

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 16, to Tuesday June 19, 1792.

Whitehall, June 19.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's constant, affectionate and vigilant Care of the happy Constitution of this Kingdom, expressed in your Royal Proclamation.

We are thoroughly sensible of the inestimable Blessings of the British Constitution, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, the Value of which our Ancestors and Ourselves have experienced, and we gratefully acknowledge.

We cannot sufficiently express our dislike of those, who, with malicious Intention, circulate wicked and seditious Libels against the Government of this Country and it's happy Constitution, the great Source of our Felicity.

We humbly trust in your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice for taking the most effectual Means to frustrate the Machinations of such ill-disposed Persons, whether they operate by Cabal at home, or by mischievous Correspondence abroad.

And we assure your Majesty, that, deeply penetrated with the most grateful Sense of the Advantages enjoyed by all your Majesty's Subjects, through all Ranks and Conditions, under our most happy Constitution and your Majesty's truly mild and paternal Government, we will support that Constitution and Government against all rash Attempts which may be made to shake, or any insidious Designs which may be carried on to undermine, those Foundations of the general Safety, Welfare and Happiness of all your People.

And it is with infinite Satisfaction we can assure your Majesty, that we have the fullest Grounds for believing, that your faithful Citizens of Bristol, of all Ranks and Descriptions, cordially unite in these Sentiments, and in a Resolution to support good Order, and the Peace of Society.

[Delivered by the Members of the City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, present our grateful Sense of your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Security of the British Constitution, from the insidious Attempts of seditious Delusion.

Conscious of the distinguished Blessings which flow from a System of Government unrivalled in it's Excellence, we cease not to applaud the Wisdom of those recent Measures, which protect the Public Tranquillity, and avert the Evils of destructive Faction.

In Assurance of our most vigorous Exertions to vindicate the present happy Establishment, vouchsafe to admit the Sincerity of our Wishes, that your Majesty may long abide the zealous Guardian of our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, ever meeting the Affections of a loyal People, in the Repose of Peace and the Strength of Union.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

