From Saturday July 7, to Tuesday July 10, 1792.

Whitehall, July 10.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude for your late Royal Proclamation.

We have observed with Concern and Indignation those criminal and seditious Publications, which have of late been so industriously circulated, to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects from the happy Constitution of Government, Civil and Religious, established in these Realms; and we esteem it a fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal and watchful Care over us, that you have, in your Wisdom and Goodness, adopted Measures for repressing these atrocious and alarming Evils.

The unexampled Blessings which we all actually experience under your Majesty's auspicious Government, increase our Attachment to your Royal Person and our Veneration for that unrivalled Constitution, by which the Rights and Liberties of your Majesty's Subjects are so admirably secured; and we think it our indispensable Duty to step forward on this Occasion, and humbly to assure your Majesty that we will exert our utmost Endeavours to suppress and prevent all Attempts that may tend to the Subversion of our happy Establishment, or to the Disturbance of the Peace and Order of the Community.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, Lancashire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bury, entreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our warmest Acknowledgements for the fresh Instance of your paternal Care in issuing your Royal Proclamation against Writings and Correspondences of a criminal and seditious Nature.

It is with extreme Surprize and Abhorrence we learn that there are even Englishmen using their Endeavours to poison the Minds of the People, by causing them to be dissatisfied with that Form of Government, which has for a Century rendered the British Empire not only the Seat of Happiness, but the Wonder and Admiration of surrounding Nations.

We have, however, the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty, that such wicked Attempts have had no Effect on the Minds of the Inhabitants of this populous Part of the Country; Loyalty to their King and Attachment to the Constitution being their prevailing Sentiments.

Sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we should be wanting in Duty to the best of Kings, regardless of our own as well as the Interests of Posterity, and unworthy the envied Name of Britons, did we not oppose, by every legal Means in our Power, any Attempt to change or overturn our excellent Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH grateful Hearts, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the County of Oxford, approach your Throne to testify the Satisfaction that we feel from your Royal Proclamation. The paternal Care and Regard for your People, which you have shewn, by warning them of the Danger to which they are exposed, and by calling upon them to exert themselves to avert it, deserves and has our warmest Thanks. It is with Concern that we find Emissaries endeavouring to raise Uneasiness and Discontent in the Nation, by propagating wild, visionary and pernicious Doctrines, subversive of all Order and Government, and tending to produce Anarchy, Confusion and Ruin to this Country. It gives us still further Concern to find that Correspondences have been entered into with sundry Persons in Foreign Parts, endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your faithful and loving Subjects, thereby undermining the British Constitution, established at the Glorious Revolution, which hath stood the Admiration and Envy of all the World, and under which the People of Great Britain enjoy true Liberty and perfect Security to their Persons and Property. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will use our utmost Endeavours to discover and counteract those who, by their insidious Practices, would sap the Foundation and effect the Destruction of that glorious Constitution, which we shall hope to preserve inviolate, and to deliver down to Posterity unimpaired, considering it as a Duty we owe to ourselves, our Families, our King and Country.

Signed, at the Request of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, at a Public Meeting of the said County, at Oxford, the 28th Day of June, 1792, Thomas Willats, Sheriff, Oxon.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, most humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Veneration for and Attachment to our present happy Constitution, and at the same Time to declare our utter Abhorrence of all those Persons, who, by their Writings, or by their Dispersion of such Writings, endeavour to disseminate Principles, incompatible with all Civil Government, and disturb the Public Mind by holding up the vain and delusive Hopes of improving a Constitution founded by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, which Experience has taught us to reverence as the most perfect of all Political Institutions. We have just Reason to believe that these Endeavours have had little or no Success, but the Calamities which, from Time to Time, have arisen from similar Machinations, evince the Necessity of timely Attention.

We therefore most humbly return our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for issuing your late reasonable Proclamation, and to the utmost of our Power we will vigilantly execute, in our respective Stations, the Measures it recommends, being firmly persuaded that the most effectual Way in which we can serve our Country is by preserving, not by altering our present excellent Constitution.

By the unanimous Order of a numerous Meeting of the County, held at the Town Hall in Reading, the 30th Day of June, 1792.

