THE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton has been presented to the King by Sir William Heathcote and W. Chute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, assembled at a General Meeting of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the warmest Sentiments of Zeal and Duty, to express our sincere Acknowledgements for the paternal Attention which your Majesty has uniformly shewn to the Peace, Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, and particularly in your late gracious Proclamation, calculated to obviate, in the mildest and most constitutional Manner, the baneful Effect of those seditious Publications which tend to disseminate, amongst a happy People, Doctrines subversive of all regular Government, and inconsistent with all Peace and good Order amongst Men. We feel, in our individual Happiness and in the National Prosperity, the Advantage and Proof of a free Constitution; and we acknowledge with Gratitude your Majesty's ready Concurrence in every Measure which Time and Occasion have suggested to improve and strengthen that glorious Fabric, which our Ancestors laid the Foundation of, and which, confirmed by the Wisdom of Ages, has been transmitted to our Care, cemented with their Blood; and we feel a Pride and Happiness in testifying our Duty to your Majesty, and Attachment to your Royal Family, by Assurances that we shall anxiously and vigilantly watch over and protect that Constitution, as far as we are able, from the Dangers of delusive Theories and insidious Suggestions, from open Violence or secret Machinations of Foreign or Domestic Enemies; and that it is our earnest and unfeigned Wish that your Majesty may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a happy and grateful People.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford, has been presented to the King by John Buchanan Riddell, Esq; High Sheriff, accompanied by the Earl of Upper Ossory and the Honourable St. Andrew St. John, Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford, beg Leave to express our Gratitude and Satisfaction to your Majesty for having issued your Royal Proclamation against seditious and dangerous Publications.

We have been accustomed to regard with Reverence the Constitution of our Country as settled at the Glorious Revolution; and we cannot see without Indignation the Attempts that have been made to indispose the Minds of the People towards a Form of Government so happily established.

We are sensible that your Majesty's Subjects of every Degree enjoy the Benefit of equal Laws, and are alike protected in their Persons and Properties, and we know that we are a happy and a flourishing Nation.

We

[ Price Eight-pence. ]

We attribute that Prosperity and that Happiness to the excellent Form of our present Constitution and we are firmly of Opinion, that to preserve that Constitution is one of the principal Duties that we owe to ourselves and our Posterity.

We trust that your Majesty's Exertions, seconded by your Two Houses of Parliament, and the general Sense of the Nation, which seems declaring itself, will effectually expose the Folly, and counteract the Danger of the delusive Doctrines which have been disseminated; and we hope and believe, that instead of your Majesty's faithful Subjects being in any Degree alienated or indisposed by those Publications, their Loyalty to your Majesty and Attachment to the Constitution will be more fully confirmed and established.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we do not hesitate to assure your Majesty that we shall, in our different Capacities, endeavour to give Effect to your Royal Proclamation, and use every Exertion for the Maintenance of Public Order and Tranquillity.

John Buchanan Riddell, High Sheriff.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Gosport and Parish of Alverstoke has been presented to the King by Sir William Heathcote and William Chute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Gosport and Parish of Alverstoke, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Gosport and Parish of Alverstoke, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept of this our dutiful and loyal Address, and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's wise and seasonable Proclamation; and we humbly trust it will have the desired Effect in suppressing that Spirit of dangerous Licentiousness, at this Time so prevalent.

Having every Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament to suggest, and carry into Effect, such Alterations and Improvements, that, from Time and Circumstances, it may be necessary to adopt for the Good and Benefit of the Kingdom, we feel (as loyal Subjects firmly attached to your Majesty's Crown and Government) an Indignation against the Authors and Publishers of the seditious Publications and speculative Opinions of Theorists, that have of late been promulgated with such pernicious Industry.

May the Constitution of this Country, the Work of Ages and the Admiration of Mankind, be perpetual; and may your Majesty long continue it's faithful Guardian, and long enjoy the Affection and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Whitehall, July 7.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas; His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Canons of Christ Church, the Arch-Deacon, and the Rest of the Clergy of this Diocese, humbly beg Leave, with the sincerest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to express our grateful Sense of that wise and seasonable Concern for the Peace and Happiness of your People, communicated in the late Royal Proclamation.

We have been even astonished at the Occasion which created the Necessity of this Interference. We abhor the seditious Zeal of certain self-created Patriots, Enemies to all Order; adopting the wildest Principles daringly and openly, and yet descending to the meanest Artifices and most clandestine Practices of disseminating their mischievous and incendiary Notions through all Parts of the Kingdom, and among the lowest and most uninformed Ranks of the Community.

