Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, has been presented to the King by the Right Hon. William Pitt, Lord Euston, and the Vice-Chancellor of the University: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, in Senate assembled, humbly beg Leave to express our extreme Satisfaction at the salutary Measure now adopted by your Majesty, which we are persuaded is wisely calculated to discourage and disappoint the wicked Attempts of the Enemies of our happy Constitution. We have long, with Grief, observed the Promoters of Anarchy labouring with incessant Industry to establish and spread Principles incompatible with all Civil Government. But we trust that your Majesty's Exertions, seconded by your Two Houses of Parliament, whose Approbation of your Majesty's Proclamation breathes the true Spirit of Constitutional Liberty, will give Confidence and Firmness to your faithful and loyal Subjects, and secure the Obedience of those who might be in Danger of being misled by the fallacious Reasonings of designing Men, or tempted to risque new Revolutions, under the vain and delusive Hope of improving upon the most perfect of all known Political Constitutions.

Sensible of the Happiness we derive from your Majesty's just and mild Government, and convinced that the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination amongst the various Orders of the Community, we will not fail to infill into the Minds of those committed to our Care the true Principles of Religion and Loyalty, and to offer up to Almighty God our earnest Prayers that He will long continue your Majesty a Blessing to an united, loyal, and free People.

Given under under our Common Seal, this 18:h Day of June, 1792.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this dutiful and loyal Address.

The Principles which the University of Cambridge have always manifested, and their Attachment to My Person and Government, leave Me no Doubt that they will continue diligently to inculcate that Love of Order and of well-regulated Liberty, which must naturally prevail in every enlightened Society, and which lead to a just Sense of the many distinguished Blessings enjoyed by My Subjects under our free and happy Constitution.

The following Address of the President and Fellows of Sion College, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Kettilby, President, the Rev. Dr. De Salis, Dean, the Rev. Mr. Bromley and the Rev. Mr. Gilbank, Assistants, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of Sion College, within the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the President and Fellows, the incorporated Clergy of the City of London, beg Leave at this important Period to approach your Majesty's Majesty's Presence with every Sentiment of Loyalty, Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Amidst the numberless Blessings which these Kingdoms have derived, for a long Course of Years, from your Majesty's paternal Care, that which principally calls for our warmest and most heartfelt Thanks, is the constant Protection your Majesty has given to our most holy Religion, which you have not only supported by your Authority, but adorned by your Example.

In full Possession of every Civil and Religious Right, and enjoying as we do, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, a Degree of National Happiness, Prosperity and Tranquillity, unexampled in the History of Mankind, we cannot but behold, with Indignation and Abhorrence, the daring Attempts which have been lately made, in several wicked and seditious Publications, to convert this fair Scene of Plenty, Liberty, and Order, into Tumult, Anarchy, and Rapine.

It is therefore with the utmost Satisfaction and Thankfulness we see the Energies of the Executive Government, vested in your Majesty by the Laws of this Land, so wisely and seasonably exerted in your Majesty's late Proclamation; which cannot fail to repress the Efforts of the Enemies to our happy Constitution, and concentrate and direct the Strength of all loyal, honest; and conscientious Subjects. We are convinced that all such will cordially join in Support of your Majesty's Constitutional Power, the Dignity and Authority of the Legislature, and in the Defence of that unrivalled Form of Polity delivered down to us by our Forefathers.

As for ourselves, Sire, situated as we are in the Metropolis of your Majesty's Kingdom, and appointed to preach a pure, holy and peaceable Religion, we feel ourselves peculiarly called upon by every Motive of professional Duty to promote Order, Tranquillity, and Good Will among Men, to inculcate on the Minds of our Hearers the indispensable Obligations of an affectionate Loyalty to a mild, paternal, pious Sovereign; of Submission to Magistrates, (the Ministers of God for Good;) and of inviolable Attachment to a Form of Government, which has long diffused amongst us a greater Portion of Liberty and Happiness than hath ever been experienced in any other Country.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, has been presented to the King by John Fenton Cawthorne, Esq; and Major Hobart, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, impressed with a deep Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, humbly beg Leave to express our most sincere Gratitude to your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation.

Fully sensible of the Advantages of that Liberty, both Civil and Religious, and the various other Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we cannot see, but with Indignation, the Attempts which have been lately made to sow Dissentions in the Kingdom, to alienate your People from your Majesty's Government, and to subvert that Constitution, which is the Pride of Englishmen, and the Admiration of the World.

