

Majesty's Presence with every Sentiment of Loyalty, Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Amidst the numberless Blessings which these Kingdoms have derived, for a long Course of Years, from your Majesty's paternal Care, that which principally calls for our warmest and most heartfelt Thanks, is the constant Protection your Majesty has given to our most holy Religion, which you have not only supported by your Authority, but adorned by your Example.

In full Possession of every Civil and Religious Right, and enjoying as we do, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, a Degree of National Happiness, Prosperity and Tranquillity, unexampled in the History of Mankind, we cannot but behold, with Indignation and Abhorrence, the daring Attempts which have been lately made, in several wicked and seditious Publications, to convert this fair Scene of Plenty, Liberty, and Order, into Tumult, Anarchy, and Rapine.

It is therefore with the utmost Satisfaction and Thankfulness we see the Energies of the Executive Government, vested in your Majesty by the Laws of this Land, so wisely and seasonably exerted in your Majesty's late Proclamation; which cannot fail to repress the Efforts of the Enemies to our happy Constitution, and concentrate and direct the Strength of all loyal, honest; and conscientious Subjects. We are convinced that all such will cordially join in Support of your Majesty's Constitutional Power, the Dignity and Authority of the Legislature, and in the Defence of that unrivalled Form of Polity delivered down to us by our Forefathers.

As for ourselves, Sire, situated as we are in the Metropolis of your Majesty's Kingdom, and appointed to preach a pure, holy and peaceable Religion, we feel ourselves peculiarly called upon by every Motive of professional Duty to promote Order, Tranquillity, and Good Will among Men, to inculcate on the Minds of our Hearers the indispensable Obligations of an affectionate Loyalty to a mild, paternal, pious Sovereign; of Submission to Magistrates, (the Ministers of God for Good;) and of inviolable Attachment to a Form of Government, which has long diffused amongst us a greater Portion of Liberty and Happiness than hath ever been experienced in any other Country.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, has been presented to the King by John Fenton Cawthorne, Esq; and Major Hobart, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lincoln, impressed with a deep Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, humbly beg Leave to express our most sincere Gratitude to your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation.

Fully sensible of the Advantages of that Liberty, both Civil and Religious, and the various other Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we cannot see, but with Indignation, the Attempts which have been lately made to sow Dissentions in the Kingdom, to alienate your People from your Majesty's Government, and to subvert that Constitution, which is the Pride of Englishmen, and the Admiration of the World.

We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our sincere and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and that we will, at all Times, use our utmost Endeavours that your Majesty may long continue to reign a happy King over a happy and loyal People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, and the Neighbourhood thereof, has been presented to the King by the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls, late Recorder of that Borough, attended by John Dickenson, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, and the Neighbourhood thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Macclesfield, and the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with due Humility, and to testify our sincerest Gratitude for your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, issued for the Suppression of dangerous and seditious Writings.

Having been accustomed to regard with Reverence our happy Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution, and fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious and benign Government, we cannot but express our Surprise and Abhorrence of all such Publications as tend to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, and to excite Tumult and Disorder in the State.

With such Sentiments, Sire, we shall ever feel it to be our Duty to discourage and repress, to the utmost of our Power, every Opinion and Practice, however palliated, which tend in any Degree to disturb the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and to render them dissatisfied with that Form of Government, which, we are persuaded, has no other Object but their own Happiness.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 12th Day of June, 1792.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Perth, has been presented to the King by Captain George Murray, Representative in Parliament for that City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber
