Whitchall, June 28.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Essex, has been presented to the King by Thomas Berney Brampton, Esq; LL. D. and John Bullock, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Essex, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our very sincere and hearty Thanks for the Continuance of your Majesty's affectionate Attention to the Prosperity and Happiness of your People; most graciously manifested in your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppressiou of seditious and wicked Publications, tending to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects from that admirable Form of Government established by the Wisdom of our Ancestors at the Revolution. Deeply affected with a grateful Sense of the many and essential Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and fully convinced that it is as much the Inclination as the Duty of all considerate and well-disposed Persons to counteract every Attempt to shake the Fabric of our most excellent Constitution, we beg Permission to assure your Majesty, that is shall be our earnest and unremitting Endeavours to promote your Majesty's wise and benevolent Intentions, and that nothing shall be wanting, on our Parts, to enforce a due Submission to the Laws, on which the Security of the Person, the Property and the Liberty of every Individual must ultimately depend.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Burgeses of the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight has been presented to the King by the Rev. Dr. Worsley and Edward Rushworth, Esq; Two of the Aldermen of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

The Maintenance of Tranquillity and good Order is one of the chief Blessings of the British Constitution, and secures to us all the Happiness we derive under it. To suppress every Attempt to disturb that Tranquillity, or to subvert that good Order, is truly laudable.

Impressed, therefore, with the most lively Ideas of the Blessings we enjoy under our happy Constitution, we pledge ourselves to use our utmost Endeavours to support the Energy of the Laws, the Dignity of Magistracy, and to preserve our excellent Constitution, in Church and State; from the Attempts of designing Men, who, scattering the Sparks of Sedition, disseminate such baneful Principles and Doctrines as cannot but alarm your Majesty's affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 22d Day of June, 1792.

[Price Eight-pence.]

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, this 23d Day of June, 1792.

Given under our Common Seal, the 23d Day of June, 1792.

Whitehall, June 28.

THE following Adreſſes have been preſented to His Maſteſty: Which Adreſſes His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Adreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, aſſembled at a General Meeting, purſuant to public Notice, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our ſincereſt Acknowledgments for your gracious Proclamation, ſo expreſſive of that paternal Attention which your Maſteſty has conſtantly ſhewn to the Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects, by obviating, in the mildeſt and moſt conſtitutional Manner, the pernicious Effects of thoſe factious and ſeditious Publications ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed in this Kingdom, ſubverſive of all Peace and good Order among Men, and tending to alienate the Affections of your Maſteſty's Subjects from a Government under which we all live free and happy, and to overturn a Conſtitution which the Wiſdom of paſt Ages has formed and eſtabliſhed, and the Teſtimonies of the beſt and wiſeſt Men of the preſent, have ſanctioned and approved.

In Times ſo circumſtanced as the preſent we aſſure your Maſteſty we will, in our reſpective Situations, exert our utmoſt Endeavours, by Vigilance and Activity, to detect and prevent the evil Conſequences of open Violence and ſecret Machinations, both Foreign and Domeſtick, that your Maſteſty may long continue to reign the happy Sovereign of an affectionate, grateful, and free People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave humbly to offer our sincere and dutiful Acknowledgements for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, in the seasonable and salutary Admonition contained in your Royal Proclamation.

Impressed with the firm and well-founded Persuasion that the genuine Interests of every Branch of the Legislature are intimately and inseparably interwoven with those of the People, we are anxious to confirm, as far as in us lies, the just Confidence expressed by both Houses of Parliament, that the Sentiments conveyed in their late Address to your Majesty are the general Sentiments of the Nation.

Our Professions of zealous Veneration for the first and essential Principles of our present Establishment are not the inconsiderate Effusions of a blind Enthusiasm, but the sober and rational Result of a long and happy Experience.

Under a Government so modelled, and a Legislature so constituted, as to combine the general Security, Prosperity and real Freedom of every Class of our Fellow Subjects with the Maintenance of Civil Peace and Order, we trust that no fallacious Prospect of imaginary Advantages will ever seduce us to endanger the Permanency of the unexampled Blessings which, under the distinguished Favour of Providence, we actually enjoy.

In the present Circumstances we shall feel it our indispensable Duty to counteract every Attempt to excite groundless Discontent and Disquiet; and by our Conduct in our respective Stations to testify our Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our unhaken Attachment to our excellent and happy Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, assembled at the Castle of Leicester, do, with the utmost Gratitude and Loyalty, return your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for your tender and affectionate Care for all your People, evinced by your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation for suppressing wicked and seditious Publications.

Being sensible that the Happiness of your People is your Majesty's primary Object, and that, whilst they are true to their own Interest it must from thence remain unhaken and secure, we cannot help observing, with the utmost Abhorrence, the artful Means which have been used by evil-minded Men to propagate a Spirit of Discontent and Innovation among your faithful Subjects, by the Circulation of seditious Pamphlets and other Publications through this Kingdom.

Happy and prosperous under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we think ourselves bound, by the strongest Ties of Duty and Affection, to discourage all Proceedings tending to produce Riots and Tumults; and, as we duly estimate the Value of those Blessings, it is our firm Resolution to support the present Constitution of this Country, as the surest and most effectual Mode of shewing our Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City, Close and Neighbourhood of New Sarum, humbly beg Leave to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

The Proclamation lately issued for suppressing seditious and inflammatory Publications, we consider as an additional Proof of your Majesty's paternal Goodness, and we trust will be productive of the most beneficial Effects. Warned of the Designs of factious Men, all Ranks of People will the more firmly unite to oppose them. The Two Houses of Parliament have nobly set the Example, and the Zeal and Unanimity which they have displayed on this Occasion, must effectually discourage all those who are either weak or wicked enough to attempt the Subversion of our glorious Constitution.

The great Body of the People complain of no Grievances; they are happy, and they feel that they are so. They behold, with Pride and Gratitude, a King ruling in the Affections of his Subjects, Commerce flourishing and universally extended, the Public Councils guided by Men eminent for their Virtues and distinguished by their Abilities, and all Plans of sound Policy invariably pursued, which have no other Object than the Public Good.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the grateful Acknowledgements of your faithful Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of your ancient City of Chichester, for your Royal Proclamation to discourage the Attempts which have been lately made by misguided Men, to weaken the Ties of Loyalty, and to depreciate those invaluable Blessings which have been transmitted to us by the pious Care of our wife and brave Ancestors. Impressed as we are with a due Sense of your Majesty's Royal Virtues, and of the many Advantages we enjoy under your mild Government, we shall, in our respective Stations, most strenuously endeavour to promote that dutiful Submission to Authority, which is the leading Characteristic of genuine Liberty, and the best Security of the National Happiness. And it affords us the highest Satisfaction, that in doing this we shall but co-operate with the general Exertions of your Majesty's loyal People, who are paying their seasonable Tribute of Duty to the best of Kings, and expressing their zealous Attachment to that Constitution which is the Glory of Englishmen and the Admiration of the World.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the 22d Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Robert Quennell, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your ancient Borough of Doncaster, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the additional Instance you have given of your parental Care for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People by issuing your late Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We venerate the Constitution of this Kingdom as established by the Glorious Revolution, and since improved improved as Occasion required, because it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty of the Subject; and our Attachment is increased from the Consideration that it contains the regular Means of advancing those Objects with the Change of Time and Circumstances.

The present Prosperity of these Kingdoms, far beyond any former Period, fully evinces the Wisdom of your Majesty's Government; and those who feel as they ought the Blessings which they now enjoy should be ready to stem that Licentiousness, which, we fear, is now prevalent in many Parts of this Country.

We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, in our respective Stations, endeavour to carry into Effect your Majesty's most gracious Intentions, by enforcing Obedience to the Laws, and thereby securing Tranquillity and Order, as the most likely Means to continue us a free and a happy People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto set and affixed, the 11th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, beg Leave to return our most grateful Acknowledgments for the fresh Proof of your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, which you have so graciously shown by the Measures which your Majesty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to counteract the Effects of the seditious Publications which have lately been dispersed throughout the Kingdom.

