingdom, and the Admiration of other States : And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of every Exertion in our Power to discountenance and discourage such dangerous Opinions, and to suppress every Attempt to disturb the Public Tranquillity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg Leave humbly to address your Majesty, to express our sincere Acknowledgments of your Majesty's Goodness in issuing your Royal Proclamation for suppressing certain seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, so dangerous to the Peace and Happiness of your loyal Subjects, tending to subvert the good Government of the Kingdom, and, in the End, to endanger our invaluable Constitution.

Possessing Sentiments of Loyalty for our most gracious Sovereign, and enjoying the many Privileges which we do, under the happy Constitution of this Country, we are disposed, in common with your Majesty's good Subjects, to discourage every Measure that may tend to deprive us of the inestimable Blessings we at present enjoy.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People is the ardent Wish of us your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

[Transmitted by Henry Blundell, Esq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Thanks to your Majesty, for the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative upon the present alarming Occasion.

We behold, with the utmost Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects from the present happy Constitution ;

And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Exertions on our Part shall be wanting to preserve the Constitution of this Country, as by Law established, in Church and State, or to support the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown of Great Britain.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Lancaster, this 5th of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty those sincere and grateful Acknowledgements which are due from all dutiful and loyal Subjects for the late Instance of your Majesty's parental Regard, manifested by your Royal and gracious Proclamation for repressing all seditious Meetings and Publications.

Happy in the Enjoyment of a free and envied Constitution, which your Majesty's Royal House was called to the Throne of these Kingdoms to protect, and truly sensible of your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve that Constitution inviolate, we have viewed with Abhorrence the Acts and Proceedings of licentious and daring Men, militating as well against the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, as against those constitutional Liberties of your Subjects, Religious and Civil, which they insidiously profess to regard.

Situated in a County peculiarly distinguished for its Commerce and Manufactures, we have also lately seen, with a real Concern, Endeavours to disseminate among all Ranks of Men speculative and alarming Opinions and Doctrines, destructive of every Principle of Industry, subversive of the Peace and Order of Society, and of the Welfare and Happiness of the Individual.

We most humbly assure your Majesty, that no Exertions of ours shall be wanting to give Effect to your your Royal Proclamation, and to secure that Peace and Tranquillity with which we are so eminently blessed under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough the 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

T. Greaves, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Minds amply convinced of the superior Excellence of our Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution, and with Hearts deeply impressed with a Sense of the unexampled Blessings which we now enjoy, we humbly beg Leave to express our unfeigned Gratitude for that Token of your Majesty's Regard for your faithful and dutiful Subjects, so recently displayed in your Royal Proclamation for the Preservation of the public Peace and Tranquillity,

When we reflect on the extreme Disorders and Confusion lately introduced into a neighbouring Kingdom by the Machinations of factious and ambitious Men, and view the Operation of similar Means and Instruments to disturb the good Order and Tranquillity of these Realms, we should be undeserving of our own Happiness, and appear insensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, if we refused our grateful Tribute on the present Occasion.

Regarding the Press as an useful Vehicle of Amusement and Information, we cannot without Indignation see it perverted to the malignant Purposes of misleading and infecting the Public Mind, and filling it with groundless Fears and Jealousies of your Majesty's Administration, which has uniformly had for it's Object the due Execution of the Laws, and the Security, Happiness, and Prosperity of the Nation.

Under the Impression of these Sentiments, we earnestly beseech the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to grant such Aid and Support to your Majesty's Counsels as will defeat the wicked Designs of the Enemies to your Majesty's Government, and secure to your loyal Subjects a long, a very long, Continuance of all their Civil and Religious Rights.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Warrington, in the County of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Permission to approach your Majesty with our grateful Thanks for the paternal Vigilance and Goodness your Majesty has been pleased to manifest to your People, by your Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

Happy in your Majesty's just and mild Administration of Government, and conscious of the full Enjoyment of those Rights and Liberties which were secured to the Subjects of this Realm by the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the glorious Revolution, and which have been strengthened and confirmed by subsequent Laws, we shall, with Pleasure, unite with the rest of your loyal and faithful Subjects in Support of your Majesty's gracious Endeavours to continue and preserve our most excellent Constitution inviolate and unimpaired.

Zealously attached to that Constitution, the Admiration and Envy of all Europe, we behold, with Grief and Indignation; that venerable Fabrick attacked by wicked and designing Men; and not only Principles subversive of all Law and Order openly avowed and industriously disseminated in this Country; but insidious Attempts made to overturn and destroy that goodly Building, under the specious, but false Pretence of Renovation and Improvement.

We, therefore, humbly intreat your Majesty to believe, that in Duty to your Majesty, to ourselves; and our Posterity, we will, to the utmost of our Power, discountenance and discourage all seditious Writings and Speeches tending to excite Tumult and Disorder; and all criminal Correspondences for effecting the like wicked Purpose, and by all lawful Means resist every open and insidious Attempt tending to overturn or endanger the happy Constitution of our Country, as by Law established.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Person with Sentiments of the warmest Gratitude and Affection for the provident Wisdom and paternal Care manifested by your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, issued at a Time when the seditious Writings of some, aided by the secret Machinations and criminal Correspondences of others; Men, avowing Disaffection to our excellent Constitution, threaten the Subversion of all Order, and the Destruction of those invaluable Privileges, which have justly rendered these Kingdoms the Envy and Admiration of the World.

When we reflect on the Success of our Manufactures, the decided Superiority of our Commerce over that of other Nations; the uncontroled Enjoyment of our Property, and the free Exercise of Civil and Religious Liberty, Blessings secured to us by your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot help expressing our Surprise and Indignation, that there should be found in your Majesty's Dominions a Subject so insensible to the Blessings he enjoys, as to be capable of uttering a Murmur of Discontent, or a Wish for any Innovation, so particularly dangerous at the present Period.

That your Majesty may long live the Father of your People, and the illustrious Guardian of those wholesome Provisions established at the Revolution; and that your People may ever be sensible of, and grateful for the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, are the sincere and hearty Wishes of your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to express our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgements for the additional Proof we have received of your Care and and Attention to the Safety and Happiness of your Subjects, in your late Royal Proclamation for suppressing wicked and seditious Writings and criminal Correspondences, so destructive of all Order and Civil Subordination.

Firmly and zealously attached to the genuine Constitution of this Country, as founded on the Glorious Revolution, and protected and strengthened by your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors, we assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to use our utmost Endeavours to maintain the due Execution of the Laws, and to preserve the present happy Establishment in Church and State, by restraining all Proceedings that may tend to promote Riot and Tumult, and discouraging every unnecessary and unseasonable Attempt at Innovation, and dangerous and speculative Schemes of Improvement.

Signed by Order of Court,
Edward Codd, Town Clerk.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere and hearty Thanks for the Wisdom and paternal Care evinced by your Majesty in issuing your Royal Proclamation.

We cannot sufficiently testify our Abhorrence of the many dangerous and libellous Publications that have been industriously disseminated throughout the Kingdom, calculated to kindle the Flame of Sedition in the Minds of your Majesty's loving Subjects, and endeavouring to dissolve the sacred Tie subsisting between our King and his People. At the same Time we beg Leave to express our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and August Family, and to assure your Majesty, that we shall not be wanting in our Exertions for the Suppression of all seditious Publications and unlawful Assemblies; and we pledge ourselves to aid the Executive Power in the Maintenance of our most excellent Constitution, as by Law established.

Given under our Hands, at Stafford aforesaid, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, and it's Environs, in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to express our Gratitude for your Majesty's most seasonable Interposition, by your late Royal Proclamation, to check those seditious Publications, which evil-minded Persons have disseminated amongst us, in order to disturb our Minds, and render us disaffected to our happy Constitution. And as a further Testimony of our Gratitude and Affection, we beg Leave to express our Satisfaction in the present Establishment both of Church and State; to declare our Abhorrence of every Measure tending to interrupt the Peace, Harmony and Prosperity of your Majesty's Government; and to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to promote, to the utmost of our Power, the Objects of your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, and enjoy every Blessing, both public and private, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Impressed with a just Sense of the Wisdom and Benevolence that have influenced your Majesty to issue your Royal Proclamation against those wicked and seditious Writings, which have of late been printed, and with a malevolent Industry dispersed throughout your Majesty's Dominions, with Intent to create unfounded Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, we, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ipswich aforesaid, humbly beg your Majesty to accept our most grateful Thanks for this fresh Proof of your constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

We trust the good Sense of your Majesty's Subjects will ever clearly distinguish between the Happiness they so eminently possess, under Favor of Divine Providence, in the rational Liberty of that System of Government, which has been established by our glorious and happy Constitution, and the certain Misery attendant on that Anarchy and Confusion, which are the baneful Effects of such speculative and impracticable Theory.