We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and that we will, at all Times, use our utmost Endeavours that your Majesty may long continue to reign a happy King over a happy and loyal People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, and the Neighbourhood thereof, has been presented to the King by the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls, late Recorder of that Borough, attended by John Dickenson, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, and the Neighbourhood thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Macclesfield, and the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with due Humility, and to testify our sincerest Gratitude for your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, issued for the Suppression of dangerous and seditious Writings.

Having been accustomed to regard with Reverence our happy Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution, and fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious and benign Government, we cannot but express our Surprise and Abhorrence of all such Publications as tend to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, and to excite Tumult and Disorder in the State.

With such Sentiments, Sire, we shall ever feel it to be our Duty to discourage and repress, to the utmost of our Power, every Opinion and Practice, however palliated, which tend in any Degree to disturb the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and to render them dissatisfied with that Form of Government, which, we are persuaded, has no other Object but their own Happiness.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 12th Day of June, 1792.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth, has been presented to the King by Captain George Murray, Representative in Parliament for that City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Perth, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, presume, with the sincerest Sense of Gratitude and Loyalty to our Gracious Sovereign, to express how much we feel for that Attention and Regard your Majesty has ever shown to the Welfare and Happiness of your People; particularly for the recent Instance of your paternal Concern for the present as well as the future Prosperity of your Subjects, made known to us by your late Royal Proclamation for the suppressing of seditious and inflammatory Publications.

Conscious of the Justice and Mildness of your Majesty's Government, that under it we enjoy the full Possession of all our Rights and Liberties, by it our Properties are secured, and our Commerce flourishes, and that by your Majesty's Protection the happy and much envied Fabrick of the British Constitution is preserved:

Under a true Sense of all these Blessings, which we daily experience, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our most hearty Endeavours shall ever be employed in promoting a proper Zeal for your Majesty's personal Government.

Signed by the Provost, in Name and at the Desire of the Council, this 11th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Alexander Feshney, Provost.

Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells, beg Leave to return our hearty Thanks for your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, and to testify our Gratitude for this further Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People.

We are sensible of the many Advantages which have been derived to us by well-regulated Freedom; and the various Comforts which we enjoy make us reflect on our present Situation with the warmest Thankfulness.

Fully impressed with this Opinion, we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination to concur in the Resolution which your Majesty has adopted; and as we deem it highly incumbent on good Citizens to resist every seditious Attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, every Exertion will be used on our Part to preserve and secure the great Blessings of Peace and good Order.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Basingstoke, in the County of Southampton, together with the County Magistrates of this Division, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the said Town and Neighbourhood, being desirous to testify our due and grateful Sense of your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, (satisfied as we are that the Happiness of these Kingdoms do, under Divine Providence, chiefly depend upon a proper Submission to the Laws, and a just Confidence in the Wisdom of Parliament) beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty to offer our sincere Thanks for your paternal Care to promote the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects, by endeavouring to restrain seditious Publications, tending to raise Discontents in the Minds of your faithful People respecting our established Government, and by suppressing Riots, discourage every Attempt that may be made to disturb or interrupt that Peace, Happiness and Prosperity which this Empire has enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. And we trust that your Majesty will graciously accept our Assurances, that we will, by our Example and every possible Exertion, endeavour to maintain inviolate our present happy Constitution in Church and State, as the most acceptable Means of shewing our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the true and just Liberty and Happiness of our Fellow Subjects.

[Transmitted by William Cbute, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Hants.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Majesty our warmest and most grateful Thanks for your Majesty's general Vigilance and Attention to the Peace and Happiness of your People, and particularly for your Majesty's late Proclamation against seditious Assemblies and Publications.

We desire humbly to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to the established Constitution, and of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty; and that we will use our utmost Endeavours to prevent and suppress every Attempt against Public Tranquillity and Order.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation the 12th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Charles Bragge, Esq; Recorder and Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and Town Clerk of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and Town Clerk of the Borough of Wareham, in Common Council assembled, beg Permission to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Acknowledgments for the late additional Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, evinced by your Majesty's Proclamation for the Preservation of the Public Peace of the Kingdom.