John Blagrave, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most grateful Thanks for that general Care and Attention to the Happiness and Interest of your People, which your Majesty has so unremittingly evinced. Truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and happy Government, and of the Anarchy and Confusion inevitably resulting from inflammatory and seditious Publications, tending to create Distrust and Dissatisfaction in the Minds of your faithful Subjects, we particularly express our Gratitude for your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, so well calculated to avert those Evils: And we beg Leave also to assure your Majesty, that our most zealous Efforts shall be exerted in promoting every Measure calculated to support and maintain that Constitution, by which our Civil and Religious Liberties are so effectually secured. We have only to add our Prayers for the Continuance of your Majesty's Life and Health, as a Blessing to a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Signed this 2d Day of July, 1792, by the unanimous Order of the Meeting.

Henry Streetfield, Sheriff.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Aberdeen, presume, at this Time, to approach the Throne with our sincere Professions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and of Gratitude for the recent Instance of your attentive Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, in the Proclamation issued against seditious Writings, and for preserving the good Order and Tranquillity of the Kingdom.

Sensible of the many and inestimable Advantages we have derived and now enjoy from the excellent System of Government among us, we cannot but regard, with Detestation, every Attempt which may be made to diminish, in the Minds of any of your Majesty's Subjects, that Reverence for the Constitution, and those Principles of Submission to the Laws, which we consider as essential to the Continuance of our National Prosperity, and our private Happiness; we can, therefore, with Truth assure your Majesty, that we feel it no less our Inclination than our Duty both

both to listen to the salutary Admonitions conveyed to us, and to use our humble Endeavours in carrying into Execution the Measures recommended for maintaining the Public Peace.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Aberdeen, the 22d Day of June, 1792.

Errol, Prefes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's paternal Throne, with the most grateful Sentiments for the late Proclamation, so happily calculated to avert the greatest of Evils, Civil Tumult and Distracted, and to preserve inviolate the Rights and Liberties we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, the Work and Wisdom of Ages, the Envy and Admiration of Foreigners, the Model of Order and Happiness; by which, under your Majesty's auspicious Rule, ours is become eminently the happy Island.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, met in a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Forfar.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, and for the Care taken to secure the Continuance of them by your late gracious Proclamation.

Reflecting on the unexampled Prosperity and Happiness which have been so long the peculiar Portion of this Nation, we regard with Veneration the wise Constitution of Government, to which, under God, they are chiefly owing, and feel ourselves called upon to express our Abhorrence of every Attempt to vitiate its Principles, and weaken its Security. Enjoying the undisturbed Possession of our Liberties, of our Property, and of every Civil Right, we see no Reason for endangering this invaluable Inheritance by speculative Experiments for its Improvements. We are anxious to transmit it in full Vigour to our Posterity; and, satisfied that the Good of our Country is inseparably connected with its Preservation, we behold with Indignation the criminal Arts that have been employed of late to instil unfounded Jealousies into the Minds of the People, and to diminish their Affection for a Constitution, which is the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations. We therefore consider it as our Duty and our Interest to listen to your Majesty's paternal Admonitions, and to co-operate zealously, according to our respective Stations, in maintaining a just Regard for the established Constitution, in supporting the Authority of Law, and in repressing every Attempt to excite Discontents among the People, and to seduce them from their Duty.

That your Majesty may long continue to behold the increasing Prosperity of your Subjects, and to receive convincing Proofs their affectionate Attachment to your mild and equitable Government, is our sincere Prayer.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Forfar, the 23d Day of June, 1792 Years.

Northest.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, humbly approach your Majesty with unfeigned Assurances of loyal and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government at all Times; and more especially to assure your Majesty of the grateful Sense we entertain at the present Moment of the gracious Proof by which your Majesty has been recently pleased to manifest your paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your Subjects, and for the Preservation at once of the Liberties and the Security of the Nation.

We have observed, with equal Concern and Indignation, the Designs of seditious and ill-disposed Persons to disturb the Tranquillity and interrupt the Prosperity of the Kingdom, by endeavouring to withdraw from your Majesty's Person and Family the Affections and Allegiance of your faithful and loyal People, to diminish our Reverence and Attachment for the excellent Constitution of our Government, and to instil Principles destructive of all true Liberty, as well as Order, and incompatible not only with the Well-being of this particular Country, but with the Existence of civilized Society itself. Nor can we see with Indifference these Views of desperate Men, hostile alike to the Freedom and the Happiness of Great Britain, openly abetted by several Societies and Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects, who are diligently employed in recommending and dispensing to their Country the Poison prepared for it by Foreign and Domestic Enemies. We are at the same Time sincerely concerned, that what we deem an ill-advised and mistaken Zeal for a theoretick Improvement of our Constitution, manifested at this inauspicious Period, by some Individuals, respectable for their Rank and Character, should, as we conceive, although contrary to their own Intentions, co-operate with the fatal and traitorous Designs of Men of a very different Description.

We beg Leave also to express our Abhorrence of those Tumults and Disorders, which, on various Grounds and Pretences, have disturbed of late the Public Peace, and invaded the Security and Property of Individuals in different Parts of this Island, stand, and more especially those which have recently taken Place in the Metropolis of this Part of the united Kingdom.

Entertaining these Sentiments, and animated by the paternal and seasonable Admonitions conveyed in your Majesty's Royal Proclamation, we esteem it our Parts, both as good Subjects and as Persons sincerely attached to the Constitution of our Country, to oppose these dangerous and criminal Practices to the utmost of our Power, not only by a due and diligent Execution of the Laws provided in such Cases, so far as we or any of us may be entrusted with the same, but also by disavowing for ourselves, and discountenancing in others, that mischievous Spirit of Discontent with the present, and Desire of Change; for which the substantial Blessings we enjoy under the approved Excellence of our Constitution, and your Majesty's just and mild Administration, leave no reasonable Ground.

We therefore seize this Occasion to profess our Satisfaction with the Form of our Government as established at the Glorious Revolution, and since confirmed by subsequent Laws. We are convinced that the unexampled Prosperity, Security and Freedom which distinguish this happy Nation, are to be ascribed solely, under Divine Providence, to that admirable Constitution, which has been matured by the progressive Wisdom and Experience of Ages, and was established and secured not more by the Spirit and Virtue than by the profound and prudent Discretion of our Ancestors at the Revolution. We are too sincere in our Love of Civil Liberty, of which we esteem ourselves at present in full Possession, to stake that inestimable Gift of Providence, and rich Inheritance from brave and wise Ancestors, on the Hazard of fallacious and delusive Theories; and we have seen no Reason to doubt that the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament are sufficient, without the Interposition of unauthorized Individuals, to provide for any Alterations which Change of Time and Circumstances either have or may hereafter render expedient.

Permit us, therefore, humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready, both to defend with our Blood the Laws and Liberty of our Country against it's open Enemies, and to support your Majesty in all legal and constitutional Measures for defeating that Spirit of Sedition and Anarchy, which the secret Enemies of your Majesty and People are labouring, we trust in Vain, to foment.

That your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Gratitude, and to share in the Happiness of a loyal and contented People, is our most ardent Prayer.

Signed by Order, and in Presence of the Meeting, at Jedburgh, the 26th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Napier, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty, for your constant and paternal Care of your People; humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our most sincere Acknowledgments for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Reign; but more especially for your late seasonable Proclamation, for discouraging the Authors and Dispersers of seditious Writings.

It is not without the deepest Concern, and most anxious Apprehension of the Consequences, that we have observed the late Increase of Publications, replete with such Doctrines as are not only against what have been hitherto deemed the fundamental Principles of our own, but subversive of all Government.

We therefore beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our sincere Attachment to your Person and Family, and that we will at all Times, by every proper Exertion in our Power, support and defend the happy Constitution of our Country, as it is now by Law established.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon, think it a Duty incumbent upon us to return our most sincere and grateful Thanks to your Majesty, for your tender Care and Attention in issuing forth your Royal Proclamation, for the preventing and repressing of any subtle and seditious Attacks, that might be concerted by turbulent and designing Men, to overturn our most venerable and happy Constitution. Conscious of the numerous Blessings and Advantages we enjoy, under our present excellent and well-considered Form of Government, and being anxious to ensure them to our Posterity, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always be ready to discourage and counteract any secret or open Attempt that shall be made to undermine or subvert so valuable and unrivalled a System.

In witness whereof, the said Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the said Borough have hereunto set their Hands, and caused their Common Seal of the said Borough to be hereunto affixed, this 27th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ashburton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ashburton, deeply impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; beg Leave to offer our grateful Thanks for the wise and prudent prudent Measures your Majesty hath (as a fresh Instance of your constant Care for the Welfare of your People) directed by your late Royal Proclamation, for suppressing those seditious Publications which have been so industriously circulated.

Justly influenced by the happy State of this Kingdom, and the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we trust the People of England will in this, and all other Occasions, contribute with us their Endeavours to maintain due Obedience to the Laws, Peace and good Order in Society; and unite in supporting our excellent Constitution, which hath stood the Test of Ages, and is at this Time the Admiration of the World, from the dangerous Attempts of wild speculative Enthusiasts.

Given at the Chapel of St. Lawrence, within the said Borough, the 19th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others residing in and near the Staffordshire Pottery, impressed with a deep filial Sense of your parental Care and Concern for the Welfare and Happiness of us your Subjects, manifested in such numerous Acts and Instances ever since your Accession to the British Throne, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with all Love and Loyalty, to express our warmest Thanks for the very seasonable late Royal Proclamation, which all good Subjects thought it was high Time to issue.

Under a due Sense how much seditious Publications and seditious Associations tend to inflame the Minds of the People, how subversive they may ultimately be of our unrivalled and envied Constitution, how ruinous to that Liberty with which this Land is blessed, we think it a Duty to acknowledge, in the most thankful and public Manner, the Interference of your Majesty's Proclamation. We consider it as wisely adapted to quell that restless Spirit of Sedition, which has been too prevalent, as conducive to the Happiness of all your Subjects. With these Sentiments we beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere Attachment to your Person and Family, and of our most hearty Approbation of that happy Form of Government, both in Church and State, which we now enjoy.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Newbury, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Newbury, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Offers of our unfeigned Thanks for the additional Proof of your Majesty's anxious Concern for the internal Peace and Tranquillity of your People, so zealously expressed in your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation. We receive it with every Sentiment of Respect and Gratitude, and assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Attachment to the Form of Government; Civil and Religious, happily established within this Realm, and that, by a strict Obedience to the Duties your Majesty enjoins, we will endeavour to convince your Majesty of our Resolution to discourage and discountenance every Attempt against Public Order and Tranquillity. We reflect with Gratitude on our present well-regulated Freedom; and it will be our Duty, by every possible Exertion, to inculcate in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects a just and grateful Sense of the many inestimable Blessings that may be enjoyed by an implicit Obedience to the Laws; and a zealous Attachment to the Form of Government under which they live, and to shew them, by our own good Examples, that it will be to their Interest, Happiness and Security, both as Individuals and Members of a great Community, to maintain and preserve, by their most vigorous Exertions, the present happy Constitution established in this Kingdom:

Given under our Common Seal the 28th Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar, in North Britain, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with Assurances of our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Family and Government:

While we view with equal Detestation and Contempt all seditious Publications, tending to weaken our Sense of the Blessings we enjoy, under your Majesty's mild Administration of our well poised and limited Monarchy, we are not the less sensible of your Majesty's parental Attention, in endeavouring to repress Licentiousness and Sedition.

Like other human Institutions, our Constitution may have it's Imperfections, and will be subject to Decay; those it is the common Interest of your Majesty, your Peers and faithful People, to improve and repair, by the wise and temperate Means which the Constitution itself has provided for it's own Preservation. We, your faithful Subjects, are under no Apprehension that any Defects will long exist in our Constitution, without having an adequate Remedy provided for their Correction.

In the present Situation of Things, we consider a just Confidence in your Majesty's constitutional Disposition to be of the highest Importance to our Welfare: This your Majesty may be assured we possess. We make this voluntary and unanimous Declaration of our Sentiments, which we believe to be in Unison with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, hoping your Majesty may thereby be enabled to reign over us with Ease and Security; and in hopes also that your Majesty's wise and powerful Mediation may restore Peace, and that our Example may diffuse the Blessings of true Liberty among all the Nations that surround us.

That your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness, and transmit the Sceptre of the British

British Empire unimpaired to your latest Posterity, is the Prayer put up with Fervour to Almighty God, by your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar, at Forfar, the 15th Day of June, 1792 Years, and the Seal of the Burgh is appended.

George Dempster, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn eagerly embrace every Opportunity of avowing a stedfast Loyalty to the best of Kings, and firm Attachment to the British Constitution. Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, they humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty they will pay the most watchful Attention to the Views of your Royal Proclamation.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, by their Præses.

