By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS divers wicked and seditious Writings have been printed, published, and industriously dispersed, tending to excite Tumult and Disorder, by endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of Our faithful and loving Subjects, respecting the Laws and happy Constitution of Government, Civil and Religious, established in this Kingdom; and endeavouring to vilify and bring into Contempt the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and since strengthened and confirmed by subsequent Laws for the Preservation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas divers Writings have also been printed, published and industriously dispersed, recommending the said wicked and seditious Publications to the Attention of all Our faithful and loving Subjects: And whereas we have also Reason to believe that Correspondences have been entered into with sundry Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to forward the criminal and wicked Purposes above mentioned. And whereas the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a due Submission to the Laws;

a just Confidence in the Integrity and Wisdom of Parliament, and a Continuance of that zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution of the Kingdom, which has ever prevailed in the Minds of the People thereof: And whereas there is nothing which We so earnestly desire as to secure the Publick Peace and Prosperity, and to preserve to all Our loving Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Religious and Civil: We, therefore, being resolved, as far as in Us lies, to repress the wicked and seditious Practices aforesaid, and to deter all Persons from following so pernicious an Example, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; solemnly warning all Our loving Subjects, as they tender their own Happiness, and that of their Posterity, to guard against all such Attempts; which aim at the Subversion of all regular Government within this Kingdom, and which are inconsistent with the Peace and Order of Society; and earnestly exhorting them at all Times, and to the utmost of their Power, to avoid and discourage all Proceedings; tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and We do strictly charge and command all Our Magistrates in and throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do make diligent Enquiry, in order to discover the Authors and Printers of such wicked and seditious Writings as aforesaid, and all others who shall disperse the same: And We do further charge and command all Our Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, chief Magistrates in Our Cities, Boroughs and Corporations, and all other Our Officers and Magistrates throughout Our Kingdom of Great Britain, that they do, in their several and respective Stations, take the most immediate and effectual Care to suppress and prevent all Riots, Tumults and other Disorders, which may be attempted to be raised or made by any Person or Persons, which, on whatever Pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to Law, but dangerous to the most important Interests of this Kingdom: And We do further require and command all and every Our Magistrates aforesaid, that they do, from Time to Time, transmit to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, due and full Information of such Persons as shall be found offending as aforesaid, or in any Degree aiding or abetting therein; it being Our Determination, for the Preservation of the Peace and Happiness of Our faithful and loving Subjects, to carry the Laws vigorously into Execution against such Offenders as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's House, the Twenty-first Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, has been presented to the King by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, deeply impressed with the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to express the Sense which we, in common with the other Inhabitants of this County, entertain of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Discouragement of those wicked and seditious Publications which have of late been industriously spread abroad, and which, by attempting to calumniate and vilify the Constitution, and to raise groundless jealousies and Discontent among your Subjects, evidently tend to excite Tumult and Disorder.

Sensible as we are of the Blessings we possess from our justly admired Constitution, we look with Indignation at all such Attempts as aim at its Subversion, and are inconsistent with the Peace and good Order of Society.

Animated by these Sentiments, we consider it as our Duty, upon this Occasion, to express our Loyalty to your Majesty, your Family and Government, and our zealous Attachment to the Constitution; and to assure you, that our best Endeavours shall be exerted to preserve Public Peace and Tranquillity, and to defeat all wicked Attempts to disturb your Majesty's Government.

Dumfries, June 13, 1792.

[Transmitted by Sir William Maxwell, Bart. Preses.]

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department: Which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, now assembled, take the first Opportunity of presenting our sincere Thanks and Acknowledgements to your Royal Highness for your distinguished and truly patriotic Appearance in Parliament, in Support of the Constitution, upon a late important Occasion, when the Discouragement of seditious Publications, tending to disturb or depreciate our happy Constitution, was the Subject of Deliberation, and when your Royal Highness, in a Manner truly becoming your exalted Station, expressed your Sense of such Publications in Terms that must endear you to all true Lovers of their Country.

That your Royal Highness may long live, an Example of public and private Virtue to all His Majesty's Subjects, is our sincere and ardent Wish and Prayer.