At a Period like the present, when all your Majesty's Subjects are in the full Enjoyment of the inestimable Blessings of Peace and Liberty, resulting from a Constitution become the Admiration and Envy of the World, strengthened and supported by a recent constitutional Recognition of that firm and glorious Basis of the Whole, the Trial by Jury, we cannot but lament the evil Consequences which the late visionary and seditious Publications, openly and avowedly supported, seem to threaten to the internal Peace and Happiness of this Kingdom.

At the same Time we feel it a Duty incumbent upon us thus publicly to testify our Disapprobation of such factious Measures, and to assure your Majesty of our steady and inviolable Attachment to the Constitution of this Country, and to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 13th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

S. White, Mayor.

[Delivered by Nathaniel Bond, Esq; Recorder of that Borough.]

Whitehall, June 23.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the Borough of Evesham, in the County of Worcester, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder and Chamberlain, with others the Inhabitants of the said Borough, beg Leave to testify to your Majesty our warm and grateful Sense of your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, which to all your Majesty's Subjects is a Proof of your Royal Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People; and we look with Indignation at the Attempts which have been made to destroy in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, all Obedience to the Laws, both Civil and Religious, so long and happily established in this Realm, well knowing the Advantages which, under your Majesty's Government, and your Royal Ancestors, we now do and have long enjoyed; and in the present Crisis we think it our peculiar Duty to discountenance and suppress all Attempts, direct or indirect, against Public Order and Tranquillity.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination to support the Resolution which your Majesty has adopted, being fully persuaded that every proper Exercise will be made and supported by the Gratitude and Zeal of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Hands, at the Guildhall aforesaid, the 12th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Gainsborough, acknowledge, with unfeigned Gratitude, the recent Proof, which the Royal Proclamation has afforded us, of your Majesty's constant Zeal for the Interests of your People. We have perceived, with indignant Concern, certain Publications of specious Friends and of insidious Enemies to their Country, replete with Censures on it's Government, and suggesting false Motives to Discontent in it's Subjects.

Under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign we enjoy, in undiminished Vigour, the best of human Blessings. Extended Commerce promotes the Public Prosperity, equal Laws defend our Civil Rights, and rational Liberty secures our private and social Happiness. Conscious of these invaluable Privileges, permit us to assure your Majesty, that we feel the highest Veneration for the excellent Constitution which bestows them, and that we seriously deprecate every rash and hostile Attempt to render the Wisdom of tried Experience subservient to Theories of visionary Perfection.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of this your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty the Tribute of our warmest Gratitude for the additional Instance, afforded by your Majesty's late Proclamation, of the paternal Sollicitude which your Majesty has ever evinced for the Happiness and Welfare of your People.

We behold with Grief and Abhorrence all Attempts which have a Tendency to weaken and discredit those Principles, to which we look with Reverence, as the Causes of our Freedom and Prosperity; but we feel the truest Satisfaction in thinking, that such Attempts will be rendered completely abortive by that Loyalty to their Sovereign, and that Reliance on Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, which, we are convinced, pervade all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects.

We are gratefully sensible of the many unexampled Blessings which we at this Time enjoy: We consider them as completely refuting the injurious Imputations, which have been so industriously propagated, against the happy Form of Government established in these Kingdoms; and they cannot fail to animate and confirm, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, their fixed and steady Determination to support and maintain our most excellent Constitution, and to transmit it unimpaired to our Posterity.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous, over a free, loyal and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 11th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,
George Sloper, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Clitheroe, in the Moot Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Borough of Clitheroe, in Moot Hall assembled, beg Leave to offer our most grateful Acknowledgments for that fresh Mark of your Majesty's paternal Attention

Attention to the Peace and Welfare of your People, exhibited in your late Proclamation against those seditious and inflammatory Writings, which circulate an insidious Poison through the Body Politick, and tend to subvert all civil Order and public Tranquillity.

Till Men shall cease to have human Frailties we cannot expect a Constitution with Defects; but we are convinced that the Form of our well-possessed Government promises, in it's Theory, as high a Degree of rational Freedom as is consistent with civil Subordination; and Experience fully demonstrates that it is possessed of all those vigorous Energies which are requisite for maintaining, without Violence, the due Balance of all it's constituent Parts; and that it is sufficient for the full Protection of Life, Liberty, Property, and what is most dear to Individuals; and our present Situation, under the Auspices of your Majesty, shews that it is capable of carrying the Credit, Commerce, Power and Prosperity of the Nation to an unexampled Extent.

