one, and took 120 prifoners. In all, the Brandenburgs have taken about 1000 prifoners, 4 pieces of Cannon, and 2500 or 3000 Horfes. The Danes in the attack they made on the fide of Wittow, were twice repulsed by the Finlanders, but in the third attack they fucce ded, forced the Enemy to retire, and posted them. lves.

Copenhagen, Sept. 27. In our last we told you, that the King was embarked in order to his passing over to Pomeren, this evening his Majesty is forced back by the contrary winds, and is come ashore again, having received an account that our Troops and those of the Flector of Brandenburg, have made themselves Matters of the Isle of Rug. n, Count Coning/marke being retired with his Iroops to Straelfond. There passes nothing of moment in Schonen.

Wifmar, Sept. 28. The account we have from Roflock, and feveral other places, is, that the Danes and Brandenbungs are abfolutely Mafters of the Ille of Rugen, having taken the old and new Veer Schans, the first by florm, and the fecond by the revolt of the Garifon, who threw down their Arms, and forced their Officers to do the like. It is farther faid, that Count Coning marke was paffed over with what Troops he could tave, to Straelfond.

Hamburg, Sept. 30. From the Country of Mecklenburg we have Letters of the 28th inflant, which tell us, that the 26th the new Veer-febans in the Ifle of Rugen, was furrendred to the Brandenburgs, the Garilon, which confifted in 250 men, having been made Prifoners of War, and that they were going to attack a small Ifland which lies between Ru gen and Straelfond; that the Danes Fleet, with the Men of War of his Electoral Highnels, had posted themselves near the faid Veer-febans. That the Force of the Suedes on the Ifle of Rugen had confisted in 6000 men, and 100 pieces of Cannon.

6000 men, and roo pieces of Cannon. Spire, Sept. 27. The Deputies which our Magifirates fent to the French Army are returned, with the Marelchal de Crequi's Ratification of our Neutrality. It is believed that the faid Marelchal has a defign to attack the Fort which guards the Bridge of Philipsburg on this fide the Rbine. From Strasburg we hear, that the Troops in Garilon in that City, kad endeavoured to retake the Toll-Schans, but that they had not fucceeded in the attempt. We hear nuthing but repeated complaints of the diforders of the Imperial Troops in the Palatinates

Cologne, Sept. 30. On Sunday last came hither a French Trumpeter, with Letters to our Magisfrates from the Duke of Laxemburg, in which he tells them, that the King his Matter expected they should immediately make good the 40000 Crowns that were feized here by the Imperials, when the Treaty of Peace was held in this City, which bath the more alarmed us, for that we understand the French Aramy approaches this way. Our Elector has commanded that Rbinberg be immediately demolified, to prevent the French possing them close there.

Liege. Sept. 30. Yellerday the Vanguard of the French Army commanded by the Duke of Luxemburg came to Chainay, and this day is come to the Gates of this City, which hath very much alarmed these quarters. The German Auxiliary Troops are about passing the Meuse at Ruremond, to observe the Duke of Luxemburg, who, it's faid, is sending part of his Army towards the Rhine.

Amsterdam, Oftob. 4. All our Northern Letters fpeak of nothing but the fuccess of the Danes and Brande. burgs in their attack upon the Isle of RugeH; which many people believe may be followed with the loss of Straelfond, which the Allies are tempting with very advantageous offers. The Merchants have Letters from Moled, which absolutely contradict the advices we had a Poil or two lince from Poland, of the Turks having taken Czecherin by florm, for thefe, which are of as fresh a date as the others, fay; that the belieged continued to make a very good defence.

Hague, OEleb. 4. To moreow will be held a Thankfgiving throughout this Province, and the evening will be clofed with Bonfires, and other publick demonfirations of joy, for the Peace; and, it is faid, that feveral foreign Minifters, becaufe they will not be prefent at thefe rejoycings, are gone purpofely out of Town. From Swell they write, that the Chapter of Mwafter hath received the Bifhop of Paderborne Guaditors to the late Bifhop, into that See; and that the faid (hapter hath fent to the Dukes of Lummburg, to know on what account they had poffified themfelves of the Durchy of Ferden; and that thofe irnness had anfwered, that they thought fit to fecure thofe places till they faw who would fuceed in the Bifhoprick of Mwnfter, and that they had made an Election, they would refore them to the Bihop. From the quarters and the Mage they write, that the City of Liege was in fome apprehensions to fee the French Army in their Neighborhood, not knowing what the defign of the Duke of Luxemburgis. The Datch Troops lie ready to take poffelion of Madifwicht fo foon as the French do quit that place, which, it's exptched, will now be very fuddenly.