Dumfries, June 13, 1792.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum has been presented to the King by the Mayor of that City, attended by the Earl of Radnor, Recorder, and the Hon. W. H. Bouverie and William Hussey, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of your City of New Sarum, humbly beg Leave to acknowledge your Majesty's parental Goodness and Vigilance for the Public Peace, in the Measure you have lately taken for the Suppression of such wicked and inflammatory Writings as are calculated to raise and encourage Discontent.

We have the Happiness of seeing the Kingdom in the present Moment at an unexampled Height of Prosperity; and as we have, within a few Years, had had Occasion to lament a very different State of Things, (as all human Affairs are subject to the Tide of Fortune) we must, under Providence, ascribe to sudden and so comfortable a Change to the natural Energy of the British Constitution.

We derive no small Degree of Satisfaction from believing that the Enemies of our Public Establishments are very few, and cannot help thinking this is a necessary Consequence of the Extent through which the Public Blessings are diffused and felt.

We receive, with perfect Confidence and grateful Respect, your Majesty's Assurance of using your utmost Endeavours to maintain among your People a just Sense of the Advantages of our Constitution, the Source of legal and well-regulated Freedom; and we have no Doubt that these Endeavours will continue to be seconded by your Two Houses of Parliament, as they are by the Zeal and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Dated under our Common Seal, this 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with our most ardent Declarations of Loyalty and Attachment, to return our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Attention to the Preservation and Security of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, to express our deep Conviction of the many invaluable Blessings which we have long enjoyed under the Excellence of our Constitution, more immediately secured to us by the peculiar Mildness of your Majesty's parental Government.

We shall constantly view with Abhorrence, and oppose by all the Means within our Power, every Measure which may carry with it the slightest Tendency to shake the Attachment of Subjects, who, considering your Majesty as the beloved Sovereign of a free People, are resolved, by their Example, to cherish and encourage the general Spirit and Determination so manifest throughout the Country, not only to act with the most unshaken Zeal, but heartily to concur in every constitutional Measure, of which the Circumstances of the Times may demand the Execution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, unanimously and humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our Thanks for the Royal Proclamation you have been pleased to issue for suppressing seditious Publications and Criminal Correspondences. The Effects of which Proclamation will, we hope, continue to us the Blessings of internal Peace and a settled Government, and will effectually check the Endeavours and Designs of concealed Traitors, of seditious Clubs, and of the Preachers of Sedition, in these Times of unexampled Prosperity, in these Times of happy Peace, when our National Debt is rapidly decreasing, and our Taxes are reducing. We are full of Hope your Majesty's Proclamation will protect our rational Liberty, and will cherish the prudent and peaceful Dispositions of your honest Subjects, and will repel the Growth of Treason, and punish the insolent Spirits of unprincipled and levelling Adventurers.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere Gratitude to your Majesty for your late gracious Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Publications, and for preventing any Attempt to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

In this Measure we trace at once the constitutional Principles of the House of Brunswick, and the paternal Care of the Father of his People.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; that we will support your Majesty in your Endeavours to preserve to this Nation its Rights and Constitution as established and confirmed at the Revolution; and that in our respective Stations we will exert ourselves with Zeal and Firmness to counteract the Attempts of those who, by some late seditious Publications, have endeavoured to render dissatisfied with their Constitution a People, who under that Constitution, as guarded by your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors, have domestic Happiness, and have risen to a Degree of Glory and Prosperity unexampled among the cotemporary Nations of Europe.

We rejoice, however, in the Belief, that these seditious Attempts have been confined but to a few; and that the great Body of our Fellow-Subjects, of all Ranks and Descriptions, feel universally the Blessings of that Government under which they have the Happiness to live, and an ardent Desire to transmit the same unimpaired to their Posterity.

Under the strong Impression of these Sentiments it is with peculiar Pleasure we observe, from that illustrious Person who, as the first Subject in these Kingdoms, claims the Affection of every Friend to his Country, that we may look for the same Regard and Veneration for its Constitution from every Member of your Majesty's illustrious House.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment, of the Meeting at Edinburgh, the 13th of June, 1792.