We should be unworthy the Name of Englishmen, and of the peculiar Blessings we enjoy, did we not hold it to be our indispensable Duty to pay the strictest Obedience to your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, and resolve, with one Mind, to use our utmost Exertions to carry it into Effect. We see, with the utmost Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made to weaken in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects every Sentiment of Obedience to the Laws, and of Attachment to the present Form of Government.

We are sensible of the unexampled Blessings which we now actually enjoy under our well-regulated Constitution, which so amply secures to us the Enjoyment of our Lives, our Properties, and our Civil and Religious Liberty; a Constitution unparalleled in History, and which has become at once the Envy and Admiration of Mankind. May it be perpetual! May Divine Providence support and protect it! And may your Majesty long continue to enjoy the Affection and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Nic. Nepean, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Assurances of our unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your sacred Person, and our zealous Regard for the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution.

Whilst the greatest Part of Europe is distracted with Civil Dissentions, or labouring under the Calamities of War, we behold, with Pleasure and heartfelt Gratitude, this Kingdom enjoying the Blessings of Peace, improving her Manufactures, extending her Commerce, and, by her increasing Resources, enabled to diminish the Burthen of the Public Taxes. These superior Advantages we gratefully ascribe, under the Divine Providence, to your Majesty's auspicious Government, and to the Wisdom and happy Influence of the British Constitution; we cannot then, without Horror and Indignation, observe the late insidious Attempts of certain factious and evil-minded Persons, to infuse a Spirit of Discontent into the Nation, and, under the specious Name of a Reform, to subvert the Foundations of a Government so wisely constituted, and which so effectually maintains, at the same Time, the Dignity and Authority of the Sovereign, and the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject: We do therefore most humbly thank your Majesty for your late gracious Proclamation, tending to counteract such evil Designs, and to prevent the unwary from being ensnared by specious and false Pretences; and we hope, by a cheerful and ready Obedience to our King, and the Laws of our Country, to prove ourselves not unworthy of the Blessings which we enjoy.

May your Majesty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People, and may the British Constitution ever remain pure and uncorrupted, the Envy and Admiration of succeeding Ages.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, beg Leave, with the most unfeigned Respect and sincere Affection, to declare how fully sensible we are of the great Blessings we enjoy under our wise and excellent Constitution, and under a Monarch who is the Nation's Friend. We deem it, Sire, the peculiar Duty of every good Citizen to discourage any Attempt, direct or indirect, against Public Peace and Tranquillity; and are happy in this Opportunity to testify our Loyalty, and our warm and grateful Acknowledgments for the late Proof of your Majesty's Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Loftwithiel, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

FULLY sensible of the Value and Excellence of our happy Constitution, and of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, we esteem it our Duty to testify our Attachment and Affection for your Royal Person, and to return our sincere and cordial Acknowledgments for the recent Measures, which your Majesty hath thought proper to adopt, in order to guard against and counteract the Effects of the late seditious Publications lications, industriously dispersed in different Parts of this Kingdom.

Under these Impressions, we should be wanting in Gratitude if we did not assure your Majesty, that we hold it our indispensable Duty to exert our utmost Endeavours to discountenance all Attempts tending to disturb the Public Tranquillity, or to subvert that happy Constitution, which secures to your Majesty's Subjects well-regulated Freedom; and is the Admiration of surrounding Nations.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the parental Attention you have shewn to the Happiness and Prosperity of the Kingdom by your late gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications, the Intention of which are to disseminate Opinions of the most unconstitutional and dangerous Tendency.

We venerate the Constitution of this Kingdom as established at the Glorious Revolution, and since improved as Occasion required, because it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty of the Subject; and our Attachment is increased from the Consideration that it contains the regular Means of advancing those Objects with the Change of Time and Circumstances: And we sincerely hope those who feel and enjoy the present unexampled Prosperity of the Kingdom under your Majesty's lenient and auspicious Government cannot fail to concur in your most gracious Intentions. And we will, in our several Stations, endeavour to enforce Obedience to the Laws as the most likely Means of securing Tranquillity and good Order, so essential to our Existence as a free and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, being desirous on all Occasions to testify our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Thanks, for the fresh Mark which your Majesty has been pleased to give us of your Attention and Affection to the People, and of your Desire to promote and preserve the Peace, good Order and Happiness of the Kingdom, in having issued your Royal Proclamation for the discountenancing and suppressing of certain dangerous and seditious Writings and Publications, in the Proclamation particularly alluded to.

