Whitehall, July 14.

THE following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Gloucester, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, actuated by a sincere Affection for your Majesty's Person and Family, and a zealous Attachment to our excellent Constitution, both Civil and Religious, acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's constant Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and particularly the recent and signal Proof thereof, which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to give them in your late Royal Proclamation.

We have not only seen and lamented the various Attempts which have been made to excite Tumults and Disorders, by endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects; but we have observed, with peculiar Concern, the persevering Industry, with which wicked and seditious Writings, published with that View, have been dispersed amongst all Orders and Ranks of Men throughout your Majesty's Dominions.

We are duly impressed with a Sense of that Duty which requires us, as Ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to co-operate with your Majesty's paternal Anxiety for the Preservation of the Public Peace and Prosperity, by exerting our best and constant Endeavours to guard the People committed to our Care, against the Delusions of all such as would alienate their Minds from the Love of that pure Religion which they profess, and that happy Constitution of Government under which they live: And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall not cease to exhort them to unite with us in praying for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and an uninterrupted Succession of Princes of your Majesty's Illustrious House to the Throne of these Kingdoms, as our best Security, under Divine Providence, for the permanent Possession of those invaluable Blessings which all your faithful Subjects now enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

The following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bangor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the humble and hearty Thanks of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, for your watchful Care and Attention, in issuing your most gracious Proclamation at this critical Juncture.

We are most truly sensible of the Excellence of our Constitution both in Church and State, and acknowledge ledge, with the sincerest Gratitude, the manifold Blessings we enjoy under it, by Means of the mild and equal Manner with which the Royal Authority is exercised.

The unexampled Success which attends your Majesty's Endeavours for the Public Good, gives us the highest Satisfaction, and disposes us to rely, with implicit Confidence, on the Wisdom and Prudence of your Majesty's Counsels.

We cannot, on this Occasion, forbear to express, in the strongest Terms, our Abhorrence of those wicked Designs, which have been set on Foot of late, to disturb the Public Tranquillity, under the specious Name of Reformation; but we are extremely happy to observe that no Attempt of this Kind hath been yet openly made in these remote Parts of your Majesty's Dominions to which we belong: And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall use our utmost Endeavours to prevent such mischievous Practices, by promoting, as far as we can, Peace and good Order, and by instructing all, under our Care, to reverence Authority, and pay due Obedience to the Laws of their Country, from a Sense of Duty and Conscience.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to the King by William Afsheton, Esq; High Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Period when all good Citizens should unite their Endeavours with those of the Parent of the State to repress that seditious Spirit which has lately so much prevailed, we, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, consider ourselves called upon, in an especial Manner, to offer to your Majesty every Tribute of Gratitude for your late gracious Proclamation for effecting that salutary End.

We possess, under your Majesty's wise and beneficent Government, an extensive Commerce hitherto unexampled in your Realms; we see the Exertions of Industry encouraged and rewarded; and we enjoy, from an upright Administration of just and equal Laws, every Degree of Security and Freedom consistent with Civil Society.

Experiencing these inestimable Blessings in a Constitution, which all surrounding Nations look up to with Envy, and which it has ever been the Pride of Englishmen to revere, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will cheerfully use our utmost Endeavours to discourage whatever may have a Tendency to disturb the Order of Society and the Peace of the Realm.

Sensible of the good Effects already resulting from the mild Interposition of your Majesty's Royal Authority, we entertain a well-grounded Hope that the Whole of our Fellow Subjects will with us unite their Endeavours for the Support of those Measures which may most effectually tend to transmit our glorious Constitution, inviolate and unimpaired, to the latest Posterity.

We beg Leave also to express our earnest Wishes for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a loyal, a free, and a happy People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Leeds: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in Cornwall.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, ever ready to shew our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for having issued your Royal Proclamation, to check and suppress those daring and seditious Publications, which have been published in this Kingdom, tending to disturb the great Happiness, Prosperity and Tranquillity at present existing therein.

Truly impressed with the Advantages we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and firmly attached to the Constitution as established at the Revolution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, in every Capacity, public or private, exert our utmost Endeavours for furthering your Majesty's Intentions, as signified in your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majesty may, by the Blessing of God, long reign over this favored Nation (free and happy as we now are) in full Enjoyment of the Love and Confidence of your People, is the most hearty Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Thomas Orde, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest Testimony of grateful Acknowledgment for the fresh Instance of paternal Solitude which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to manifest for the essential Interests of the People committed to your Charge. Our Gratitude to your Majesty does not, however, exceed our Indignation at the Necessity which has called for the provident Warning contained in your Royal Proclamation against the Authors and the Influence of seditious Writings and delusive Theories, wickedly devised and industriously dispersed disperſed with the moſt miſchievous Deſign upon the Loyalty of the Subject, and the Conſtitution of the Country.

