

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 30, to Tuesday July 2, 1792.

Whitehall, July 3.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth, humbly beg Leave to testify to your Majesty our warm and grateful Thanks for the recent Proof of your Majesty's invariable Attention to the Happiness of your People in issuing your Majesty's Royal and most Gracious Proclamation for suppressing the Attempts that have been made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, a Reverence to the Laws, and an Attachment to the happy Form of Government established in this Kingdom, and which it gives us the most heartfelt Satisfaction to see supported by every Branch of your Majesty's Royal Family.

Penetrated with the truest Sense of the numerous and increasing Advantages which we now enjoy by the distinguished Favour of Divine Providence, and fully convinced that real Liberty can only exist under the Protection of Law and the Authority of efficient and regular Government, and feeling the best grounded Hopes of the long Continuance of these Blessings, in the Wisdom, Justice and Moderation of your Majesty, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our zealous Attachment to the established Constitution, of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, of our firm Determination to cherish and promote a Spirit of Obedience to the Laws, and of our utmost Vigilance and Activity to prevent every Attempt to disturb good Order and Public Tranquillity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to express the grateful Sense we entertain of the fresh Proof your Majesty has been pleased to afford of your watchful Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Repression of all wicked and seditious Writings, industriously dispersed for the Purpose of exciting Tumults, of lessening the Respect due to legal Government, and undermining our happy Constitution in Church and State.

The Benefits of well-regulated Freedom, and of a mild and equal Administration of the Laws, have, we trust, made a deep and lasting Impression on the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and are felt so sensibly in all the Relations of Life, that every good Citizen will use his honest Diligence to discourage and counteract all Attempts to disturb the Public Mind and subvert the general Tranquillity and good Order of Government. The Credit, the Commerce, the Strength and Prosperity of the British Empire, depend upon the Preservation of that Constitution, which has been cemented with the Blood of our Ancestors, and which, actuated with equal Zeal, it is our Duty to transmit, unimpaired, to Posterity.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, in our several Stations, exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power, not only to defend the Constitution of our Country against the Attacks of open or secret Enemies, but to preserve the Public Tranquillity, (so essential to general Happiness) by discouraging and endeavouring to prevent all riotous and tumultuous Assemblies, on whatever Pretences they may be excited, not doubting but that your Majesty's anxious

anxious Care for the Welfare of your Subjects will be seconded by the united Zeal of a loyal and affectionate People.

Signed by the Order of and for a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the said County, held at the County Hall at Warwick the 25th Day of June, 1792.

Joseph Oughton, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of the City of Rochester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of your ancient City of Rochester, beg Leave to offer our most heartfelt Acknowledgements for your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection of your faithful People manifested in your late Royal Proclamation.

Venerating, as we most sincerely do, our most excellent Constitution in Church and State, as settled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and conscious of the Blessings (greater than were ever before experienced in these Kingdoms) which we, and our Fathers, for more than a Century, have enjoyed under it, we are animated with most hearty Zeal to maintain and to deliver it down unimpaired to our Posterity.

On this Account we cannot but testify our Abhorrence of the many wicked and seditious Publications that have been so industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom, calculated to disturb the Peace and Happiness of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to weaken their Obedience to the wholesome Provisions of Law and Government, and to alienate their Minds from a due Sense of the Blessings they enjoy.

Under such Circumstances, conceiving it to be the Duty of every good and loyal Subject to exert his utmost Endeavours for the Preservation of Public Tranquillity, we profess ourselves determined, in our several Stations, to use our utmost Endeavours to render efficacious your Majesty's gracious Intentions.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to tender unto your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for your paternal Attention to the Welfare and Tranquillity of your Subjects; and whilst we regard with the utmost Detestation every Attempt to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of this Nation, we humbly presume to express our firmest Hope, that your Majesty's late Proclamation will awaken the Vigilance of the Civil Magistrate to the Exertion of those Powers vested in him by the Constitution, for the Suppression of whatever may tend to disturb the good Government of these Kingdoms, or interfere with the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

That your Majesty may long rule over a free and happy People, and enjoy the Blessings which arise from a Consciousness of having faithfully discharged the arduous Duties of your high and exalted Station, is our sincere Prayer and most ardent Wish.

Elphinstone, Chairman.

Dumbarton, June 21, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, request Permission to approach your Throne with our sincere and grateful Acknowledgements of that paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your Subjects, and the Security of our glorious Constitution, so evidently manifested by your last Royal Proclamation. The seditious and inflammatory Writings, which have lately been so industriously dispersed throughout this Kingdom, for the Purposes of exciting Tumult and Disorder, and raising in the Minds of your faithful and loving Subjects Jealousies and Discontents, will, we trust, be discountenanced by all Ranks of People, when they recollect, that under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, their Constitutional Rights have been maintained, their Prosperity consulted, and their best Interest secured.

Happy in the Enjoyment of our present Portion of Religious and Civil Liberty, we dread the Result of any Innovation, and have no Wish to adopt novel Systems of Legislation and Government, nor the least Inclination to abandon real Good for the Prospect of imaginary Blessings.

Every Exertion in our Power will therefore be employed to frustrate those wild and chimerical Designs which have lately been projected by evil-minded Persons, and to render abortive all Attempts tending to disseminate Principles subversive of our Constitution, both in Church and State, as settled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

That your Majesty may long reign over this great and free Nation, and that your People may ever enjoy those inestimable Blessings which they at present possess, is, Sire, the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council assembled, beseech your Majesty to accept our humble Thanks for your great Wisdom, exercised during the Course of a propitious Reign; and particularly for your late Royal Proclamation, for suppressing seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

Your faithful Subjects, happy under a Government which fills the rest of the World with Admiration, humbly hope that every Attempt to infringe upon the glorious Constitution will be prevented by your Majesty's wise Endeavours, and that the Stratagems of ambitious and designing Men will meet with that Contempt they deserve.

Sensible of the Blessings enjoyed by this Nation, we humbly wish for a Continuation of them, and join in the general Prayer, that your Majesty may long happily reign over a loyal People.

Signed by Order of Court, and the Town Seal appended, this 20th Day of June, 1792.

A. Gordon, Provost.

Whitehall.

Whitehall, July 3.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of a General Meeting of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Berwick, held at Greenlaw on Wednesday the 20th of June, 1792.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty those genuine Sentiments of Duty and Attachment, which it is the peculiar Privilege of the Sovereign of this Country to receive from a free, a loyal, and an affectionate People, and to return our sincere and cordial Thanks for the new Instance which the late Royal Proclamation affords of your Majesty's Attention to the Quiet, the Security, and the Happiness of your Kingdom.

On that public Security and Happiness we set too just a Value not to behold, with Regret and Indignation, any Attempt to subvert or disturb the mild and salutary Government under which we possess them. We revere the Wisdom, while we enjoy the Blessings of the British Constitution, and we are happy to think that we shall evince our Patriotism as much as our Loyalty in co-operating, by every Means in our Power, with your Majesty's gracious Endeavours to defend and support it. In the present highly prosperous State of the Country, while we have the Satisfaction to see it's Commerce extended, it's Manufactures flourishing, it's growing Wealth, and increased Resources, we feel it particularly incumbent on us, in Conjunction with every good Citizen, to resist any Infringement, by the Folly of rash or the Wickedness of designing Men, on that good Order and legal Authority, from which we derive so uncommon a Share of National Freedom and Felicity.

Signed by our Præses in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

Home.

[Transmitted by Patrick Home, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Thanks for the fatherly Attention shewn to your People in your late gracious Proclamation.

We are thankful for the Blessings of a most excellent Constitution, and are sensible that it is our Duty, as good Subjects and good Citizens, to discourage and suppress every artful and turbulent Design of Sedition or Discontent, and every visionary Scheme of Innovation.

For these Reasons we solemnly declare to your Majesty our Abhorrence of the dangerous Doctrines lately propagated and defended, as those Doctrines can have no other Tendency than to mislead the unthinking Multitude, and to diminish that Allegiance which they justly owe to your Majesty, and that Submission and Obedience which they owe to the State; and we request Leave to declare our earnest Zeal for your Majesty's Happiness and Prosperity, and our Readiness to promote, to the utmost of our Power, the Welfare of your Government.

Signed and sealed by Order of a very numerous General Meeting, previously called by public Advertisement.