Rosebery.

[ Transmitted by the Earl of Rosebery. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, most humbly thank your Majesty for the late additional Instance of your Majesty's vigilant Attention to the Peace and Welfare of your People.

Our Minds are deeply impressed by the solemn Warning held forth to us in your Majesty's Proclamation against divers wicked and seditious Writings, by which evil-minded Persons have endeavoured to to render us discontented with those just Laws and that happy Constitution, Civil and Religious, under which we live.

We view with Abhorrence all Attempts of this Nature. We view them with especial Surprise at this Time, in which, under a wise Administration of Publick Affairs, we are enjoying a Prosperity great and encreasing beyond Example; and we will resist such Attempts with all the lawful Means vested in us by the Constitution of this Kingdom.

We have a strong and well-grounded Confidence in the Integrity and Wisdom of Parliament; we are cordially attached to the Government and Constitution of the Kingdom; and we love and venerate our Sovereign, and his Royal Consort, as well for their publick Virtues, as for the excellent Pattern which they have uniformly set before us in their moral and religious Characters.

We pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign the faithful King and tender Father of a truly free, happy and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 15th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[ Transmitted by Thomas Fyddell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, being truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and the well-regulated Constitution of these Realms, presume to offer our Address on the late Proclamation. We are thoroughly impressed with a proper Sense of your Majesty's Zeal for promoting the Prosperity, and preserving the Harmony of this happy and flourishing Kingdom, and shall therefore ever be ready to observe your Majesty's most gracious Command, that a due Order in the Government be preserved, by checking every Tendency to Sedition, whether it be in unconstitutional Assemblies, criminal Correspondencies, or inflammatory Publications. We are too well aware of the Dangers that might result should any speculative Notions or theoretical Schemes be adopted which the Spirit of Faction may devise, and are therefore resolved to support the present Constitution, on its own Foundation, as established at the Glorious Revolution. We are convinced, that the true Enjoyment of Liberty lives in the Security of our Persons and our Property, under the Protection of a well-regulated Legislation. This, at present, we too substantially experience, to risk the Hazard of losing, by adopting Theory instead of Practice, and exchanging positive Advantages for speculative Amendments.

Under these Impressions we are determined to exert ourselves in the Preservation of the Public Weal, and to keep a vigilant Eye over all Persons who may be suspected of any Designs, either to subvert the present Order of the State, or disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warm and grateful Thanks for the Wisdom and paternal Goodness evinced by your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Writings so indutiously published and circulated, tending to produce Riots and Tumults in your Majesty's Kingdom.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, estimating the Value of those Blessings which we enjoy, we are firmly united in the Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue them to us and our Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, beg Leave to testify to your Majesty our warm and grateful Sense of the recent Proof of your paternal Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, evinced by your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation.

We cannot but be truly sensible of the constant Attention of your Majesty to protect the Constitution so happily established within this Realm, to which we are most sincerely attached; and which we deem it the indispensable Obligation of all good Citizens to maintain and defend, by discouraging every Attempt, and counteracting every Effort, however speciously disguised, which may tend to interrupt that public Order and Tranquillity, which is the greatest Blessing of a civilized Nation.

We are perfectly convinced that real Liberty can only exist under the Protection of Law, and the Authority of an efficient and regular Government; and deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we esteem it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our firm Allegiance and steady Support.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol.

HAPPY, most gracious Sovereign, with your Majesty's Subjects in general, in the full Enjoyment of the Blessings of an excellent Constitution, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we should deem ourselves lost to every Sense of Gratitude and Affection, could we observe, with Indifference, any Circumstance, which, in the remotest Degree, tended to lessen the Respect of our Fellow Subjects to the Laws, or to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's Reign.

It is, therefore, with the deepest Concern we learn from your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, that seditious Correspondences have been entered into, and Writings industriously disseminated and recommended to the Attention of our Fellow Subjects, calculated to excite in their Minds groundless Jealousies and Discontents respecting our Laws and happy Constitution of Government, and to bring into Contempt the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Glorious Revolution, and since strengthened by subsequent Laws.