We lament that your Majesty has seen Cause to apprehend that any Books, Papers or Doctrines, calculated to disturb the Peace of your faithful and loyal Subjects, or tending to diminish their Zeal for the Support of the happy Constitution of this your Majesty's Kingdom, have been or are intended to be circulated in any Part of it; but we can with the greatest Satisfaction assure your Majesty, that no inflammatory Publications or pernicious Doctrines have made their Appearance here, and that the numerous Inhabitants of this Borough are too well affected to your Majesty and the Constitution of the Kingdom, and too sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, to be shaken in their Loyalty by any Acts of wicked and designing Men,

Truly sensible of the many Rights; Liberties and Privileges which we enjoy above other Nations, and which are secured to us by the Constitution and Laws of our Country, we beg to assure your Majesty that we will, in our several and respective Stations, endeavour to protect and preserve these inestimable Advantages, not only by the Means directed by your Majesty's Proclamation, but by every other lawful Exertion in our Power.

Given at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 21st Day of June, 1792, under our Common Seal.

Thomas White, Mayor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Free Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Solitude for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People, recently repeated in your Royal Proclamation for suppressing all seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

Warmly attached to your Majesty, and feeling the many Blessings we enjoy under our present happy Constitution, it shall be our anxious Endeavour to preserve it by enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, and by firmly opposing those artful and desperate Men, few we trust in Number or Consequence, who by a delusive Speculation would render insecure the Lives and Properties of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, and plunge this Kingdom into Anarchy and Confusion.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Higham Ferrers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to testify our Attachment to your illustrious Family, and our firm Adherence to that Constitution, (as established at the Revolution) for the Maintenance of which the House of Brunswick was called to the Throne of these Realms. Permit us to express our warmest Zeal and Gratitude to your Majesty, for the paternal Attention you have always been pleased to manifest for the Preservation and Permanence of that Constitution, and for the Maintenance of Peace and good Fellowship among your Subjects; and more particularly by issuing your late Proclamation for the Suppression of wicked and seditious Publications, which we have seen of late with much Concern, and not without a considerable Degree of Alarm; Publications tending to inflame, by ill founded Insinuations and unjust Representations, the Minds of the People; to weaken their Attachment to, and render them discontented with, that happy Form of Government, which, with an unrivalled Degree of Perfection, secures to all the different Orders of it's Subjects the inestimable Blessing of equal Law, affording Protection to the Person, the Property, and the Industry of every Individual. Deeply impressed with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, we are determined to exert every Means the Legislature hath put in our Power, to suppress all such wicked and seditious Publications, or any other Attempts Attempts that may be made to disturb the Tranquillity and good Order of these Kingdoms; and upon all Occasions, endeavour to approve ourselves your Majesty's loyal and peaceable Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Selby in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Selby, do most humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the numerous Instances of your Attention and Attachment to our most happy Constitution, but especially for your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation, for the Suppression of seditious Meetings and Publications, a Measure truly founded in Wisdom, and by it's preventive Consequences will, we hope, prove itself founded also in Humanity.

Convinced as we are of the Excellency of the Constitution under which we live, that the Laws are sufficient to protect our Persons and Property, and finding our Manufactures, the Commerce and the Riches of the Nation, increase, we cannot help expressing our Aversion to every Attempt at Innovation or Subversion of so much Happiness.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over your loyal, happy and prosperous People, we do most sincerely pray.

Selby, June 8, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Kingston upon Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston upon Thames, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation. We are too sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy not to be justly alarmed at any Attempt against our most excellent Constitution; and we humbly assure your Majesty that we regard, with the utmost Abhorrence, all Publications which reflect on the Laws and Government of this Kingdom, Civil or Religious; and most cordially detest all wicked and seditious Practices whereby the Public Peace and Prosperity may be endangered: It is our earnest Wish that all our Fellow Subjects may be equally impressed with a due Sense of the Security afforded to their Rights and Liberties, and of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Guildhall of our said Town, the 22d Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1792.