H. W. Coulthurst, D. D. Vicar of Halifax, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Henry Duncombe, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenters of the City of Worcester, convened by public Notice in Angel-street Chapel, June 18, 1792.

S I R E!

PERMIT your faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenters of the City of Worcester, to approach your Throne with Sentiments of sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, as well as to that Civil Constitution for which our Ancestors have often bled, and under which we enjoy (since your Majesty's Accession) an important Increase of legal Privileges, deserving of our Gratitude, and encouraging to our Hopes of more extensive Benefits.

Conscious of Loyalty as pure, and with Intentions as upright, we are happy in uniting with many of the most respectable Friends of Liberty and Order, to thank your Majesty for the paternal Solicitude expressed in your late Proclamation, to guard this highly favoured Country against the Mischiefs of Sedition and Violence; and we are particularly thankful for the Assurance of equal Protection to all your obedient loyal People, in their Persons, Property, and Rights, Civil and Religious.

To this Protection we, and our Brethren, in every Emergence, always cheerfully resort; and from the Experience of this we shall all derive fresh Motives of steady Allegiance and united Zeal in the Cause of legitimate Government and the Tranquillity of our Country.

While the equitable Administration of Law is thus royally patronized and recommended, we cannot but pray and hope, that your Majesty may receive the hearty Concurrence and Support, not only of inferior Magistrates but of all good Men; and that (under the Divine Blessing) you may long continue to reign in Peace the Friend and Father, as well as Sovereign, of an enlightened, free and prosperous Nation.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

George Osborn, Chairman.

[Transmitted by E. Wigley, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that City.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tregoney, entreat your Majesty to accept our dutiful and sincere Thanks for your Majesty's parental Attention to the Peace and Happiness of your People, by issuing the late Proclamation: We hope it will check the dangerous Associations formed, and stop the Publications circulated in your Majesty's Kingdom by wicked and discontented People, intended to disturb the Public Peace, and to shake and impair our present free and happy Constitution. We declare to your Majesty our Abhorrence of such Measures, Measures, and will by every Exertion in our Power preserve Peace, Order, and a due Submission to the Laws, which, under your Majesty's benign Government, so well secure our Rights, and give Liberty, Peace and Happiness to a grateful and loyal Nation.

[Transmitted by R. Barwell, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Borough-Bailiff and Burgeses of the Borough of New Malton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Borough-Bailiff and Burgeses of New Malton, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's Attention to the Peace and Happiness of this Country by your late Proclamation; and to assure you that we will exert our utmost Endeavours to discountenance all inflammatory Libels, and check every Tendency to Sedition.

When we compare our Government with respect to others, or our present Situation with that of any preceding Time, we look up with Thankfulness and Gratitude for our superior Blessings, and hold in Horror and Detestation those turbulent Spirits, who would deprive us of that mild Constitution by which we are protected, and under which we flourish.

Be pleased to accept our unfeigned Wishes that your Majesty may long reign over a People truly sensible of their own Happiness, which, great as it is, appears with additional Lustre, when contrasted with the unhappy Disorders of a neighbouring Nation.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we are fully determined to oppose all Anarchy and Tumult with the same Zeal and Resolution that we would the usurped Despotism of a single Tyrant; being fully convinced that Freedom does not consist in Licentiousness, but in a strict Obedience to mild and just Laws.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Edmund Burke, one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Alderman and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble Thanks for your Majesty's late Proclamation.

We also regard it as our Duty on this Occasion to assure your Majesty, that, as we highly reverence our present happy Constitution, both in Church and State, so we do greatly disapprove of the Conduct of those restless and ambitious Men, who, under the Pretence of Reform, are making every Effort to overturn and utterly destroy it.

Our utmost Exertions to render ineffectual such Attempts shall not be wanting; and we will, as far as in us lies, support that Constitution under which we enjoy every Blessing and every Comfort which a wise and good Government can administer to its Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 28th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by Wade Browne, Esq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most unfeigned Thanks for the late Instance of your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, shewn to us in your Royal Proclamation.

Happy under the mild Government of your Majesty, and sincerely attached to the Constitution of our Country, which we earnestly wish to preserve unimpaired, we have observed, with the utmost Concern, some late wicked Attempts to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, by the Publication of Principles which tend to the Subversion of all Government, and to the Destruction of the Peace and Order of Society.