We are assured that your Majesty desires nothing more earnestly than to maintain Public Order and Tranquillity, and to preserve to your faithful Subjects the full and permanent Enjoyment of all their Rights and Liberties. And we consider it as a fresh Mark of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects, that your Majesty has been pleased to take such Measures as will, we trust, effectually check every Endeavor to excite Tumult and Disorder.

Fully convinced as we are that the Wealth and Happiness of the Nation principally depend on a due Submission to the Laws, a just Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will use every Exertion to inculcate these Sentiments; and that we shall be always ready, to the utmost of our Power, to assist in discouraging all Proceedings which may tend to interrupt the Peace and Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

CONSCIOUS of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and firmly attached, from Principle, to our most excellent Constitution, we cannot refrain from expressing our most grateful Sense of the late prudent and vigorous Measures, which your Majesty hath been induced to adopt, for the Suppression of those scandalous Writings and seditious Associations, the too manifest Tendency whereof is to subvert all just and necessary Subordination, and introduce in it's Room, under the Pretext of an imaginary and impracticable Equality, universal Anarchy and Confusion.

May the Vigilance of your Majesty's Advisers be successfully exerted in the Detection and Defeat of every seditious Attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of your Reign; and be assured, Sire, that we, on our Parts, will gladly contribute, as far as our Abilities extend, to the Furtherance and Accomplishment of all such laudable and truly patriotic Designs as are calculated to secure and promote, together with the personal Felicity of our Sovereign, the Glory and Prosperity of the whole British Empire.

[Transmitted by Richard Gilbert, Esq; Master of the Drapers, and Chairman of the Meeting.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damarell, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMpressed with the deepest Sense of the Wisdom, Benevolence and paternal Care evinced in your late gracious Proclamation, for suppressing seditious Publications, and for the Preservation of Peace and good Order throughout this Kingdom, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock and Parish of Stoke Damarell, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the same.

Having experienced, during your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, the Blessings of a Constitution, framed by our Ancestors on the Principles of Liberty, regulated by Laws, we sincerely hope, that your Majesty's gracious Endeavours will cause the same to be continued to us and transmitted to our Posterity. And with the most unfeigned Loyalty to your Majesty, the most steady Attachment to your Family, and the warmest Zeal for the Support of the Constitution of this Country, we think ourselves bound by the strongest Ties of Religion, Allegiance and Gratitude, to make all Returns that can be due from obedient Subjects to a most gracious King, and trust that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Principal Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave, as a Testimony of the inviolable Attachment that we feel to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, as also of the high Veneration that we have for our excellent Constitution, to present you with our most hearty Thanks for having issued your late Proclamation to prevent all seditious Writings and Meetings that may tend to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, or to subvert the Principles of that Constitution, under which we enjoy so many great and invaluable Blessings.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarbrough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Scarbrough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, being fully sensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under the Laws and Constitution of this Kingdom, beg Leave humbly to express express our sincere Veneration and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and also to offer our grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, manifested by your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Writings and Publications against the Constitution and Government of your Majesty's Realms, and for preventing Tumults and other Disorders, tending to disturb the public Peace and Tranquillity.