The Time which they have chosen for assuming to themselves the Direction of the momentous Concerns of this Nation is indeed unfortunate. It is a Season, we all know, of general Happiness, and of the fullest Prosperity; a Moment when no just Complaint of Grievance has been or can be fairly pretended; for we have been long accustomed to the Government of a Prince beloved by all for a strict Adherence to the Principles of our excellent Constitution, and a solicitous Regard for the Welfare of his Subjects.

The evil Designs, therefore, of a few misguided Men cannot have any lasting Influence on the Minds of a discerning and loyal People. They are already encountered by almost universal Detestation.

It must be the common Wish of all honest and considerate Men, that our envied Felicity may be uninterruptedly enjoyed by us and our Posterity; that, to this End, our Civil and Religious Rights, as we now possess them, may long remain under the Protection of that Almighty Power, which has extended it's constant Favor to these Kingdoms; that, under the same Divine Providence, as at this present Hour, our Kings may happily reign, and our Princes decree Justice; and that, sensible of the Blessings of your Majesty's good and able Government, we, with all Fidelity and due Obedience, may ever be too wise to meddle with them who are given to Change.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Beaumaris, in Common Hall assembled, this 27th Day of June, 1792.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Beaumaris, humbly beg Leave to present our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's Proclamation, so wisely and seasonably issued, at a Time when divers seditious Writings are published and industriously dispersed, and when there is Reason to believe that Correspondences have been entered into for the most criminal and wicked Purposes.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we are possessed of, by the full Enjoyment of our Rights and Liberties, both Civil and Religious; we cannot but condemn the Conduct of such as countenance Designs inimical to the general Welfare in Church and State, and who aim at Subversion of all regular Government.

As it is our Duty, so it will be our Inclination to exert ourselves towards the Maintenance of our inestimable Constitution; and the Advantages we derive by it will deter us from, and give us a just Abhorrence of such detestable and pernicious Examples.

Signed by Order of the Meeting of all the Resident Burgeses, Owen Holland, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Buckingham, and of the Inhabitants of that Borough and Parish.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the earnest Assurances of our humble and heartfelt Gratitude for the many Blessings which we have experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and particularly for that Proof of parental Solicitude for the Welfare of your People contained in your Royal Proclamation.

We have seen with the sincerest Pleasure, and concur most fully with the loyal and reasonable Address presented by Parliament; and viewing, with the highest Indignation, the wicked Attempts which have been made to mislead the People by seditious Publications, and to indispose them to the happy Form of Government under which they live. We assure your Majesty that, deeply sensible to the Blessings of a Constitution which has raised the Wealth, Credit, and Glory of the Nation to an Extent unexampled in History, we should be wanting in Duty to ourselves and to our Posterity, if we did not profess, in the most earnest Terms, our Gratitude to your Majesty, and our Determination to co-operate with Parliament in every Step which may be necessary to support the Measures which have so wisely been adopted, and in every Exertion that can flow from the Zeal and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town of Wrexham, and it's Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government; to express our particular Thanks for the recent Instance of your Majesty's unremitting Solicitude for the Peace and Welfare of your Subjects, manifested by your Royal Proclamation; and to make an humble Tender of our earnest Endeavours to promote the Objects of it, by discountenancing, as far as in us lies, the inflammatory, seditious, and levelling Principles and Publications which have of late been so audaciously propagated amongst the People, and by our most zealous Exertions to maintain, in all it's Vigour, the excellent and envied Constitution which we have the Happiness to possess.

Dated the 19th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall; actuated by a grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, entertaining a just Abhorrence of any Attempts to disturb the Peace of it, and anxious to support the Constitution of this County against the insidious Attacks of it's Enemies, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our most sincere

Thanks for the affectionate Regard you have shewn for your People, in your late Proclamation against the Publishers and Dispersers of wicked and seditious Pamphlets and Writings, which have an evident Tendency to subvert all Order and good Government in your Majesty's Kingdoms; to introduce Anarchy and Confusion, and to render your Majesty's Subjects insecure in the Enjoyment of their Lives and Properties.

We are resolved to contribute, in the most effectual Manner in our Power, to discountenance all such wicked and seditious Publications, and to discourage all such Proceedings as tend to promote Riots and Tumults, and upon every Occasion to show ourselves your Majesty's loyal and peaceable Subjects.