Enjoying, under your Majesty, all the Privileges and Blessings of such a System, we should prove ourselves unworthy of them if we did not revere, and use our utmost Exertions to protect, that happy Constitution from which they flow.

We therefore feel it our Duty, as we value our own best Interests and the Interests of Posterity, to reprobate, in the strongest Terms, that busy, bold Empiricism, which would tamper with so healthy a Frame, and presumptuously apply Medicines the most dangerous to Disorders merely ideal.

And we are confident that we only join the general Voice of the Kingdom when we testify our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and express our Abhorrence of rash Reform and factious Innovation.

Given under the Common Seal of our said Borough, the 12th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

David Sawale, }
John Parker, } Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Town Clerk, Common Councilmen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Town Clerk, Common Councilmen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warm and grateful Thanks for the fresh Proof given us of your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, by your Royal Proclamation of the 21st of May, for the Purpose of suppressing those wicked and seditious Writings, which have been lately published, tending to excite Tumults and Disorder among your Majesty's Subjects. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we have the highest Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom; as established at the Glorious Revolution, and improved on subsequent Occasions, as it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject.

We shall, therefore, upon this and every other Occasion, exert our utmost Endeavours to support that Constitution as by Law established. We are truly sensible of the Blessings we at present enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government and paternal Protection, and shall heartily join with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects to discontenance and suppress all seditious Writings and Attempts to excite Tumults and Disorder within your Majesty's Dominions. We likewise hope and trust that the Divine Providence will permit you long to reign the Sovereign of a loyal, dutiful and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Kidderminster, beg Leave to express our humble Thanks for your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, and to testify our grateful Sense of your Majesty's constant paternal Care for the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects.

The evil Tendency of such wicked and seditious Writings as have been printed and dispersed, in order to raise Discontent in the Minds of your Majesty's faithful People, and to create Tumult and Disorders, we consider with the most serious Abhorrence, and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will firmly unite our earnest Endeavours to discourage every Proceeding, and to suppress every Attempt which may be made to disturb the Peace and Happiness of our Fellow Citizens, by enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, and thereby maintaining the Public Tranquillity.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and participating in an especial Manner with our Fellow Subjects the Advantage of increasing Manufactures and Commerce, we should be wanting in Duty to ourselves and to the Community, if we did not use our utmost Exertion to preserve and promote a Spirit of Loyalty, Subordination, and Industry, from which these Benefits do in a great Measure arise.

Attached as we are by the purest Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, Reverence for the Laws, and a Love for our Constitution, as established in Church and State, we beseech your Majesty to accept this Tribute of Duty, Zeal and Affection, which we humbly offer, joined with the sincerest Wish for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Person and Family.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation the 14th Day of June, 1792.

Signed by Order of the Court,
James Pinches, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, most humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Acknowledgments to your Majesty for the Publication of your late most gracious Proclamation for preserving the Peace, good Order, and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

Sensible

Sensible as we are of the many unexampled Blessings which we actually enjoy, we cannot reflect without Abhorrence on the Attempts which have been so industriously made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, every Sentiment of Attachment to that Glorious Constitution established within this Realm, from which those Blessings are derived: But we feel the highest Satisfaction and Confidence that every Attempt of that Nature will be totally counteracted and defeated by that firm and united Loyalty to your Majesty, and that perfect Reliance on the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, which is at this Time so prevalent in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects.

May that Constitution, which we so deservedly revere, be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity; and may your Majesty long continue to reign in Peace over a free and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple in the County of Devon, impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude for your gracious Protection, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

Your Majesty's Proclamation for restraining all Endeavours to disturb the Peace of our Country by wicked and seditious Men is a fresh Instance of your unremitting Vigilance for the Welfare of the State, and entitles you to the hearty Thanks of all your faithful Subjects.

Convinced, as we are, from the whole Tenor of your Reign, that our present Form of Government is admirably adapted to promote the Happiness of Society, we abhor all Principles derogatory from the Dignity of your Crown, and from that Respect which is due to the Legislature.

