

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, together with the Inhabitants of your antient and loyal City of Chester, fully sensible of the Excellency of our present Constitution, Civil and Religious, and of the Blessings thence derived to us, and to the whole Kingdom, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, beg Leave to testify our Abhorrence of all those wild and seditious Doctrines, tending to the Subversion of our happy Constitution, of all regular Submission to established Laws, and to the Destruction of the Peace and Happiness of Society, which have occasioned your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation :

We are thankful to your Majesty for this Instance of your Care and Attention to the Public Peace and Tranquillity, and with Sentiments of unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, we beg Leave to offer our best Assistance, and with all Humility to assure your Majesty that it is our ardent Wish to co-operate with you, in a Measure so evidently calculated to ensure the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield, conscious of the various Blessings we derive from the excellent Form of Government under which we live, and of your Majesty's paternal Attention to whatever may promote the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our warm Attachment to your Person and Family, and of our Gratitude for the wise Measures pointed out, in your late Royal Proclamation, to discover those insidious Violators of the Laws, who, under Pretence of being the Friends of Liberty, have run into the Extreme of Licentiousness, by disseminating Opinions, calculated to excite them to subvert a Constitution, which has long and deservedly been the Pride of this Kingdom, and the Admiration of other States : And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of every Exertion in our Power to discountenance and discourage such dangerous Opinions, and to suppress every Attempt to disturb the Public Tranquillity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg Leave humbly to address your Majesty, to express our sincere Acknowledgments of your Majesty's Goodness in issuing your Royal Proclamation for suppressing certain seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, so dangerous to the Peace and Happiness of your loyal Subjects, tending to subvert the good Government of the Kingdom, and, in the End, to endanger our invaluable Constitution.

Possessing Sentiments of Loyalty for our most gracious Sovereign, and enjoying the many Privileges which we do, under the happy Constitution of this Country, we are disposed, in common with your Majesty's good Subjects, to discourage every Measure that may tend to deprive us of the inestimable Blessings we at present enjoy.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People is the ardent Wish of us your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

[Transmitted by Henry Blundell, Esq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Common Council of the Borough of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Thanks to your Majesty, for the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative upon the present alarming Occasion.

We behold, with the utmost Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects from the present happy Constitution ;

And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Exertions on our Part shall be wanting to preserve the Constitution of this Country, as by Law established, in Church and State, or to support the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown of Great Britain.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Lancaster, this 5th of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty those sincere and grateful Acknowledgements which are due from all dutiful and loyal Subjects for the late Instance of your Majesty's parental Regard, manifested by your Royal and gracious Proclamation for repressing all seditious Meetings and Publications.

Happy in the Enjoyment of a free and envied Constitution, which your Majesty's Royal House was called to the Throne of these Kingdoms to protect, and truly sensible of your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve that Constitution inviolate, we have viewed with Abhorrence the Acts and Proceedings of licentious and daring Men, militating as well against the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, as against those constitutional Liberties of your Subjects, Religious and Civil, which they insidiously profess to regard.

Situated in a County peculiarly distinguished for its Commerce and Manufactures, we have also lately seen, with a real Concern, Endeavours to disseminate among all Ranks of Men speculative and alarming Opinions and Doctrines, destructive of every Principle of Industry, subversive of the Peace and Order of Society, and of the Welfare and Happiness of the Individual.

We most humbly assure your Majesty, that no Exertions of ours shall be wanting to give Effect to your