We sincerely trust that all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects will zealously unite in promoting the Ends and Designs of your Majesty's Proclamation; and that the valuable Constitution under which we live may continue to us and our Posterity that Protection of our Lives and Properties for which our Laws have deservedly been the Envy and Admiration of other Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 13th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, beg your Majesty to receive our hearty Thanks for your paternal Care in issuing the late Proclamation to guard us against Associations formed and Publications dispersed throughout the Kingdom, tending to weaken the Government under which we have the Happiness to live, and to introduce Alterations more likely to destroy than support our present happy Constitution. We wish to express to your Majesty our Abhorrence of such dangerous Attempts, and to assure your Majesty, that we will exert our utmost Endeavours to preserve Peace and good Order, and a Continuance of that Comfort and Happiness we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and the Laws as established by Parliament, which so well secure our Rights and Liberties.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Sensible as we are of the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we cannot but behold, with Detestation and Abhorrence, the insidious Attempts of the Enemies of our Glorious Constitution to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of the Nation; but we feel the most lively Satisfaction in reflecting, that your Majesty's well-timed Interference, and the Attachment manifest in the People at large to your Majesty's Family and Person, and to the Principles of our Constitution as established at the Revolution, cannot fail of securing to us the full and peaceable Enjoyment of our Rights and Liberties, which justly characterize us as a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall in the Town of Henley upon Thames, the 18th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Sensible of the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and anxious that our present happy Constitution may be transmitted unimpaired to succeeding Generations, we assure your Majesty, that we will make every Exertion in our Power to promote and carry into Effect the kind and wise Purpose of your Royal Proclamation.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Montrose, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Montrose, having learned, with much Concern, the late Attempts to excite in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, groundless Jealousies and Discontents respecting the Laws and Constitution of Government of this Kingdom, beg Leave to express our sincere Approbation of those Measures which your Majesty in your Wisdom has thought proper to recommend in your Royal Proclamation, for the Suppression of all seditious Publications, and the Maintenance of Civil Order and Subordination.

Firmly attached to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and highly sensible of the Liberty and Protection we enjoy under our happy Constitution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our humble Endeavours in Support of the Laws, and the Peace and Tranquillity of those within our Jurisdiction.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to render our Tribute of Gratitude for your late Royal Proclamation against seditious Publications.

We disclaim the wicked and detestable Positions which they contain, and consider them as daring Attacks upon the Principles of our glorious Constitution.

We hold ourselves possessed of real Liberty in a Degree unknown to other Nations.

Our Persons and Fortunes we feel protected by a System of Laws which are the Envy of the World; and we shrink from staking these distinguished Blessings on an Experiment for Redress of imaginary Evils.

Permit us, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Respect, to express our Attachment to your Sacred Person and illustrious House; our Veneration of that Constitution, which has preserved to us undiminished our Religious, Civil and Political Liberties; and our earnest Wish that they may be handed down to latest Posterity.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, the 12th of June, 1792.

J. Johnston, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Members of the Church of England, Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly tender to your Throne our warmest and sincerest Acknowledgments for the gracious and reasonable Support which your Royal Proclamation affords to the Peace and Happiness of your People, endangered by the most seditious Publications and treasonable Correspondences.

It is plainly the Object of these pernicious Movements to destroy our Constitution in Church and State, and to level with the Ground the Work of that Glorious Revolution, which has reared us a Renown and Prosperity unequalled in the Annals of Mankind. We therefore feel ourselves prompted by Loyalty to offer in this Age, when the baneful Influence of Republicanism is disseminated by seditious Writings, and when Anarchy is fostered by secret Correspondences, this Testimony of our zealous Attachment to the Constitution as established at the Revolution, and as improved on subsequent Occasions.

Enjoying, as we do, the most envied Success in our Manufactures, and the most decided Superiority in our Commerce, together with the free Exercise of our Civil and Religious Liberty, we cannot withhold our Assurance of preserving, by every Means in our Power, our established Government both in Church and State from the impending Dangers of speculative Innovations.

[ Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. Butt, Vicar of Kidderminster. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town or Borough of Stamford, humbly beg Leave to express our most grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Laws and Constitution of this Kingdom, in Church and State.

It will be our zealous Endeavour, as it is our Duty both as Magistrates and private Men, to concur with your Majesty's gracious Design, in preserving and transmitting to Posterity the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirencester, in the County of Gloucester, and its Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirencester in Gloucestershire, or resident in its Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with unfeigned Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment, which we consider as more peculiarly necessary at this Time, when Attempts have been made by injudicious Associations, and other pernicious Methods, to propagate Doctrines among the People repugnant to the Principles of our excellent Constitution. We have seen with the sincerest Satisfaction and Gratitude the Steps your Majesty has taken to suppress all illegal Meetings, and to prevent the Dispersion of seditious Writings, and fully trust to your Majesty's Wisdom for a Continuance of such Measures as shall maintain us in the Possession of those Blessings delivered down to us by the Glorious Revolution. That your Majesty may long live secure in the Affection of a loyal People, is the earnest Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sheriff and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Hon-ton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the distinguished Happiness this Country has of late enjoyed, its universal Prosperity, unbounded Success, and general Tranquillity, are contrasted with the Anarchy and Confusion into which the Nations around us are thrown, their severe Calamities, their accumulating Distresses, and dreadful Constitutions, every true Englishman must reflect on his situation with Sentiments of Veneration and Gratitude.