Jemmett, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, June 28.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him present to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of the antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Hereford, beg your Majesty to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for the Care and Benevolence evinced by your Royal Proclamation to guard us against Imposition and Error, and to obviate Discontent and Tumult.

We trust Britons, under your Majesty's auspicious and enlightened Reign, are too happy to be blinded by Prejudice, or misguided by fanciful and vain Speculations.

If Change of Circumstances point out Improvement or Reform in the Constitution, already so excellent, the Means are vested in the Legislative Bodies, when they in their Wisdom see Occasion to employ them.

Happy in the Tranquillity we enjoy within our Jurisdiction, we shall endeavour to preserve it, and promote, to the utmost of our Power, the salutary Measures enjoined in your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, trusting that the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, equally sensible of the invaluable Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Government, will unite in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue them.

Given under our Common Seal the 12th Day of June, 1792.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Norfolk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter, the Body Corporate for the City of Peterborough, the Magistrates for the Liberty thereof, and the other Inhabitants of the said City, holding in just Abhorrence those seditious Principles which tend to disturb the Public Tranquillity and alienate the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, impressed with the most grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and most equitable Government, beg Permission to lay before your Majesty the most solemn Assurances of our indissoluble Attachment to your Majesty and to the Laws of our excellent Constitution, and our resolute Determination not only to discountenance, as far as in us lies, all licentious Publications, but also to bring the Authors, as far as the Laws of our Country permit, to condign Punishment; devoutly wishing to your Majesty a long and undisturbed Reign over us, and all possible Happiness from the cordial Affections of a free, an united and a grateful People.

[Delivered by the Hon. Lionel Damer, Representative in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk, in Council assembled, with the most grateful Hearts beg Leave to address your Majesty, under a just Sense of the numerous Advantages which, under the Protection and Favour of Providence, we enjoy, arising from the Wisdom of your Majesty's Government, and the excellent Constitution which, by the Blessing of God, has been established in this Kingdom. Please accept, most gracious Sovereign, of our most dutiful and grateful Acknowledgements for your paternal Care and Attention in issuing your late Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Publications, and for preserving the Peace, good Order and Tranquillity of the Kingdom. Your Majesty may rest assured that we, in our Civil Capacities of Magistrates and Burgesses, will use every Exertion in enforcing the Duties therein recommended, and in supporting and maintaining our most invaluable Constitution as by Law established.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the British Constitution may remain unimpaired to the latest Posterity, is our most fervent and earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Selkirk, and the Common Seal of the Burgh is hereto affixed, at Selkirk, the 21st Day of June, 1792, by
And. Henderson, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by Mr. Henderson.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our grateful Thanks for the Wisdom and paternal Benevolence evinced by your Royal Proclamation of the 21st Day of May last, for suppressing seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

We your faithful Subjects, with humble Submission, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most inviolable Attachment to the Constitution as settled at the Glorious Revolution. We rest perfectly satisfied that it connects the Honor of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happiness of the Subject, and contains the natural and regular Means of obtaining every beneficial Object which Change of Times and Improvement of Circumstances may point out.

Sensible as we are of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, it is with inexpressible Satisfaction we perceive similar Sentiments so generally prevail throughout the Nation; and we trust all your Majesty's Subjects will unite in the firmest Support of your Majesty's Endeavours to continue our present National Happiness and Prosperity, and to preserve our most excellent Constitution from the Dangers of speculative and impracticable Theory.

George Graham, Preses.

Kinross, June 21, 1792.

[Transmitted by Mr. Graham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverary.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PENETRATED with a deep Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, and impressed with a just Estimation of the Blessings we derive from the admirable Constitution of our Country, we, as being intrusted with the Guardianship of a small Share of the Community, consider it our Duty, at this Time, to tender our most grateful Thanks to your Majesty for your Royal Proclamation against Riots and seditious Writings, and to testify our firm and unanimous Resolution, as Magistrates and as Citizens, to bestow the most anxious and unremitting Attention in resisting and preventing, in so far as our Influence reaches, whatever may tend to interrupt our Enjoyment of these invaluable Blessings or disturb the public Tranquillity,

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment, at Inverary, this 14th Day of June, 1792.