We who know that the Dignity of the Crown, and a Reverence for the Laws, so well calculated to maintain our invaluable Liberties, are the true Source of the Happiness of the Sovereign and of his People, beg to assure your Majesty that we will diligently attend to the Commands of your Royal Proclamation, and that your Majesty shall ever find your dutiful and loyal Subjects of your ancient Borough of Ipswich ready, with their Fortunes and best Strength, to unite with your Majesty's Endeavours to repel the wicked Attempts of all whose Aim is to subvert our most excellent Constitution, the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations.

We shall earnestly offer up our Prayers that your Majesty may long reign in Peace, to the Comfort and Prosperity of a free, happy, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this 7th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled, presume to address your Majesty on your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation.

Under the fullest Conviction that the Blessings of our present happy Constitution, in Church and State, cannot be preserved without a due Submission to the Laws; and a strict Attention to Order and Regularity, we look with Indignation and Contempt on all Endeavours to substitute Disquiet and Jealousies for the true Spirit of Liberty, and to depreciate the

Excellence

Excellence of our Constitution and Government; and we regard, with Gratitude and Respect, this additional Proof of your Majesty's Attention to the Happiness of your Majesty's People. Impressed with these Sentiments, and professing the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Governmen, we pray, that, in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, we may long enjoy the Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity under the Guidance of your Majesty's Councils.

Given under our Common Seal, this 7th Day of June, 1792.

Jos. Neal, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Chesterfield, in the County of Derby, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave humbly to offer our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your Majesty's Attention and affectionate Regard shewn to the Public Welfare by your Royal Proclamation; and at the same Time to express our stedfast Attachment to your Majesty, our Zeal for the Constitution of this Kingdom, and our Hopes that no delusive or impracticable Theories will prevent a Continuance of that Happiness which we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

By Order,

Robert Waller, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Alban.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the Town Hall of the said Borough assembled, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the recent Mark of your Majesty's Attention and Regard, shewn to us and the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, by your Royal Proclamation for suppressing all those seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, which have lately gone forth, evidently tending to sow Discontent in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and endanger the Constitution of this Kingdom.

We value and respect our excellent Constitution, as at this Time established, and that Sort of Government which is so well calculated to perpetuate the internal Peace and Prosperity of the Community; and enjoying, as we do, the greatest Happiness and Security under your Majesty's Government, we will, upon all Occasions, unite with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue those Blessings, by preserving the Constitution from the Dangers of hazardous Experiments.

We beg your Majesty will accept our warmest Wishes, that your Majesty may long enjoy every Blessing which domestic Happiness can confer; and that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may continue to cherish the Blessings of Peace at Home, and to procure Dignity and Respect Abroad.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiff, Burgesses, Clergy and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiff, Burgesses, Clergy and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our most grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation for suppressing all seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

We beg Leave, from our Hearts, to assure your Majesty, that our utmost Endeavours shall be exerted in supporting that Constitution under which we at present enjoy such incomparable Blessings.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Justice, Masters and Counsellors, Burgesses and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon, impelled by Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Person and Family, and the most inviolable Attachment to the present Government and Constitution of this Country, think it our Duty to return your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, for counteracting the Effects of seditious Publications dispersed throughout this Kingdom, and criminal and wicked Correspondences with Foreign Countries.

We consider such Measures to have a direct Tendency to withdraw from the Minds of the People a proper Sense of Obedience to the Law, and of Attachment to the Civil and Religious Government of this Country: And we therefore think it our Duty, not only to testify our utter Abhorrence of such seditious Practices, but thus publicly to declare, that we will give every Support to that Constitution and Government from which we enjoy such peculiar Blessings and Advantages: But at the same Time we beg to assure your Majesty, that Peace and Tranquillity, and a due Subordination to the Laws, universally prevail in this Part of your Majesty's Dominions; and as we have hitherto had no Cause to suspect any Attempts of secret Malignancy, so we hope that neither the Fears or Suspicions of it will disturb the Happiness of the Timid, or instigate those badly disposed to form Schemes inimical to our present Quiet and Repose.

Given under our Hands, in the Guildhall of the said Borough, this 13th Day of June, 1792.

[Delivered by Mr. Adams, one of the Aldermen of the said Borough.]

To His Most Sacred Majesty GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Peace Officers and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Ailesbury, in the County of Buckingham, ever sensible of your Majesty's paternal Solitude for the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Royal Presence with the liveliest Sentiments of

Gratitude

Gratitude for your Majesty's late solemn and seasonable Proclamation, for the Suppression of Sedition and Heresy, and to assure your Majesty, that in our several Vocations every dutiful Exertion shall be made to discover and punish all such as shall fail in their Allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and more especially those who, enjoying the genial Influence of our happy Establishment, shall dare to alienate your Subjects from their Duty, by the speaking or publishing Doctrines insinuating or inculcating Dissatisfaction or Distrust at the Measures of your Majesty's Council, or the Wisdom and Prudence of your Parliament.

Truly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we rejoice in every Opportunity in which we can testify our Zeal for your Royal Person and Family, by a Renewal of that Fidelity and Attachment, for which this your ancient Borough is so anxious, and so proud to be distinguished.

That your Majesty may long live to experience our Loyalty and Attachment is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Peace Officers and Inhabitants of the said Borough, assembled in the Shire Hall there, (pursuant to public Notice) this 6th Day of June, 1792.

Thomas Lloyd, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Ayr, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest Gratitude for that wise, paternal and Constitutional Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, manifested in your Proclamation for suppressing seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

Firmly attached to the Constitution of these Kingdoms, as established by the Glorious Revolution, we have observed, with Horror and Indignation, those wicked Attempts of abandoned and designing Men, who, by holding out delusive and impracticable Theories of Reform from imaginary Grievances, are endeavouring to mislead the unwary and betray the innocent into Measures subversive of all Order and good Government. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, endeavour to discover the Authors and Printers of such Writings, and to suppress all Riots, Tumults and Disorders which may be attempted within our Limits; and that we will at all Times be ready to defend, with our Lives and Properties, the happy Constitution of Government, Civil and Religious, which we at present enjoy.

Permit us at the same Time to felicitate your Majesty on those recent and unequivocal Testimonies, which your Royal Proclamation has drawn forth, to the Purity of your Majesty's Intentions, and the unimpaired Excellence of our admirable Constitution, which, however Men's Sentiments may vary in the Discussion of Political Topics of less Moment, have, on the present interesting Occaſion, commanded the Approbation of the Great and Good of all Parties,

May your Majesty long reign, undisturbed, over a free, happy and loyal People, and may the Sceptre of these Kingdoms be swayed by the Members of your Illustrious House to the latest Ages.

Signed in our Presence, by our Appointment,

John Murdoch, Provost.

Ayr, June 11, 1792.

[Transmitted by John Murdoch, Esq; Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, desire Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Gratitude for your Majesty's late seasonable Proclamation for suppressing seditious Writings.

The Excellency of our valuable and well-poised Constitution shews itself at the present Moment in the most engaging and venerable Light: While other Countries are involved in Distress and Confusion, we possess Opulence, Freedom and Peace.

We should, therefore, be greatly wanting to ourselves, did we hesitate, in our present happy Circumstances firmly to disapprove of all Attempts to tamper with a System under which we enjoy so great a Portion of Good.

For this weighty Reason we cordially unite with others of your Majesty's Subjects in professing our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and to that salutary Form of Government which is now established in this Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters or Counsellors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, in the Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Masters or Counsellors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Totnes, beg Leave to express our most humble and grateful Acknowledgements of your Majesty's kind and paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, manifested by your late Royal Proclamation for preventing and suppressing seditious and inflammatory Publications.

Deeply sensible as we are that real Liberty can only exist under the Protection of Law, and the Authority of regular Government, and that every Act or Endeavour of Individuals or Societies of Men, which tends to disseminate Discord or Disaffection among your Majesty's Subjects, deserves our strongest Censure and Disapprobation; and, convinced of the various Evils and Calamities which must ever attend a divided and distracted Nation, we consider it our most indispensable Duty to unite in supporting, to the utmost of our Power, our present happy Constitution, and in preserving and perpetuating the many great and invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Long may your Majesty reign over a happy and united People, blest with an uninterrupted Continuance of Peace and Prosperity; a People who love and esteem your Majesty, as much as they respect and revere your publick Virtues as a King.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, in Common Council assembled, most humbly intreat your Majesty to receive our unfeigned Thanks, as a due Sense of our Gratitude for the Wisdom and Goodness evinc'd by your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those delusive Theories and criminal Correspondences, whether by unconstitutional Associations or Individuals, which are inconsistent with the Duties of all Civil Societies.

We, your faithful Subjects, conceive it, under the present Circumstances, the indispenfable Duty of all good Subjects to discourage and subvert every Attempt to sap the excellent Form of our Government, which we and the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects enjoy with so much National Happiness and Prosperity under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

Impressed with these Sentiments, and your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Felicity of your People, we duly consider the inestimable Value of those Blessings, and think it incumbent on us to unite, to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination to support your Majesty's Endeavours for preserving our unequalled Constitution from every Danger.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Town and County, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

John Lester, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of your Town of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, founded on the Constitution formed at the Glorious Revolution, and strengthening and confirming that happy Establishment, most humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation for suppressing all libelous and editious Writings and criminal Correspondences, so contrary to Order and good Government.