That happy, prosperous and tranquil State must be considered by the sober and unprejudiced Mind, under Divine Providence, as the Effect of our excellent Constitution, and of that moderate, regular, and well-conducted System of Government under which we live, and from which are derived Protection to every Individual, from the highest to the lowest, in their Persons and Properties, and an indiscriminate Security of all such Civil and Religious Liberty as can be deemed consistent with the general Welfare or the Safety of Society.

That some, from a Want of Knowledge of the Nature of real Liberty, should busy themselves in the Pursuit of an imaginary one, the Course of human Affairs teaches us to expect. Nor is it very singular, that the Kingdom over which the Blessings of true Liberty are universally diffused should have her Enemies, who envy her Happiness, and would disturb her Repose. But it is not so easy to account how such should exist among those who participate her Favours, and who, sharing her Comforts, should attempt to sow the Seeds of jealousy and Discontent, and to excite Tumults, and, under the Pretence of Freedom, wish to undermine the Foundation of our Constitution, and to destroy its Superstructure.

With extreme Concern have we observed the li-centious and seditious Writings daily dispersed throughout the Country; and perhaps their Purposes are not more fully answered by their Publication than by the Conduct of those Persons, who are forming themselves into different Associations, avowedly on the same Principles; assuming to themselves, without any Regard to Consistency, without any Solicitation, and without any Authority, other than what they claim from their own Wills, the Province of determining for the People at large, of dictating to the Legislature a Reform of the Constitution; professing by it to redress Grievances which are uncomplained of, and to grant Privileges which are unsought for.

For your gracious Interference, Sire, to prevent the Evils attendant on such Measures, and for the paternal Care and anxious Solitude of your Majesty to preserve the Happiness, Liberties, and true Interests of our Country, we are bound to express to your Royal Person our heartfelt Satisfaction and warmest Thanks. And we think it also our Duty to affirm our most gracious Sovereign, we shall ever feel it incumbent on us to use every Means in our Power to counteract all Attempts against public Order and Tranquillity, and to manifest to the World our Attachment to the Government and glorious Constitution of this Kingdom, and the just idea we entertain of the unexampled Blessings we have experienced during the Reign of a King who glories in being styled

“the Father of his People,” and for whose Health and Happiness, both public and domestic, are daily offered up to the Creator of the Universe the Prayers of a free and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Kilmarnock, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this Time, humbly beseeching you to accept our grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Publications, dispersed apparently with a View to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions.

Sensible of the great Happiness and Prosperity which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we will at all Times have a due Regard to the Value of the many Blessings resulting therefrom, and will, upon every Occasion, unite in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue these to us, by preserving the excellent System of the present Constitution.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free and happy Nation is the sincere and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Trades of said Burgh, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Deacons of Trades, of the Burgh of Lanark, most humbly embrace this Opportunity to return our most grateful Thanks to your Majesty for your late most gracious Proclamation, and, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge that Royal Goodness, so evidently manifest by your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious and inflammatory Publications, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we venerate the Constitution of this Kingdom, as established by the Glorious Revolution, because it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject; and therefore we most unfeignedly give your Majesty the strongest Assurances, that we shall ever zealously concur in Support of such just and necessary Measures as may best enable your Majesty to support our happy Constitution, and repress that daring Spirit of Tumult and Sedition, which seem to threaten the Peace and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

At the same Time that we offer up our Tribute of Thanks to your Majesty for your late gracious Proclamation, we also beg Leave to express our sincere and ardent Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People, and to share the Blessings of domestic Felicity with your illustrious Consort and Royal Issue, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Annan.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, loving Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of this Royal Burgh, humbly beg Leave to express in your Presence our sincere Thanks for your Royal Proclamation against lawless Clubs and Associations.

