

anxious Care for the Welfare of your Subjects will be seconded by the united Zeal of a loyal and affectionate People.

Signed by the Order of and for a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the said County, held at the County Hall at Warwick the 25th Day of June, 1792.

Joseph Oughton, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of the City of Rochester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of your ancient City of Rochester, beg Leave to offer our most heartfelt Acknowledgements for your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection of your faithful People manifested in your late Royal Proclamation.

Venerating, as we most sincerely do, our most excellent Constitution in Church and State, as settled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and conscious of the Blessings (greater than were ever before experienced in these Kingdoms) which we, and our Fathers, for more than a Century, have enjoyed under it, we are animated with most hearty Zeal to maintain and to deliver it down unimpaired to our Posterity.

On this Account we cannot but testify our Abhorrence of the many wicked and seditious Publications that have been so industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom, calculated to disturb the Peace and Happiness of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to weaken their Obedience to the wholesome Provisions of Law and Government, and to alienate their Minds from a due Sense of the Blessings they enjoy.

Under such Circumstances, conceiving it to be the Duty of every good and loyal Subject to exert his utmost Endeavours for the Preservation of Public Tranquillity, we profess ourselves determined, in our several Stations, to use our utmost Endeavours to render efficacious your Majesty's gracious Intentions.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to tender unto your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for your paternal Attention to the Welfare and Tranquillity of your Subjects; and whilst we regard with the utmost Detestation every Attempt to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of this Nation, we humbly presume to express our firmest Hope, that your Majesty's late Proclamation will awaken the Vigilance of the Civil Magistrate to the Exertion of those Powers vested in him by the Constitution, for the Suppression of whatever may tend to disturb the good Government of these Kingdoms, or interfere with the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

That your Majesty may long rule over a free and happy People, and enjoy the Blessings which arise from a Consciousness of having faithfully discharged the arduous Duties of your high and exalted Station, is our sincere Prayer and most ardent Wish.

Elphinstone, Chairman.

Dumbarton, June 21, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, request Permission to approach your Throne with our sincere and grateful Acknowledgements of that paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your Subjects, and the Security of our glorious Constitution, so evidently manifested by your last Royal Proclamation. The seditious and inflammatory Writings, which have lately been so industriously dispersed throughout this Kingdom, for the Purposes of exciting Tumult and Disorder, and raising in the Minds of your faithful and loving Subjects Jealousies and Discontents, will, we trust, be discountenanced by all Ranks of People, when they recollect, that under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, their Constitutional Rights have been maintained, their Prosperity consulted, and their best Interest secured.

Happy in the Enjoyment of our present Portion of Religious and Civil Liberty, we dread the Result of any Innovation, and have no Wish to adopt novel Systems of Legislation and Government, nor the least Inclination to abandon real Good for the Prospect of imaginary Blessings.

Every Exertion in our Power will therefore be employed to frustrate those wild and chimerical Designs which have lately been projected by evil-minded Persons, and to render abortive all Attempts tending to disseminate Principles subversive of our Constitution; both in Church and State, as settled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

That your Majesty may long reign over this great and free Nation, and that your People may ever enjoy those inestimable Blessings which they at present possess, is, Sire, the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council assembled, beseech your Majesty to accept our humble Thanks for your great Wisdom, exercised during the Course of a propitious Reign; and particularly for your late Royal Proclamation, for suppressing seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences.

Your faithful Subjects, happy under a Government which fills the rest of the World with Admiration, humbly hope that every Attempt to infringe upon the glorious Constitution will be prevented by your Majesty's wise Endeavours, and that the Stratagems of ambitious and designing Men will meet with that Contempt they deserve.

Sensible of the Blessings enjoyed by this Nation, we humbly wish for a Continuation of them, and join in the general Prayer, that your Majesty may long happily reign over a loyal People.

Signed by Order of Court, and the Town Seal appended, this 20th Day of June, 1792.

A. Gordon, Provost.

Whitehall.