James Brodie, Præses.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Portsea, in Hampshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's truly loyal Subjects, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our present happy Constitution, most humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our dutiful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation, lately issued to suppress certain seditious and dangerous Publications, tending to disturb the Public Peace, to lessen the Dignity of Government, and to subvert and destroy the Confidence of your Majesty's People in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Chester, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, beg Leave most humbly to present our sincerest Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Care for the Peace and Welfare of this Realm, manifested by the late Royal Proclamation.

We desire at the same Time to express our unfeigned Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to our most excellent Constitution in Church and State, and to testify our Abhorrence of those wicked Publications which have lately been so industriously dispersed, and which by misleading the Ignorant, tend to excite Uneasiness, Discontent and Sedition, and to disturb that Peace and Prosperity which this happy Country under your Majesty's Government now, by God's Blessing, so eminently enjoys.

We also beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, each in our several Stations, steadily exert our Endeavours to discourage all such illegal Writings and Practices, and to preserve Public Order and Tranquillity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Gentlemen of the Borough Town and Neighbourhood of Lymington, the County of Southampton, has been presented to the King by Sir Harry Burrard and Lieutenant-Colonel Burrard, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Gentlemen of the Borough Town and Neighbourhood of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation, and to assure your Majesty that we are duly sensible of your Majesty's continued Attention to the Welfare of your People.

We observe with great Concern the Attempts which have of late been made, to disturb the Peace and good Order of this Country; we trust that, under Divine Providence, all such Counsels will be defeated, through the Firmness, Vigour and Watchfulness of your Majesty's Government; and we assure your Majesty we are ready to stand forth, at any Risk, to support our established Constitution and Laws, and to resist those who shall wickedly endeavour to subvert them.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the ancient Town and Port of Hasting has been presented to the King by Edward Milward the Younger, Esq; Mayor, accompanied by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town and Port, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the ancient Town and Port of Hasting, beg Leave to offer offer to your Majesty our most sincere and humble Thanks for the Royal Proclamation, lately issued by your Majesty, against the Publication and Dispersion of seditious Writings.

Fully sensible that the Happiness of this Country depends upon a just Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution, both in Church and State, as by Law established, we consider your Majesty's Endeavour to repress the lawless Attempts which have been made to diminish that Confidence and Attachment, as an Example of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Preservation of our Rights and Liberties, demanding the warmest Returns of Affection and Gratitude.

We regard the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, as the firm and secure Basis of our Happiness at Home, and of our Glory Abroad. We view with Pleasure and Admiration the subsequent Laws that have been enacted to confirm and extend our Rights and Liberties; and we look with Detestation and Abhorrence upon those seditious Publications which, while they vilify the laudable Exertions, and degrade the happy Prudence of our Forefathers, tend only to excite an ignoble Spirit of Discontent and Jealousy in the present Race, and to overthrow the Fabrick of our excellent Constitution by popular Tumult and Commotion.

All such Attempts we will never fail to exert our utmost Endeavours to suppress. By a due Obedience to your Majesty's Proclamation we will manifest at once our Affection to your Royal Person, and our Attachment to the Laws and Constitution of the Land in which we have the Happiness to live.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of June, 1792.

The humble Address of the Constables, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Port, Town, and Borough of Minehead.

Highly venerating, as we do, the envied Constitution of this Kingdom, and truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we cannot observe without Abhorrence any Attempt to introduce Principles subversive of that Constitution, and tending only to promote Anarchy and Confusion.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we feel it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and that our feeble Endeavours shall be always exerted in Support of a System of Government we so much revere.

Happy in the Enjoyment of Civil and Religious Liberty, we declare ourselves satisfied and content with the Constitution as transmitted by our Ancestors, and as at present enjoyed by us: It's great leading Principles, the Result of progressive Wisdom and Experience, we esteem and venerate.

We beg Leave to testify to your Majesty, that we have beheld, with Concern and Indignation, every Attempt, whether by seditious Writings or other disorderly Proceedings, to cause Discontent, and alienate the Affections of your Subjects;

And we pray that the Life and Welfare of your Majesty, and of your illustrious Family, may be the peculiar Care of Divine Providence; and that your Reign may be prolonged as the greatest Blessing to a loyal and free People.