We rejoice that in the Rights of Britons we enjoy, under the benign Auspices of your Majesty's Government, the greatest and safest Privileges of any Nation in the World, and, by the Divine Blessing on well established Laws, virtuous Citizens of every Rank are protected in their Persons, Religion and Property.

We wish every Reform, not destructive of the Morals of the People, nor incompatible with the Experience of Mankind; but we lament the turbulent licentious Spirit of some who claim Rights, which none of their Description ever had or pretended to, and seek Redress, by unhinging the Laws of the best Constitution on Earth, and breaking down these sacred Barriers against Vice and Wickedness, to deluge the Burghs with endless Intoxication and Riot, in annual Discussion of Politics, not calculated to make them either richer or happier or better, but quite the Reverse.

We detest the Principles of these restless Incendiaries, when they miss establishing their sinister Schemes, by a Sanction of the Legislature, try to influence in their Favor the lower Classes of useful and industrious Citizens, by inspiring them with Discontent for pretended Wrongs, which they never felt, and Rights which never existed, and which no Reformer, or Measure of Reform, ever proposed to redress or make them Partakers of.

We detest also the Practice of them, who under Pretence of Reform combine in lawless Associations and drunken Clubs: Dissatisfied with being Citizens of Great Britain, they call themselves Citizens of the World, and fortify themselves by Correspondence with Clubs on the Continent, where Devastation and Rapine and Murders prevail every Day with Impunity, to trample on the most sacred Liberties and Properties, and shed the Blood of their Countrymen, to establish their own ambitious Projects, and strive to weaken the Administration of Government by Lampoons, and Libels, and Mobs.

May the Almighty God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, bless your Majesty with long Life, Happiness and Peace. May He inspire all your People to live in Uprightness, Unity and Love, and to prize the Blessings they enjoy under so good a Prince. That He may disappoint the diabolical Machinations of those, who regarding neither Laws nor Religion, wish to confuse all Things sacred and profane to serve their own selfish Views. And that your Family, the Support of the Religion and Liberties of this great and powerful People, may sway the Sceptre of these Realms to the latest Posterity, is the sincere Prayer of the Magistrates and Council of this Royal Burgh.

Signed in our Name, and in our Presence, and the Common Seal of the Burgh affixed thereto, by

Andrew Johnstone, Provost.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Royal Borough of Culrofs, now assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of the most lively Gratitude for the signal Proof of your Majesty's paternal Care, ever attentive to the Welfare of your People, lately manifested by your Royal Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Writings, and for preserving the Peace of the Nation.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings we enjoy under our present happy Form of Government, we cannot but feel the sincerest Regret, as well as the deepest Abhorrence, at that Spirit of Licentiousness ness which seems now to manifest itself in Combinations against the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Government, and in Writings calculated to misrepresent and defame the Principles of our happy Constitution in Church and State, and thereby to overthrow the great Bulwarks of our Liberty established by our Ancestors at the Glorious Æra of the Revolution, and happily secured to us under the mild and auspicious Sway of your Majesty's illustrious House.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that in our different Capacities, as private Citizens and public Magistrates, we will exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, in co-operating with the gracious Intentions of your Majesty's Proclamation.

Cordially attached to your Majesty's Sacred Person, interessed in the Happiness of our Fellow Subjects, we most willingly embrace the present Opportunity of expressing our firmest Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of your Majesty's Councils, and our warmest Approbation of those spirited and well-timed Measures which have been adopted, in order to render abortive the Machinations of Men, whose Views seem hostile to the real and permanent Interests of this Country.

That your Majesty may long reign with Prosperity over a free, loyal and united People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council and Inhabitants of the Borough of Culrofs.

Signed in our Name, and at our Desire, by our Chief Magistrate, Præses of this Meeting held at Culrofs, this 13th Day of June, 1792.