We have, indeed, no Reaſon to apprehend that ſuch pernicious Doctrines, Projects or Practices will have any ſucceſſful Power to warp the Diſpoſitions and Attachments of your Maſteſty's faithful Subjects in this Iſland. We cheriſh no Sentiments with more genuine Warmth than thoſe of Love for our Sovereign, and of Reverence for the Conſtitution of Government ſo happily eſtabliſhed within this Realm; but we humbly beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Maſteſty, that Confidence in our own Strength ſhall not betray us into Neglect of the moſt active Efforts in our ſeveral Stations, by Example and Exhortation, and at every Hazard to co-operate with your Maſteſty and your Parliament in the Reſolutions adopted to diſcourage and reſrefs every Attempt to corrupt our Principles, or diſturb the Public Tranquillity.

Contemplating the Nature and Compoſition of our Legiſlature, in Compariſon with thoſe of other Countries, and the happy Order and Proportion of the ſeveral Parts of our preſent Form of Government, Civil and Religious, we readily diſcern in them the beſt and moſt certain Foundations of the National Welfare, and of the preſent fortunate Situation of this Realm; and we cannot but conceive and declare the moſt decided Averſion and Reſentment againſt thoſe who would injure your Maſteſty's People in their deareſt Concerns, by Endeavours to derange and confound a System and Circumſtances of unexampled Excellence and Proſperity. We are ſenſible that we cannot too ſtrongly inculcate in others the Conviction with which our own Minds are impreſſed, that on the Preſervation of the Peace and Order of Society, on the Efficacy of the Laws, and on the Permanency of the Conſtitution, eſſentially depend not only the juſt Authority and Dignity of the Crown, but the real Welfare and Happineſs of all and each individual Citizen of your Maſteſty's Kingdom; the full Enjoyment of the Fruits of their Industry, and the invariable Security of their Privileges and Liberties.

The good Senſe, as well as the Attachment of the People, will always make them ſee and be anxious to maintain the neceſſary and harmonious Connection between all Orders of the Community, between their Interests and thoſe of the Crown; and may the Bleſſing of God upon our Duties, our Affections and our Prayers, keep it long in full Luſtre upon the ſacred Head which has hitherto ſo exemplarily worn it.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable William Pitt: Which Addreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg Leave to approach your Ma-jeſty with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude for your Maſteſty's paternal Care and Attention towards the Safety of all your Subjects, manifeſted by your late Royal Proclamation.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy by our moſt excellent Conſtitution, under the Protection of your Maſteſty's Government, we moſt ardently join in applauding the Meaſures taken by your Maſteſty's Miniſters for preſerving the Peace of this Country; and for defeating all dangerous and ſeditious Attempts to diſturb it; and we moſt fervently unite in earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that your Maſteſty may continue, to the full'eſt Extent of Time, to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 7th Day of July, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Jerviſ, one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Maſteſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your antient Corporation of Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, humbly thank your Maſteſty for your kind and paternal Care and Interference at this Juncture for your late gracious Proclamation againſt factious and ſeditious Writers, or whoever elſe may dare to make an Attempt to undermine our moſt invaluable Conſtitution; and we are fully determined we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to reſiſt any Attempt that may be made to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Maſteſty's Government.

That your Maſteſty may long continue to reign over a free, happy and united People, is the moſt ardent Wiſh and Deſire of your Maſteſty's loyal Subjects of this Corporation.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury has been preſented to the King by J. Cox Hippſley and J. Creſpigny, Eſqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Maſteſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of your antient Borough of Sudbury, in your County of Suffolk; in Common Hall aſſembled, animated with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection for your Maſteſty's Perſon and Family, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Acknowledgements to your Majesty for the Exercise of the just Prerogative of the Crown, manifested in your late gracious Proclamation for the Preservation of Public Order and Tranquillity.

Deeply impressed with the Conviction of the solid Blessings assured to us by our excellent Constitution, matured by the Wisdom and Experience of Ages, we look with Abhorrence to every seditious Attempt to influence the Minds of the People with Opinions and Writings subversive of that Constitution, as by Law established; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Exertions on our Part shall be wanting to give every Aid and Effect to the Executive Power in defeating the wicked Designs of the Enemies of your Majesty's Government and the domestic Tranquillity of these Realms.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, this 26th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Stephen Oliver, Mayor.

J. Cox Hippisley, Recorder.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford has been presented to the King by James Macpherfon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach the Throne with all Humility, Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection, to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the Blessings which we enjoy, in common with our Fellow Subjects, under your Majesty's auspicious and paternal Government.

Most zealously attached as we are to the Glorious Revolution, which called the illustrious House of Hanover to the Throne, we look with Indignation and Horror upon the Attempts that have been lately made to inflame the Minds of the People, by dangerous and seditious Publications against a Constitution of Government, whose Excellence is unequalled in the Annals of Mankind.

We, therefore, most humbly thank your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation, and for the Measures which your Majesty has been most graciously pleased to adopt, for preserving entire to your loyal and happy Subjects the Constitution confirmed and established by the Revolution; which, by giving a proper and just Weight to the Crown, supports the Liberties of the Subject.

That your Majesty may long reign over a great People, made happy by your many Royal Virtues, is the most earnest and sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been presented to the King by the Hon. H. Walpole and Sir M. B. Folkes, Bart. the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled, intreat your Majesty to accept our sincere Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation against seditious and inflammatory Publications.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to the Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution, and of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and that we will, on all Occasions, use our best Endeavours to prevent and suppress all Attempts to interrupt the Public Tranquillity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in King's Lynn, the 4th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch has been presented to the King by George Rose, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch.

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere and grateful Thanks for the unremitting Attention your Majesty has, on every Occasion, shewn to the Happiness and Prosperity of your People, and to acknowledge, in a particular Manner, the late judicious and beneficent Instance of it, in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of wicked and seditious Publications, and for the Prevention of Tumults, at a Time when Principles of the most dangerous Tendency were disseminated with great Industry.

We are deeply sensible of the Advantages we enjoy in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects under the Constitution as established by our Ancestors at the Revolution; and we are persuaded that the wild and extravagant Theories, opposed to it by mischievous or speculative Persons, will produce no other Effect, than to lead to a stronger Demonstration than ever of the Wisdom, the Prudence, and the true Patriotism of those who framed and established the glorious System.

Under this Impression, and feeling very forcibly the inestimable Blessings and Advantages your People derive rive from your Majesty's mild and just Government, we shall not fail to resist, as far as can depend upon us, all Attempts at Innovation; and your Majesty may be assured of our utmost Exertions to repress all Proceedings, of whatever Kind, tending to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's Subjects.

Given, on the Part of the Mayor and Burgesses, under their Common Seal, this 9th Day of July, 1792.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, has been presented to the King by John Heathcote and G. N. Edwards, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to express, in the strongest Manner, our grateful Thanks for the Attention shewn by your Majesty in the late Proclamation to maintain good Order, and for the Suppression of the seditious and wicked Publications, circulated by Persons inimical both to the Peace and Welfare of these Kingdoms.

Your Royal and paternal Care is manifested by the reminding your Subjects of the excellent Principles of our Constitution as established at the Revolution, and of your Desire that Obedience to the Laws may be enforced.

We most sincerely wish your Majesty may long reign over a happy People, and have every possible Enjoyment of Health and Prosperity.

James Tiptaft, Sheriff,

For and on Behalf of the County of Rutland.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford, has been presented to the King by James Bouchier, Esq; High Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hartford, fully sensible of the many Blessings which the well-regulated Constitution of this Country has so firmly secured to us, beg Leave, with the highest Sense of Gratitude, to make our most unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty for your Majesty's paternal Care of your Subjects, recently exemplified in your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of all seditious Publications, which have been industriously dispersed, and might eventually prove highly dangerous to the Public Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom,

Strongly impressed with these Feelings, suffer us to assure your Majesty that we shall be ready, in every Emergency, to support and aid your Endeavors to withstand all Attempts that may be made to endanger that Constitution, which we hold so dear, and under which this Country continues to flourish in so unexampled a Manner, even at a Time when surrounding Nations are harrassed by Anarchy and Confusion.

Long may your Majesty reign over a loyal, free, and happy People, and may they be sufficiently sensible of their Felicity to be induced to cherish and protect the Source from which it principally springs; that it may thus descend pure and unpolliuted to future Ages.

Signed at the Request of a numerous Meeting, at the Shire House at Hartford, this 10th Day of July, 1792,

James Bouchier, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Nobility, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Flint, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Lord Kenyon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Flint, fully sensible, at all Times, of your Majesty's paternal Care and Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, beg Leave to offer our dutiful and unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Attention to these Objects by your late Royal Proclamation, warning your faithful Subjects against the pernicious Effects of divers seditious Writings and Publications, tending to excite the most groundless Jealousies and Discontents, and to subvert the Peace and good Order of Society, and which, from the uncommon Zeal and Industry used in dispersing them through all Parts of the Kingdom (more perhaps than from any Weight in themselves) justly called from your Majesty Notice and Censure.

We cannot but think all Correspondences with Persons in Foreign Parts, whose avowed Principles are adverse to the Establishments, Civil and Religious, of this Country, and with a View to forward the evil Designs of such Writings, as highly criminal; and we conceive that the Example of arbitrary Rule and Public Violence should more and more endear to us that Security and those Blessings, which we derive from a free and well-regulated Government, and which, under your Majesty's Protection, we so eminently enjoy.

Impressed with these Sentiments, and having the surest Confidence in your Majesty's sincere Attachment, and that of the Heir of this Crown, to the true and genuine Principles of the Constitution, recognized and confirmed at the Glorious Revolution;

We will not fail in our earnest Endeavours to suppress and oppose all seditious and illegal Practices, and to give every Testimony of our Warmth and Affection for your Majesty's Person and the Rights of the Crown.

Whitehall, July 14.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Thanks for the paternal Regard, manifested to us and all our Fellow Subjects, in your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, which we trust will be the Means of preserving the Peace of our Country, and the Permanency of our happy Constitution, under which we enjoy a Degree of Liberty and Prosperity unprecedented in the Annals of Great Britain.

We adore the Goodness of Almighty God in having protected your Majesty's Life, which we devoutly wish and pray to be continued for many Years, as an inestimable Blessing to your Royal Consort and illustrious Progeny, and an Example to all Europe of a mild and beneficent Reign, as well as of every Virtue, private and public.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs and Aldermen of the Borough, and the Inhabitants of the Town of Dorchester, grateful for the Blessings which they enjoy, under a Form of Government more perfect than any which Wisdom hath hitherto devised, or Public Spirit carried into Execution, think it their Duty to offer to your Majesty their unfeigned Thanks for your parental Vigilance, which has been so lately exercised in endeavouring to preserve those Blessings.

They rejoice in an Opportunity of declaring, that whatever may be attempted by seditious Men, regardless of the Peace and Happiness of Society, no Attempt whatever can lessen their Reverence and Love for the Constitution of this Country, or their affectionate Loyalty to your Royal Person: And they assure your Majesty, that it shall be their earnest Endeavour to pursue the Dictates of your Proclamation.

[Transmitted by the Hon. Cropley Ashley, and Francis Fane, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Presbytery of Dundee, impressed with a just Sense of the valuable Privileges and Advantages which, by the Providence of God, we enjoy under our free and happy Constitution of Government, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our humble Tribute of Gratitude for your paternal Regard, expressed in your late Proclamation, for the Interests and Happiness of your People, and for your uniform and unremitting Exertions, in maintaining the Security and Safety of the State.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we sincerely disapprove of all Publications that may have any Tendency to introduce Licentiousness and Disorder into the Community, to withdraw the Confidence of the People from Parliament, and to subvert the Principles of the British Constitution; and that we will endeavour, both in public and in private, to maintain, among all the People committed to our Care, Respect and Submission to the Laws and the Public Authority of Government, as established by our Ancestors in the Year 1688.

As the Prosperity and Improvement of Britain in general, and of Scotland in particular, were never so conspicuous in any Period of our History, we fondly hope that no improper Spirit of Innovation will take place, and that our present valuable Privileges and Blessings will be transmitted to our Posterity.

That your Majesty may long continue to support, by your Influence and Example, the true Interests of Religion and the State, and, when you have finished your Course on Earth, receive a Crown without Cares, and a Kingdom which cannot be moved, is the sincere and ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and most affectionate Subjects,

The Presbytery of Dundee.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and at our Appointment.

James Blinshall, Moderator.

[Transmitted by D. Scot, Esq;]

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Sussex.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Sussex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Thanks for your paternal Care of the Peace and Happiness of all your loving Subjects, and especially for your late most gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of all wicked and seditious Writings, which are intended to disturb our Civil and Religious Liberties, and our most excellent Constitution, in Church and State.

Convinced that the Wealth, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom depend upon a due Submission to the Laws, a just Confidence in the Integrity and Wisdom of Parliament, and a zealous Attachment to the Government and Constitution, we will use our utmost Endeavours to prevent the Dispersion of any seditious and wicked Writings, which can tend only to the Encouragement of Riots, Tumults and Disorders, and must inevitably disturb the Peace of this happy Kingdom, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

That Divine Providence, which has been pleased to permit your Majesty to reign over a grateful and loyal People for many Years past, may continue to preserve your Majesty in Health, Peace and

Happiness

Happinefs, to reign over them for many Years to come, is, and shall be the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.