We feel ourselves happy in the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights, and are unwilling to hazard the Loss of these valuable Blessings, by indulging a vain Hope of Advantages by speculative Improvements of a Constitution, which already affords us all the real and solid Good that was ever derived from any human Institution.

Permit us, therefore, to assure your Majesty of our best Endeavours to repress all Proceedings that may have a Tendency to promote Tumult or Riot, or any Disorder endangering the Peace or Prosperity of your Majesty's Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, this 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

Tho. Clabley, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Justices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Haddington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Justices of the Peace and Freeholders of the County of Haddington, have taken under our serious Consideration your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, warning your People against the baneful Influence of certain wicked and seditious Writings now in Circulation through this Kingdom, and against a Correspondence with Foreign Parts, which has for its Object to unhinge and destroy the Principles of our Constitution; And while we, with one Voice, concur in gratefully thanking your Majesty for this Mark of your paternal and anxious Care for the Good of your People, we see, with Indignation and deep Regret, that any of our Fellow Citizens should be so lost to every Sense of the Duty they owe to God and to their Country, as to attempt to stir up Riot and Sedition in the Land by such pernicious Practices.

We trust, however, they are few in Number, and, firmly attached as we are to the Principles of our happy Constitutional Government, as established at the Revolution, and confirmed by the Act of Settlement upon your illustrious House, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, to the utmost of our Power, we shall endeavour, as Magistrates, by our Precept and as Individuals by our Examples, to teach our Fellow Citizens, that the only Way to preserve the Happiness of the Whole is for every Man, in his Station, to reverence and obey the Laws, by which alone we exist a free and a happy People.

Signed, by Appointment of the Meeting, at Haddington, this 11th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Fweeddale, Praeses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Fife.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Fife, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our humble and hearty Thanks for the Proclamation, which your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, has lately issued, for preventing the Circulation of wicked and seditious Writings.

Impressed with a deep Sense of the Excellence of our happy Constitution, and of the Security which it confers upon all Orders of Men, we have beheld with Indignation the Attempts which have been made to raise groundless Discontents in the Minds of your loyal Subjects; and we beg Leave, with one

one Heart and one Voice, to assure your Majesty that, in our respective Stations and Situations, we shall endeavour, to the utmost of our Power, to promote the important Objects of your Majesty's gracious Proclamation, by exerting all our Influence in Opposition to every Measure, which may be calculated to disturb the Tranquillity and Happiness of the Nation.

We offer our earnest and fervent Prayers, that it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life; that there never may be wanting a Prince of your illustrious House, to watch with the same unremitting Care over the British Constitution: And that the same Blessings which we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government may in every succeeding Age descend to our Posterity.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Craufurd, Praeses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to testify our warm and grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal and constant Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and for the recent Instance of it, which has been given by issuing your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Publications, which have been of late so industriously circulated, and which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We also beg Leave to express our highest Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom, as established by the Glorious Revolution, and are truly sensible of the many Advantages which, under the Government of your Majesty and your Illustrious Ancestors, have been derived from legal and well-regulated Freedom: And we deem it, under the present Circumstances, the peculiar Duty of every good and loyal Subject to discourage and counteract every Attempt against Public Order and Tranquillity.

Whitehall, June 19.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, has been presented to the King by Mr. Burton, the Recorder of that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with a Tender of our unfeigned and most grateful Thanks for your Majesty's most salutary and seasonable Proclamation, being a recent and incontestable Proof, added to the many others, of your Majesty's anxious and unwearied Solitude for the Happiness, Peace and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Subjects.

We cannot but view with a Concern, mixed with Abhorrence, the Propagation of Principles and Opinions subversive of all Order, Subordination and good Government, especially as, through the Protection of Divine Providence, we are in the actual and experimental Enjoyment of every Blessing that can result from a free and well-regulated Constitution, and under which we have attained a Degree of Prosperity unequalled by any other Nation, as well as unexampled at any antecedent Period of British History.

Impressed with these Sentiments, Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Family, of Veneration and Attachment to the established Government in Church and State, we feel it our bounden Duty to co-operate, as far as in us lies, with your Majesty's gracious Views, manifested in the late Proclamation, by guarding against and counteracting all Attempts to mislead and unsettle the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and so to shake their Confidence in the existing Government, and to substitute visionary Theories in the Room of our present glorious and unparalleled Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, the 11th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.