We trust, that, by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Councils, all Attempts to subvert our present System of Civil and Religious Liberty will be frustrated, and its Blessings be continued undiminished to a loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Portreeve, Aldermen, the Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Swansea, inviolably attached by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to return our most humble Thanks for your Majesty's constant and paternal Care of these Kingdoms, and particularly for your Royal Proclamation at this Time, issued against Sedition and Licentiousness. Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government and the very excellent Constitution of this Realm, which has long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, and under which we possess, in an unparalleled Degree, Freedom of Religion, Protection of our Persons, and the Safety and free Disposal of our Properties; we therefore shall, in our several Capacities, use our constant Endeavours to suppress all seditious Publications, Tumults, and Discontents, and enforce due Respect to the Laws; and we cannot help expressing our Abhorrence and Dread of any Attempts to alter the Constitution and Government under which these Kingdoms do now experience so high a Degree of Happiness, Peace and Commerce.

And we your loyal Subjects shall unceasingly implore Divine Providence long to preserve your Majesty's Life, to receive the grateful and loyal Homage of a free and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Constable of the Castle, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Cardiff, together with the Bailiffs, Portreeves, Aldermen and Burgesses of the several contributory Boroughs belonging thereto, within the County of Glamorgan, humbly beg Leave to present your Majesty with our sincere and hearty Affurances of unshaken Attachment to your Sacred Person. Impressed with a deep Sense of the numerous Blessings we have derived from your Majesty's Royal House, and the Excellence of our present Constitution, we shall oppose, by every Means within our Power, all Attempts which may tend to introduce dangerous or unnecessary Reform, or to disturb in any Shape the Tranquillity of the Kingdom; and we join our Fellow-Citizens in warmly expressing our Gratitude for the recent Proof of your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Chippenham in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Chippenham in the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to testify (by this our humble Address) our grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty, for the great Care and Attention shewn by your Majesty to all your loving Subjects, by issuing your late Royal Proclamation, and thereby stifling in it's Infancy those seditious Writings and Publications, which have been scandalously printed and published, to inflame and stir up Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your loving Subjects, thereby endeavouring to overturn the excellent Constitution of our Country, as settled and approved by the Wisdom of our Progenitors at the Glorious Revolution. And we humbly assure your Majesty of the Detestation in which we hold the Authors and Publishers of such infamous Compositions, and are convinced, that by your Majesty's just Interference they will be effectually checked in their wicked Career, that the Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity we so amply enjoy under your Majesty's Government may continue, and be handed down to your Illustrious Family pure and un sullied.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, in Common Hall assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and grateful Acknowledgements for that paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, which is expressed in your late Proclamation against seditious tious Publications, and for the preventing of riotous and unlawful Assemblies, which are often attended with the most fatal and ruinous Consequences; and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty and your illustrious Family.

We think it our Duty to declare to your Majesty, that, though there probably may be a few discontented Individuals of licentious Principles, and Enemies to all Subordination and Government, to be found in this as well as other Countries, yet that the great Bulk of your Majesty's Subjects in this Place and Neighbourhood are too sensible of the real Blessings, which, by Divine Permission, they enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, to entertain a Wish for any other Reformation in the Constitution of this Country, than such as, by your Majesty and the Parliament of this Kingdom, may be deemed necessary; and that in this Part, and we hope in every other Part, of your Majesty's Dominions, the good Sense of your Majesty's Subjects, and their affectionate Regard for your Majesty and the happy Constitution of this Country, will be Proof against every insidious Publication which can be dispersed amongst them.

It is our most earnest Wish that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People, too fully convinced of the Blessings which they now enjoy to be deluded by pernicious speculative Opinions of unconstitutional Reformation, tending to introduce Anarchy and Confusion, and to subvert the true Constitution of this Kingdom, which is now arrived at such a Pitch of Prosperity and Happiness as to become the Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall within the said Borough, this 15th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Heretors and Justices of the Peace of Argyleshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer our most grateful Thanks for the late Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard and Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People; manifested in your Royal Proclamation against the Publication of seditious Writings, and for suppressing and preventing Riots, Tumults and Disorders.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we think it necessary, on the present Occasion, to express our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, as well as to the happy Constitution established in these Realms, where the Protection of the Laws extends impartially to every Subject, however humble his Station.

Impressed with these Sentiments of Affection and Attachment, we shall not fail to exert our best Endeavours to prevent or suppress; as far as in our Power, the Attempts of evil-minded and designing Men, to disturb the Public Tranquillity; it being our most earnest Wish that your Majesty may long reign over a free and a happy People.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Inverary, this 15th Day of June, 1792.

John Campbell, Prefes.