We beg Leave to express our utmost Abhorrence of all such criminal and wicked Attempts, and to assure your Majesty that we will promote, to the utmost of our Power and Influence, Principles of Allegiance to your Majesty, and Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, and of Submission and Obedience to the Laws of our Country.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Wade Browne, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Wade Browne, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Rochdale in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and Places adjacent, most humbly beg Permission to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Acknowledgements for your late most gracious Proclamation. Dreading the Miseries that harrass a neighbouring Kingdom, and conscious of the Happiness we enjoy under our present Constitution and your Majesty's most auspicious Government, we should be unworthy of these Blessings if we did not publicly declare our Gratitude to Divine Providence, our Attachment to your Majesty, and Abhorrence of those Principles that tend to Anarchy and Confusion.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we presume to assure your Majesty that we will endeavour, by every Method in our Power, to encourage Loyalty to your Majesty, due Subordination to the Laws, and Order and Tranquillity amongst our Fellow Subjects.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Thomas Drake, D. D. Chairman.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, to offer our most sincere and unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's parental Care for the Security of our present happy Constitution by your late most gracious Proclamation. From a due Sense of the Moderation and Wisdom of your Government, that uniform Regard to our Laws and Constitution, that Integrity with which your Engagements are fulfilled, and that Firmness and Resolution with which your Councils are directed, we feel such invaluable Blessings as justly demand the most grateful Acknowledgements of a dutiful, loyal and happy People. It is with the utmost Regret and Amazement we observe the least Tendency to disturb that Peace and Tranquillity so firmly established and so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and happy Reign; and bound as we are by every Tie of Duty and Interest, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity and inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and that every Exertion in our Power shall be made to promote the Designs of your Majesty's Proclamation. With the most fervent Prayers for your Majesty's Health and Length of Days, we are your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

are

[Transmitted by John Robinson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Land-tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Land-tax of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our warmest Gratitude for the recent Instance of your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People in issuing the Proclamation for suppressing seditious Publications, and exerting your Authority for preventing or checking the Efforts of the malicious and designing Enemies of our present inestimable Constitution of Government, first established at the Glorious Revolution, and since so wisely and steadily administered and supported by your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors.

Strongly impressed with a Sense of the present Happiness and Prosperity of the Country; unequalled in this or any other Kingdom or Period, we are determined to concur with and strengthen the Hands of Government, in restraining the Disturbers of the Public Tranquillity, and in preserving Peace and good Order to the utmost of our Power.

That your Majesty may long continue to govern, with your wonted Justice and Benignity, a free, obedient and happy People, is our most ardent Wish and Prayer.

[Transmitted by William Copland, Esq; Praefes.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our warmest Acknowledgments for your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Happiness and Tranquillity of your Subjects.

We have observed with great Concern the pernicious Attempts that have been made to unsettle the Minds of your People, by specious Arguments and wild Theories, tending to shake their Attachment to that Constitution, which has for Ages been the Admiration of the World, and whose Benefits are now so fully manifested by the Alacrity with which all Descriptions of Persons come forward in it's Support.

In Times so peculiarly circumstanced as the present, we feel ourselves bound to use our most vigilant Endeavours to preserve the public Peace and Tranquillity, to defeat the Machinations of seditious evil-minded Persons, who may endeavour to introduce Systems productive only of Anarchy and Confusion, and thereby prevent our handing down to our Posterity the Blessings we so truly enjoy under your Majesty's mild and prosperous Government.

It will be, Sire; our earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at a Special called Common Day, held this 30th Day of June, 1792.

[Transmitted by John Mortlock, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Irvine, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Irvine, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's constant Attention to the real Welfare and true Interest of your faithful Subjects, and unwearied Care to preserve the excellent Constitution of this Kingdom.

Loyalty to your Majesty and a high Esteem of the British Constitution are deeply rooted in our Minds; and when we see and duly consider your Majesty's continued Attention to preserve all the Blessings your faithful Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's mild, just and auspicious Government, our Hearts are filled with most sincere Affection and Gratitude.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the British Constitution may remain unimpaired, is our earnest Prayer.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, in the Town-house of Irvine, the 2d Day of June, 1792 Years.

James Montgomerie.
